Columbia College Chicago Community:

We want to make you aware of an incident that occurred on Wednesday, August 10. An individual made threats via telephone. We take all threats of this nature seriously. Our Safety and Security team immediately contacted law enforcement and the threat was deemed not credible. The making of such threats, however, is a felony and the Chicago Police Department made a swift arrest in this case.

The safety of students and staff is our first concern. In many cases like this one, individuals who make threats are looking to be disruptive. We appreciate the support of the Chicago Police Department in helping maintain the safety of the campus.

As a reminder, everyone plays a role in the safety of our college and if you See Something, Say Something.
