Columbia College Chicago Community:

Crime Advisory

Campus Security is alerting the campus community of repeated incidents of alleged criminal activity occurring in a parking structure at 801 S. Wabash Avenue. According to information obtained from the Chicago Police Department and media reports, the Chicago Police Department has made arrests and is investigating incidents of reported violence, alleged weapons violations, and alleged narcotic offenses within the parking structure. This parking structure is unaffiliated with Columbia College Chicago. Campus Security has been in contact with the City of Chicago about the alleged criminal activity. Campus Security is sharing this information with the campus community to heighten awareness and remind those coming to campus to follow the safety precautions provided below.

General Safety Precautions

- Remain alert.
- Buddy-up: travel in groups through well-lit and high-traffic areas after dark.
- Call 911 for suspicious public street activity and all life-safety emergencies.
- Inform Campus Security of any crime or safety concern.

Evening Security Escort Program

Columbia provides an after-hours Security Escort Program that is available seven days a week from 6 p.m.–1 a.m. Learn more about how to use the Security Escort Program.
