The Chicago Police Department is investigating an incident that took place near the intersection of State and 8th Street this afternoon following the Chicago Blackhawks celebration. A verbal altercation occurred between two groups of unknown male subjects. The argument escalated into a physical confrontation and one male sustained injuries from a knife or bottle and was transported to the hospital. The offender fled the scene and is not in custody.

None of the involved individuals have any known affiliation with Columbia College Chicago.

If you have any information that may aid the Chicago Police Department in their investigation, you are asked to telephone 312-745-4290.

You are reminded of general precautionary measures:

- Be alert – maintain an awareness of your surroundings and those around you.
- Call 911 – if you feel unsafe or observe suspicious behavior.
- Be vigilant – do not become distracted when using a cell phone or wearing headphones.
