OVERVIEW

POLICY FOR PREPARING THE ANNUAL SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY REPORT

Campus Safety and Security at Columbia College Chicago is dedicated to fostering public safety and securing a campus environment conducive to academic and creative excellence. With your cooperation and vigilance, Campus Safety and Security will continue to enhance and build upon this mission.

Columbia issues this report annually in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) as amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013. We encourage you to review the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report in its entirety. The objective is to share information about campus crime and to educate our community about crime reporting, fire safety, and various security programs, policies, and procedures.

Campus Safety and Security created this report with information received from the Chicago Police Department, the Los Angeles Police Department, and designated campus officials, including personnel from Residence Life, Leased Residential Housing Partners, Student Health and Support, Student Services, and Human Resources.

Faculty, staff, and students are notified by email of the availability of the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report on the college website at students.colum.edu/safety.

Prospective employees and students have access to this information on Columbia employment and Admissions application forms as well as on the Campus Safety and Security website.

A printed copy of this report is available from Campus Safety and Security upon request. Questions or additional information regarding the report can be directed to the associate vice president of Campus Safety and Security at 312-369-3220.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE CHICAGO
CAMPUS 2020 GEOGRAPHY

Columbia’s Chicago campus is located in the vibrant South Loop neighborhood, nestled among public parks, hotels, and public transportation systems. The campus footprint consists of leased and owned properties serving a campus community of nearly 7,000 students, of which approximately 2,500 reside in on-campus student housing.

Columbia’s Los Angeles classrooms are located at Raleigh Studios, the longest continuously operated studio in the country. LA student housing is located at Park La Brea, a 160-acre community in the Miracle Mile district of LA.

CAMPUS SECURITY OPERATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

INTRODUCTION
Campus Safety and Security’s foremost priority is the safety and well-being of our community. Our campus buildings and student residential housing facilities are interwoven among businesses, private residences, hotels, parks, restaurants, and museums. Public safety is a shared responsibility, and we welcome your partnership to help foster a safe campus committed to academic excellence and creative practice.

PERSONNEL
The associate vice president of Campus Safety and Security leads the security team and its three branches:

- Field Operations
- Investigations and Compliance
- Emergency Management

The security force is non-sworn, unarmed, and does not have sworn arrest authority. Campus Safety and Security requires campus security personnel to either: (1) be graduates of a training academy certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board or (2) have successfully passed the State of Illinois Basic Security Course and be licensed by the State of Illinois Department of Professional Regulation. Required training includes first aid/CPR and the use of automated external defibrillators (AEDs). Security staff and supervisors undergo additional training on a variety of public safety topics.

Campus security officers exercise their authority by enforcing Columbia’s regulations and policies on college private property and may ask any person for identification to determine whether individuals have lawful business at the college. The campus community is encouraged to promptly and accurately report all crime to Campus Safety and Security and the local police department.

CHICAGO DEPLOYMENT
Most campus buildings have a security station staffed by contracted security officers in the lobby. These fixed posts may be supplemented by either foot, vehicle, bicycle, or Segway personnel.

Student housing consists of leased properties. Leased residential facilities are staffed by security personnel provided, supervised, and managed by the individual property management companies. Entry into all Chicago residential facilities is restricted to residents, their approved guests, and other authorized persons. Access is monitored and regulated by the respective personnel assigned to the front desk.

The Campus Security Command Center is located at a secure location on-campus and staffed 24/7. The Command Center answers security telephone lines, dispatches resources, programs access control, and conducts alarm monitoring and video surveillance. The Command Center also includes an Emergency Operations Center (EOC). The Security administrative office is located at 916 S. Wabash Ave. in Room 505 and is open during regular business hours.
LOS ANGELES DEPLOYMENT

Raleigh Studios provides their own 24/7 on-site private unsworn security, which includes the college’s classroom and administrative location. Security officers monitor and control access at studio entrances. Park La Brea provides their own 24/7 on-site private unsworn security, and they patrol the grounds, which include the locations of student housing. Neither Raleigh Studios nor Park La Brea security have sworn arrest authority, and there is no formal written memorandum of understanding with the Los Angeles Police Department; however, they work together with LAPD as appropriate to investigate incidents that occur on their property.

RELATIONSHIPS

The college does not have a formal written memorandum of understanding (MOU) with the Chicago Police Department or Los Angeles Police Departments.

A representative from Campus Security is a formal member of the Chicago Police First District’s Advisory Council and regularly attends Chicago Police Department-sponsored business and community meetings. Campus Security is a member of the Security Council of Professional Educators (SCOPE), a higher education security working group. Membership includes representatives from campus security at higher education institutions located in the Chicago area, along with representatives from city and federal law enforcement agencies. Training, discussion of criminal activity, and legislative updates affecting college campuses are presented at these forums.

Campus Security is also a member of the South Loop Security Chiefs, a consortium of campus security leaders in the South Loop of the city.

Campus Security is also a member of the Chicago Building Owners and Managers Association’s (BOMA) Emergency Preparedness Committee and participates in their meetings and exercises.

LA staff and Campus Security liaise as needed with the senior lead officer at the Olympic Area Police Division for Raleigh Studios and the Wilshire Area Police Division for Park La Brea.

Awareness and prevention are crucial to overall campus safety, and we welcome your personal involvement. Campus Security adopts the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s slogan: “If You See Something, Say Something.”
CRIME STATISTICS: CLASSIFYING AND COUNTING CLERY ACT CRIMES

Classifying Crime
Campus crime, arrest, and referral statistics include those reported to Campus Safety and Security, designated campus officials, including campus security authorities and local law enforcement. The following reported statistics cover the period from January 1 through December 31 for each specified year.

