Community Safety Alert

Dear Residents:

On Thursday, September 05, 2024, at approximately 12:20am, a robbery and simple battery occurred at the CTA Bus Stop located at Dearborn and Polk. Two perpetrators were involved in the incident, and one has been arrested.

We share your concern and are fully cooperating with the investigation. Our knowledge of the details is limited, but you can contact the Chicago Police Department with any information or questions about the investigation or the incident.

As always, if you see any suspicious behavior, please do not hesitate to contact UC Security or the Chicago Police Department. Call 911 if you or anyone else is in immediate danger. UC Security also recommends taking the following precautions:

- Walk in groups whenever possible and look out for each other
- Always stay aware of your surroundings
- Avoid isolated dark areas
- Avoid displaying valuable property in public areas
- Keep your cell phone accessible
- If you are approached, take note of the person's appearance, clothing and anything unusual that will help identify the suspect

Please also note that this is an ongoing investigation, so there may be additional police activity at our community in the coming days. Thank you.

Sincerely,

University Center Security Services