Statistical crime data is provided with the standards and guidelines used by the FBI Uniform Crime (UCR) program. The definitions for Murder, Rape, Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Motor Vehicle Theft, Arson, Weapons Violations, Drug Abuse Violations, and Liquor Law Violations are from the Summary Reporting System (SRS) User Manual from the FBI’s UCR program. The definitions of Fondling, Incest, and Statutory Rape are from the FBI’s National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) Data Collection Guidelines edition of the UCR. Hate Crimes are classified according to the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting Hate Crime Data Collection Guidelines and Training Manual. For the categories of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking, the Clery Act specifies usage of definitions provided by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013.

Counting Crime
Statistical crime data is provided for the past three calendar years in accordance with the standards and guidelines used by the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook and the federal laws articulated in the Clery Act. Data included in the statistics column for Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter, Negligent Manslaughter, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Stalking, Sex Offenses, Aggravated Assault, and Motor Vehicle Thefts represent the number of victims in the crime occurrence. Similarly, cases involving arrests for Liquor Law, Drug Law, and Illegal Weapons violations are recorded per person. Statistics captured under “Referred for Disciplinary Action” reflect the number of individuals in a reported incident submitted to a campus official authorized to administer and maintain a record of disciplinary action. Statistics recorded for Robbery, Burglary, and Arson indicate the number of occurrences.

Geographic Locations
Crime statistics are categorized in four locations: on-campus, on-campus residential, non-campus, and public property. In Chicago, academic and administrative buildings are categorized as on-campus property. All Chicago residence halls are categorized as on-campus student housing facilities. In California, Raleigh Studios is categorized as an on-campus property, and Park La Brea is categorized as a non-campus property.

Specific statutory definitions of these geographic areas are as follows:

- On-Campus—Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution of higher education within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution’s educational purposes, including residence halls; and any building or property within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).
• On-Campus Student Housing Facility—Any student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution and is within the reasonably contiguous geographic area that makes up the campus. Student housing facilities may include lease agreements with other entities, individuals and neighboring higher educational institutions. Data reported in this category may include reported crimes that occurred in spaces occupied by other tenants.

• Non-Campus—Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization recognized by the institution and any building or property (other than a branch campus) owned or controlled by an institution of higher education that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution’s educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

• Public Property—All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks and the opposite side of street and the parking facilities, that are within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

For additional information and additional crime statistics covering areas beyond the campus geography as defined by the Clery Act, please visit:

The Los Angeles Police Department website:

GENERAL CATEGORIES OF CRIME STATISTICS

The Clery Act requires the college to include four general categories of crime statistics:

• Criminal Offenses—Criminal homicides, including Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter, and Manslaughter by Negligence; Sexual Assault including Rape, Fondling, Incest, and Statutory Rape; Robbery, Aggravated Assault, Burglary, Motor Vehicle Theft; and Arson.

• Hate Crimes—Any of the above-mentioned offenses, and any incidents of Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, or Destruction; Damage/Vandalism of Property that were motivated by bias.

• VAWA Offenses—Any incidents of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking. (Note: Sexual Assault is also a VAWA offense but is counted in the Criminal Offenses Crime Statistics table.)

• Arrests and Disciplinary Referrals for Violations of Weapons, Drug Abuse, and Liquor Laws—Arrest for Clery Act purposes is defined as persons processed by arrest, citation, or summons. Referred for disciplinary action is defined as the referral of any person to any official who initiates a disciplinary action of which a record is established, and which may result in the imposition of a sanction.

CRIME PREVENTION AND SAFETY AWARENESS PROGRAMS AND POLICIES

Campus Safety and Security conducts presentations and/or distributes material throughout the year on the following crime prevention and safety topics:

Chicago Programs:

- Kick @$$ (personal safety)—Learn how to navigate the campus and city with confidence, repel an attack with self-defense techniques, understand the effects of trauma, and discover on-campus resources for support and safety.
- Active Shooter for Faculty, Staff, and Students—Learn more about the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s RUN-HIDE-FIGHT program. Understand the nuances of an active shooter event, police/security response, and keeping yourself safe.
- Fire Safety—This training is geared toward members of the volunteer Emergency Evacuation Team (EET). The team assists in the safe evacuation of individuals from a building once emergency evacuation procedures commence.

LA Programs

- LAPD Safety Presentations
- Krav Maga Self-Defense Workshop
- Earthquake and Safety presentations and Annual California Great Shake out
- Park Le Brea security orientation and evacuation procedures
- Raleigh Studios Evacuation Orientation

Brochures and videos addressing safety and security both on- and off-campus are available at the Campus Safety and Security office and on the website students.colum.edu/safety. Posters identifying emergency response procedures are posted throughout campus buildings.

Safety and security precautions are also addressed during orientation and in campus Crime Advisories shared with the college community by Campus Safety and Security.

Campus safety is the responsibility of the entire Columbia community. All programs encourage students and staff to be responsible for their own safety and the security of others.

VIOLENCE PREVENTION EFFORTS

In accordance with the Illinois Campus Security Enhancement Act of 2008, a Violence Prevention Plan has been designated to proactively address and promote the welfare, health, and safety of the campus community. Inherent in the plan are college policies related to violence prevention, reporting, and the availability of a Campus Behavioral Threat Assessment Team. This team is tasked with administering the principles of early intervention and proactive engagement to prevent violence and to offer support services. Individuals exhibiting disturbing and/or potentially violent behavior that do not pose an imminent threat to the safety, health, or security of the campus community should be reported to any of the following offices:

Campus Safety and Security: 312-369-3220
- Dean of Students/Student Support Services: 312-369-8595
- Human Resources: 312-369-7248

WEAPONS POLICY

To ensure a safe and secure environment for the college and its guests. This policy sets forth rules governing the possession of weapons and simulated weapons upon premises owned or controlled by the college and at college sponsored events in other locations.
Scope
This policy applies to all students, faculty, staff and contractors.

Defined Terms
Contractor tools: Tools used by contracted workmen

Simulated weapon: Refers to facsimiles of any category of weapon described below that resemble the actual weapon but are not capable of use as a weapon.

Theatrical use: Refers to use in a stage or film production sponsored by the college, including during rehearsals.

Weapon: Instruments used to inflict physical harm, that are intended to inflict harm, or that could reasonably cause fear of infliction of harm, and any item that may be deemed weapons under applicable law, including but not limited to: a pistol, revolver, shotgun, rifle, firearm, stun gun, BB or pellet gun, blank firing gun, electric dart gun, and other instrument that launches a projectile by pressure resulting from combustion of propellant material, including a weapon related to or using air, sound, fire, hunting, or springs; bombs, grenades, mines, explosives, fireworks or other incendiary devices (which can include “ignition devices” and aerosols); daggers, clubs, electrical weapons, nunchucks, throwing stars, stilettos, swords, switchblade knives, gravity knives, and knives having a blade exceeding four inches in length; tasers; and parts, components, spare parts, or ammunition relating to the above; but excluding Workshop tools.

Workshop tools: Tools used for the construction or modification of production sets and design displays

Policy Statement
The college strictly prohibits the use or possession of any weapon by any person in any and all college facilities (whether academic, residential, or other) that are owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by the college, or other locations during college sponsored events, except that bladed weapons may be used or possessed exclusively for theatrical use with the advance written approval of the relevant chairperson. Simulated weapons are allowed with advance written approval from the relevant chairperson and the AVP of Campus Safety and Security for theatrical use only. See theatrical use requirements in the section below. Under no circumstances are weapons utilizing blanks allowed on campus or at off campus college activities.

This prohibition does not apply to sworn federal, state or local law enforcement officers.

The college does allow the possession of pepper spray. This exception is provided as a consideration to the college’s employees and students for personal safety while commuting to and from the school. Only one pepper spray canister, not exceeding 118 mL (4 ounces) by volume, that incorporates a positive means to prevent accidental discharge (e.g., a safety mechanism) is allowed per individual.

Workshop tools and Contractor tools should never be taken out of their designated areas and must be used in compliance with all departmental and college safety guidelines. For safety guidelines when using these tools, please refer to the department chairperson.

Theatrical Use
An individual shall not possess or use a simulated weapon for theatrical use at the college without the advance written consent of: (a) the department chairperson overseeing the relevant stage or film production or course sequence, and (b) the AVP of Campus Security and Safety. Bladed weapons may be used with the consent of the department chairperson. The procedures and guidelines listed below, as well as any additional requirements provided to the department by the AVP of Campus Safety and Security, must be strictly followed.

Except as provided otherwise in writing by the AVP of Campus Safety and Security, the following terms shall apply to any possession or use of a simulated weapon for theatrical use:
• The approved weapon may only be used during the time and in the manner specified in the written approvals granted by the department chairperson and the AVP of Campus Security and Safety.

• All local orders and regulations must be followed when weapons are in use. The AVP of Campus Safety and Security may require a review and approval from the General Counsel's Office prior to the activity.

• Bladed weapons utilized in courses and productions may be checked out and used according to established and approved departmental policies. These weapons may not leave the building without written permission of the responsible instructor.

• Whenever an approved weapon is transported from one location to another, including within the same building, it must be placed in a secure container in such a manner that it cannot be observed.

• The individual to whom written permission has been granted to possess a weapon must always maintain custody of the weapon and may not transfer custody of the weapon to any person not specified in the written permission. The written permission must always accompany an individual’s use of a weapon.

• The individual to whom permission has been granted to possess a weapon shall not drink alcoholic beverages or engage in any reckless behavior while in possession of a simulated weapon.

• When not in use for a theatrical production, the weapon must be securely stored in an area approved by the department chair. Under no circumstances may weapons be stored in any other spaces.

• An instructor must be present at all times when the weapon is not secured in the approved storage area.

• Weapons are never permitted in the college’s residential facilities.

• Under no circumstances may students bring their own weapons to campus.

• Students are limited to using weapons supplied by the college.

Roles and Responsibilities
Employees, students and contractors of the college are responsible for reading, understanding and complying with the statements in this policy. Any violation of the policy should be reported immediately to Campus Security.

All simulated weapons and bladed weapons on campus for theatrical use shall be documented and appropriately inventoried on an annual basis by the department. A current listing of these weapons shall be maintained at all times and shared with the AVP of Campus Security and Safety.

Weapons Policy

DRUG AND ALCOHOL AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICIES
Columbia complies with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, which recognizes that all employees and students have the right to a workplace and educational environment that is drug free. The manufacturing, possession, use, sale, or distribution of any substance or paraphernalia declared illegal by municipal, state, or federal law is prohibited in student residential facilities and on college property or at college-sponsored events held off campus. Failure to comply with this legislative mandate and college policy will result in disciplinary action and may result in termination of affiliation with the college and prosecution of a criminal offense.

An illegal drug includes any drug that is not legally obtainable in the United States, or that is legally obtainable, but is being used in a manner different from that prescribed by a doctor of medicine or intended by the manufacturer. Over-the-counter or prescription medication, which is prescribed by a doctor and is being used for its intended purpose, is not considered an illegal drug.

Students, regardless of age, are not permitted to possess or consume alcohol on campus or at college-sponsored events on or off campus. Faculty, administration, and staff are prohibited from serving or allowing students to consume alcoholic beverages on college premises or at events, meetings, or informal gatherings sponsored by the college.

In the event that students are present at a college-sponsored event where alcohol is being served, event organizers are required to take measures to ensure that students do not consume alcohol. The vice president of Student Affairs can make exceptions to this policy as appropriate. Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action, which may include immediate suspension or expulsion of students, or in regard to employees, suspension without pay or termination.

Columbia recognizes the dramatic impact the abuse of alcohol and drugs can have on professional, academic, and family life, and offers the following resources for support and assistance:

SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES AND CAMPUS RESIDENCES

CHICAGO ACADEMIC AND ADMINISTRATIVE BUILDING ACCESS

During regular business hours, Columbia buildings are open to the college community, guests, and persons with legitimate college business. The hours of operation for the campus vary based on the building location and the academic school year. During non-business hours, access to campus facilities is strictly prohibited. Requests for extended building hours are subject to approval by Facilities and Operations and the scheduling of a security officer. For more detailed information regarding building hours, please visit students.colum.edu/space.

The security officer assigned to a campus building assists with monitoring public access into the building. Each faculty, staff, and student is issued a Columbia photo identification card (ID). This card may be used for vending, building access for identification purposes, and is required to be in their possession at all times while on campus. Employees and students who have lost their Columbia ID may check with Campus Safety and Security or purchase a replacement at the Campus Card Office located in the 600 S. Michigan Ave. building.

All contractors and vendors are required to present an official government ID and register at Campus Safety and Security and/or the security station of a campus building prior to entry. Persons who violate the access policy or directives of a security officer may be subject to disciplinary procedures or arrest for criminal trespass.

SECURITY CONSIDERATIONS USED IN THE MAINTENANCE OF CAMPUS FACILITIES

Consideration is given to security in maintenance of campus facilities for example: both Campus Security and Facilities personnel monitor and inspect the campus for any lighting outages or inoperable emergency telephones. Community members may also report security maintenance concerns.

CHICAGO RESIDENTIAL FACILITY ACCESS

Access to student residential facilities is restricted to residents, their approved guests, and authorized persons. Access is monitored by personnel assigned to the front desk and regulated by IDs. Policies and procedures pertaining to guest privileges are governed by individual student housing facility management and may include the relinquishing of a guest’s official state identification for registration purposes. Residents are cautioned against permitting strangers access to student residential facilities and are encouraged to maintain a community watch for suspicious activity or behavior. Individual apartments are secured with locks.

LOS ANGELES ACADEMIC AND ADMINISTRATIVE BUILDING ACCESS

LA academic and administrative offices are located at Raleigh Studios. Raleigh Studios posts a security officer at the studio lot entrances and access is restricted. A security officer is also posted at the Raleigh Studios parking lot.

LOS ANGELES RESIDENTIAL FACILITY ACCESS

Park La Brea contracts with a private security force that provides roving courtesy patrol across the 160-acre apartment complex. Security officers are assigned to entry points on the Park La Brea grounds to enforce parking restrictions. Individual Park La Brea apartments are secured with locks.
REPORTING AND RESPONDING TO CRIMINAL ACTIONS OR OTHER EMERGENCIES OCCURRING ON CAMPUS

CRIMINAL ACTS AND CAMPUS SAFETY CONCERNS

Emergencies
Any emergency situation involving an imminent threat to safety which may be medical, criminal, or fire-related should be reported to the local authorities by dialing 911, followed by a call to the Security Command Center at 312-369-1111.

Emergency Call Boxes, located throughout each Chicago building, provide direct access to Campus Security. If appropriate, security personnel will be dispatched to your location to address your concern. Please familiarize yourself with the location of these devices across the campus.

Campus Security may respond and assist police, fire, or emergency medical services to mitigate, investigate, and document any Chicago campus emergency situation.

Criminal Acts
Columbia community and guests are strongly encouraged to report all criminal incidents or campus safety security concerns to the Security Command Center and may also report criminal offenses directly to the local police department.

In addition, within the college community, criminal offenses may be reported to all security personnel and campus security authorities (CSAs) listed below. To find CSA contact information, please visit the online campus directory at directory.colum.edu.

- Associate Vice President and Dean of Students and staff
- Associate Vice President of Human Resources and staff
- Associate Dean of Student Health and Support and staff
- Associate Dean of Student Life and staff
- Assistant Provost of Global Education and staff
- Director of Student Organizations and staff
- Associate Dean of LA Programs and staff
- Coordinator of Fitness, Athletics, and Recreation
- Director Residence Life and staff
- Resident Advisors
- Student Residential Properties Security and staff
- Equity Issues and Title IX Coordinator and staff
- Director of Student Engagement and Multicultural Affairs and staff

The college does not have officially recognized student organizations with residential facilities off campus. The local authorities may notify Campus Safety and Security of off-campus criminal conduct and such conduct may result in judicial proceedings. There is not, however, an official CPD or LAPD policy regarding mandatory notification to higher educational institutions.

Campus Safety Concerns
The cooperation and involvement of faculty, staff, and students are necessary to maintain an effective security program.
The college community is asked to assist with the reporting of any hazardous situation. Hazards such as missing fire extinguishers, obstructed emergency exits, multiple or frayed electrical extension cords, candles, open flame devices, or improperly contained hazardous materials may be reported to the Security Command Center. A follow-up investigation will be conducted by Campus Safety and Security and/or Facilities and Operations.

To minimize the chances of becoming a victim of a random theft, the college community is asked to be mindful of their surroundings and assume responsibility for the safeguarding of personal property. Items of value such as laptops, cell phones, wallets, and book bags should never be left unattended. Anyone missing property should check with the security officer in the lobby of the campus building where the item was left or with Campus Safety and Security to see if the item was turned in. Please refer to students.colum.edu/safety for additional suggestions on campus safety and the safeguarding of personal property.

Columbia promotes a caring, supportive community. We request the involvement of our stakeholders to assist in identifying and reporting emotionally distressed individuals who may be in need of support services. In life-threatening emergencies, contact the local authorities by dialing 911, followed by a call to the Security Command Center at (312) 369-1111. Security may be dispatched to the location to assist law enforcement or emergency responders. Individuals exhibiting disturbing and/or potentially violent behavior that do not pose an imminent threat to the safety, health, or security of the campus community should be reported to any of the following offices:

- Campus Safety and Security: 312-369-3220
- Dean of Students/Student Support Services: 312-369-8995
- Human Resources: 312-369-7248

Confidential Reporting
A student who is a victim of a crime and does not want to pursue action within the college or the criminal justice system may consider making a confidential report to a counselor in the Counseling Services Office. Information shared by students in a counseling session through the Counseling Services Office is confidential and is not disclosed without the individual's written permission, except when in the judgment of the counselor, such disclosure is necessary to protect the student or others from serious harm or when such disclosure is required by law. Unless the crime has been previously reported to security personnel or another office on campus, crimes confidentially reported to the Counseling Services Office are not included in the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. With the student's permission, a detailed report will be filed without revealing the identity of the reporting party. With such information, the college can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine the pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, assailant, and other critical information, and also alert the campus of potential danger. All reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report. Students seeking more information may contact College Advising at collegeadvising@colum.edu or 312-369-7645, or visit the Advising Center at 623 S. Wabash Ave., Suite 300.
Whistleblower Hotline
Columbia expects that its employees and students will act ethically, with integrity, and will abide by all college policies and rules. While the college encourages individuals to report inappropriate conduct through standard lines of communication, there are times when reporting to an immediate supervisor (for staff) or to a faculty member or administrator (for students) may be inappropriate or uncomfortable. Accordingly, employees, students, and third parties who suspect any violation of college policies or applicable federal, state, or local laws and regulations (“Misconduct”) may instead make an anonymous report with the independent firm EthicsPoint online or to the Whistleblower telephone hotline. The Whistleblower Hotline is available around-the-clock, seven days a week.

How to Report
Online: An individual may make an online report by completing and submitting the form available at colum.ethicspoint.com. By Phone: Dial toll-free within the United States, Guam, Puerto Rico, and Canada: 844-406-8158 to speak with a live operator.

Retaliation Prohibited
It is a violation of this policy to retaliate in any way against an individual who has reported Misconduct or otherwise assisted in an investigation under this policy. The college will promptly investigate any claim of retaliation. Retaliation is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion.

More Information About the Policy
https://about.colum.edu/whistleblower
• Notification to neighboring institutions, local businesses, and/or the media will be conducted by the associate vice president of Campus Safety and Security and/or assistant vice president of Strategic Communications and External Relations, or their designated staff.

Immediate notification of a threat to the health and/or safety of college members may be distributed to either a segment of the population or the entire campus community, depending on the scope of the threat. The methods of notification may include activation of mass notification systems and/or the college website’s homepage. Updates to any emergency situation on campus may be found on our website colum.edu or by calling the college at 312-369-6969.

Timely Warnings

If a situation arises which constitutes an ongoing serious or continuing threat, the associate vice president (AVP) of Campus Safety and Security will use their judgement to determine if a campus-wide timely warning (crime advisory) will be issued. The decision to issue a timely warning will be decided on a case-by-case basis in light of all the facts surrounding a crime, including factors such as:

- The nature of the crime that triggered the warning
- The continuing danger to the campus community
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts.

A timely warning may be issued for a Clery Act crime that occurs on Columbia campus Cleary defined geography that is reported to campus security authorities or the local police department. Additionally, a timely warning may be issued when Campus Safety and Security is aware of a crime report that is considered by the AVP to represent a serious or continuing threat to students and/or employees.

The responsibility for issuing the timely warning rests with the AVP. In the AVP’s absence, the responsibility cascades to the: (1) investigative services director; (2) operations director; then the (3) emergency management director.

Crimes occurring on Columbia’s Cleary defined geography include those on campus property, on public property within or immediately adjacent to campus property, and in or on non-campus buildings or property that Columbia owns or controls. The crimes are defined by the U.S. Department of Education using the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR)/National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) crime classifications.

The content and amount of information included in the timely warning is intended to enable members of the campus community to protect themselves from further occurrences, while maintaining the confidentiality of the victims. These notices will vary based upon the nature of the threat, the amount of information available to Campus Safety and Security, and the risk of compromising law enforcement efforts. The timely warning will usually include information that:

- Identifies or describes the crime that occurred
- Identifies the date, time, and location of the crime
- Includes precautionary measures

The timely warning shall be: (1) drafted by the investigative services director or other senior command member, (2) disseminated to students, faculty, and staff via the college email system, and/or (3) posted on the Campus Safety and Security website at students.colum.edu/safety.
EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Emergency Response and Preparedness
Recognizing the importance of emergency preparedness, Columbia College Chicago has created a written document, "The Emergency Operations and Management Plan," outlining the college's response and recovery to any emergency or crisis that "threatens the college populations, programs, properties, reputation, and viability." Training on the plan is conducted on an annual basis for the Emergency Policy Group and may include table-top exercises, along with tests of the emergency notification systems. Business continuity planning may be conducted by individual departments. Chicago campus buildings are equipped with life safety equipment, including AEDs, fire and intrusion alarms, and emergency call boxes. The Emergency Call Box is a two-way communication system located throughout Chicago campus buildings that connects directly to Security. In addition, the college utilizes an emergency mass notification system that delivers email, cell phone, and/or text messages pertaining to information and responses critical to incidents occurring on campus. Students register their contact information and preferences in the MyColumbia portal and employees through the Intranet. Detailed instructions on updating contact information can be found at:

Emergency Evacuation Procedures
As a matter of public safety, the college elicits the support of volunteer staff trained as Floor Wardens in fire safety, emergency evacuation procedures, and security awareness. Fire drills are conducted in student housing facilities and are recorded for assessment purposes.

Individuals should become familiar with emergency exits, stairwells, and locations of Emergency Call Boxes in each Chicago building and actively participate in all evacuations. Emergency response procedures and evacuation maps are posted on every floor, identifying the evacuation routes and areas of rescue assistance.

Individuals unable to safely and expeditiously maneuver the stairs or fire escapes due to permanent or temporary disability may need additional response assistance in the event of an emergency evacuation. These individuals are encouraged to voluntarily disclose by registering in OASIS if they are a student or self-identify in advance with Human Resources that they are a faculty or staff member. The college’s certified Fire Safety Director (FSD) obtains an official list of persons that have self-identified as requiring special assistance every semester. Additionally, each building's security station has a copy of this list. In the event of an actual emergency, this list will be furnished to first responders for purposes of safely and quickly evacuating such individuals in emergency situations. Furthermore, these persons with special needs are strongly recommended to prepare for emergencies in advance by familiarizing themselves with the location of emergency evacuations routes.

In the event of a fire or smoke condition, activate the building fire alarm system. Do not attempt to extinguish a fire unless it is impeding your exit. If you hear the fire alarm, always assume a fire exists and leave the building immediately.
In the case of an emergency evacuation:

- Cease all activity and immediately proceed to the nearest exit.
- Check the surface of the door and/or doorknob for heat and the bottom of the door for signs of smoke before opening it and exiting a room. Slowly open the door, keeping the door between you and the corridor. Make a visual observation of the corridor for fire or smoke and proceed to the nearest exit.
- Ensure all doors are closed behind you.
- Follow the direction of the Floor Warden, and leave the building via the safest and nearest available stairway exit.
- If you are an individual requiring assistance, call 911 and advise the first responders of your location.
- Do not use elevators.
- Evacuate away from the building and await direction from first responders and security personnel.

In the event all exits are blocked:

- Notify 911.
- Go to the nearest room and close the door.
- Place cloth under the door to prevent smoke from entering the room.
- Hang a cloth or other object out of the window to signal that the room is occupied.
- Stay as close to the floor as possible when smoke enters a room.
- Use the fire escape as a last resort if other exits are blocked.

For more detailed procedures regarding emergency evacuations and procedures, visit the Campus Safety and Security website at students.colum.edu/safety.
POLICIES, PROCEDURES, AND PROGRAMS: DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, AND STALKING

The College’s Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy, including Appendix A, Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures and Appendix B, Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures are included in this Annual Security Report and incorporated in their entirety. Those policies can be also be found at: Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy

STATEMENT OF POLICY
Columbia is committed to maintaining an environment that respects the dignity of all individuals. Accordingly, Columbia will not tolerate harassment [Sexual harassment includes: “Sexual Assault” as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v) and subject to this Policy’s definition of “Consent,” “Dating Violence” as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), “Domestic Violence” as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or “Stalking” as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)] or discrimination based on religion, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, ethnicity, or any other category protected by law by or of its students, faculty, or staff. This conduct may also be illegal under state, local, and federal law.

To the extent practicable, Columbia will attempt to protect the Columbia community from harassment and/or discrimination by vendors, consultants, and other third parties who interact with the Columbia community. Columbia is promulgating this policy to reaffirm its opposition to harassment and discrimination and to emphasize that learning opportunities and employment opportunities must not be interfered with by such behavior.

No member of the Columbia community shall engage in discrimination or harassment in any program, activity, or place over which Columbia exercises control. It is expected that every member of our community will take responsibility for refraining from any form of discrimination or harassment, reporting any incident that is made known, cooperating in preventing such behavior, and assisting with corrective measures when, despite Columbia’s serious commitment, these acts occur.

Recipients of discrimination or harassment often fear reprisals for reporting such conduct. To address this concern, Columbia will investigate any allegation of retaliation for reporting or assisting in the investigation of a complaint of any form of discrimination or harassment. Columbia will discipline those found to have engaged in retaliation.

The purpose of this policy is to:

- prevent harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault
- encourage good faith complaints if such conduct has occurred
- provide multiple options for addressing and resolving complaints of harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault

Columbia will attempt to take prompt corrective action against any harassment or discrimination by or of its students, faculty, or staff. This policy is designed to encourage persons who believe that they have been harmed by discrimination or harassment to bring the conduct to the attention of appropriate individuals within Columbia so that the College can take prompt corrective action. All managers supervisors are directed to implement the procedures outlined in this policy.

All complaints will be taken seriously, and no one reporting harassment or discrimination will suffer retaliation or reprisal by the College. Complaints of harassment and/or discrimination will be treated in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and to take corrective action. If it is determined through an appropriate and prompt investigation that harassment or discrimination has occurred, effective corrective action will be taken to stop the conduct and to attempt to ensure that it does not reoccur. Depending on the circumstances and the severity of the conduct, corrective action could range from an oral/written warning to dismissal or expulsion.

As used in this Policy, the “Complainant” means an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute discrimination or harassment. The “Respondent” refers to an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute discrimination or harassment.

Coordination of Sexual Harassment Policies

Pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, the College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities (including, without limitation, in admissions and employment). The Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures (“Title IX Policy”) is attached as Appendix A and incorporated into this Policy.

Sexual harassment that is connected to the College’s operations but is outside the scope of the Title IX Policy (such as inappropriate behavior occurring during a Study Abroad Program or in a private residence, or offensive acts that are unwelcome but are not so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that they constitute Sexual Harassment as defined by Title IX), will be governed by Section VIII of this Policy or the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures (the “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy”), attached as Appendix B.

The Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, attached as Appendix B, addresses unwelcome sexual behavior perpetrated by students that is inconsistent with the College’s educational mission but outside the scope of the Title IX Policy. Specifically, the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy contains Grievance Procedures (defined and explained in Section XIV of Appendix B) that provide for prompt and equitable resolution of any allegation of “Sexual Misconduct” (a type of Sexual Harassment as defined in the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy) not covered by the Title IX Policy that is (A) made against a student by another student, College employee, or third party and (B) related to or made in the context of the College’s academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic or other programs and activities. The College designed these procedures to end the Sexual Misconduct, eliminate any resulting hostile environment, remedy any other effects, and prevent the Sexual Misconduct from reoccurring. The Student Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all Columbia faculty, staff, students, as well as to third parties, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

Section V(B)(iii) of the Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy addresses unwelcome sexual behavior perpetrated by employees that is inconsistent with the College’s educational mission but outside the scope of the Title IX Policy. Specifically, this Policy contains investigation procedures for allegations of sexual harassment, defined in Section V(B)(iii) below, not covered by the Title IX Policy that are (A) made against a College employee or third party by a student, College employee, or third party and (B) related to or made in the context of the College’s academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic or other programs and activities.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for determining the applicability of the foregoing policies. Any inconsistencies among the policies will be resolved by giving precedence in the following order: 1) Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy and Procedures; 2) Student Sexual Misconduct Policy; and 3) this Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy.
REAUTHORIZATION OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT OF 2013

In accordance with the Reauthorization of Violence Against Women Act of 2013 (VAWA), Columbia College Chicago prohibits incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

VAWA CRIME DEFINITIONS

For purposes of the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report, definitions and provisions from the U.S. Department of Education, Illinois Compiled Statutes and California Penal Code are provided in the appendices to assist complainants/survivors of violence to navigate proceedings.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND CAMPAIGNS

Columbia provides a variety of educational programming, including prevention and awareness programs on the Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedure (Title IX) manual, as well as on sexual and relational violence. This programming includes prevention and awareness programs on the Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy, including Appendix A and Appendix B.

Throughout the academic year, Columbia has pursued different strategies to further educate the college community on the topic of sexual misconduct in higher education, particularly student-on-student sexual violence. Students have designed, organized, and participated in a broad range of educational programming aimed to highlight the college’s misconduct policies, to explain how students can safely intervene if they witness discriminatory behavior, and to prevent future misconduct.

The college encourages students to speak to or get assistance from a Responsible Employee, Non-Professional Counselor or Advocate, or Confidential Resource (as those terms are defined in the Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedure manual) as appropriate in the event they witness (bystander) or suspect that another student might be the victim of any type of sexual misconduct.

RESIDENCE LIFE RESIDENT ASSISTANT (RA) TRAINING

Prior to students moving in to the residence halls, RAs are educated about dating and domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault on college campuses (e.g., acquaintance rape, the influence of alcohol, and drugs in such offenses). RAs are also trained in how to assist the residents they oversee in reporting these crimes to the police and on-campus authorities.

RESIDENTIAL STUDENTS

Prior to the first week of classes, floor meetings are held with residents and Residence Life staff to discuss community living and safety on campus. Expectations regarding student behavior are discussed, along with risky behaviors, such as alcohol and drug use and acquaintance rape.
The following programs were offered throughout the year to promote an awareness of relationship violence and stalking.

PROCEDURES VICTIMS SHOULD FOLLOW IN THE CASE OF ALLEGED DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING

Comprehensive procedures provided in the College’s Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy, including Appendix A, Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures and Appendix B, Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures are a component of and are incorporated in their entirety into this Annual Security Report. These policies can also be found online at: Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy

Provisions include:

The procedures victims should follow if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking has occurred include written information about the importance of preserving evidence that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order as well as:

- How and to whom the offense should be reported;
- Options about the involvement of law enforcement and campus authorities, including the victim’s option to notify proper law enforcement authorities;
- Campus authorities’ ability to assist with notifying law enforcement authorities if the victim chooses; and the option to decline to notify such authorities;
- Where applicable, the rights of victims and the college’s responsibilities for orders of protection, “no contact” orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil or tribal court, or by the college.

Faculty, staff, or students who are a victim of one of these crimes are provided the following options for emergency response, reporting, grievance/adjudication, and support services.

Actions in Response to Violence

Individuals who have experienced an act of violence such as domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking requiring immediate emergency assistance are advised to take the following actions:

- Get to a place of safety.
- Call 911 for local police and/or emergency medical treatment.
- Notify Campus Safety and Security.
- Seek medical attention as soon as possible.

Chicago Campus Area Hospitals Include:

- Northwestern Memorial Hospital Emergency Department– 250 E. Erie St., 312-926-2000
- Rush University Medical Center Department of Emergency Medicine– 1653 W. Congress Pkwy., 312-942-5000

Los Angeles Campus Area Hospitals Include:

- Hollywood Presbyterian Medical Center– 1300 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90027, 213-413-3000
- Cedars Sinai Emergency Department– 8700 Beverly Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90048

Receiving treatment from a hospital for medical care after an incident of sexual violence does not obligate an individual to file a report with the college or local police department.

When pursuing an incident criminally, all efforts should be made to preserve the evidence.

Preservation of evidence is important in assisting to prove the occurrence of a criminal offense and to obtain a civil or criminal order of protection. To maximize evidence collection for an act of sexual violence, the following actions will aid the prosecution of the incident:
• Do not shower or change clothes.
• Try not to urinate if possible.
• If oral contact took place, do not smoke, eat, drink, or brush teeth.
• Preserve any object or instrument used.
• Do not wash any areas which may contain evidence, such as bedding or towels.
• If leaving your place of residence, take extra clothes and shoes, those worn will be collected as evidence.

Options to File a Report
A victim of any criminal act to include domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault has the option to pursue a criminal complaint with the local police department, by calling 911. Notification to local law enforcement about a violent crime may ensure eligibility for support services and medical reimbursement per the Illinois Crime Victim’s Compensation Law, if reported within 72 hours and one fully cooperates with law enforcement. The college encourages, but not requires, witnesses and victims who report to the college to also notify local law enforcement. Campus Safety and Security will assist a victim with notification to police if requested and will also respect a victim’s right to decline reporting.

In addition, if the victim and the accused are both affiliated with the college, a complaint of sexual misconduct may be pursued through the college or through both processes consecutively or concurrently. Section XI of the college’s Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures and Section IX of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures provides multiple options for reporting and confidentially disclosing sexual behavior to individuals who can provide the desired level of support and assistance. Different college employees have different rights and obligations regarding information sharing.

Informing a college employee of such misconduct provides the college with an opportunity to promptly take remedial action and to investigate, if desired, so that the victim may have an academic experience free of any discrimination. The college can only address a specific situation that has been reported. The college understands that some individuals may feel more comfortable speaking with an off-campus resource in lieu of, or in addition to, a college employee. Accordingly, Section XVI of the college’s Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures and Section X of the Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures provides a list of off-campus resources for assistance and support. The college will similarly apprise parties to a matter subject to other provisions of the Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy of the available resources for support both on and off-campus. The college’s Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures at columbia.edu/sexualassault is included in the college’s orientation materials, explained in training materials, and is available upon request. The following departments can be contacted to report an incident depending on one’s comfort level and confidentiality needs:

- Local Police Department: 911
- Campus Safety and Security: 312-369-1111 (available 24 hours a day, seven days a week)
- Human Resources (employees): 312-369-7260
- Dean of Students Office: 312-369-8595

To obtain the desired level of support and assistance, students may report incidents of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking of a sexual nature to the below listed on campus resources.

Individuals may make anonymous reports of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator by completing and submitting the online form available at www.colum.ethicspoint.com or by calling (844) 406-8158. However, depending on the extent of information available about the incident, the College’s ability to respond to such reports may be limited.

OFF-CAMPUS SUPPORT SERVICES

The college understands that some individuals may feel more comfortable speaking with an off-campus resource in lieu of, or in addition to, a college employee. The below Chicagoland and Los Angeles area organizations may offer support, assistance, and information to victims, witnesses, and others affected by domestic violence, dating violence, and/or stalking. Some of these organizations may maintain confidentiality and not share information with the college or others unless the victim requests the disclosure and signs a consent or waiver form. Some of these groups may have reporting or other obligations under local, state, and/or federal law. Bystanders Witnesses to sexual and relationship violence or harassment, including bystanders, shall report the details of the offending behavior to a Responsible Employee so that the college may properly intervene, investigate, and, where necessary, impose interim and/or permanent measures to protect the victim. A potential safe and positive option would be to call Campus Safety and Security or 911 from a safe place. The college understands that witnesses to sexual harassment may need support resources as well. Accordingly, such witnesses may seek confidential support from a Confidential Resource regarding how to address any effects from observing or otherwise becoming aware of such behavior. Any retaliation against an individual who has reported sexual and relationship violence or harassment is a violation of college policy.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF COLUMBIA’S INVESTIGATION AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Complaints of Sexual Harassment to Responsible Employees at the College will be treated responsibly and in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and to take corrective action. Subject to federal and state privacy and/or disclosure laws, the College shall not share information related to a Complaint with individuals other than the parties involved or those with responsibilities under this Policy. In the event the College must disclose information to individuals other than those above, it shall provide the parties with proper notice and reasons for such disclosure.

The Coordinator reviews all requests for confidentiality (for claims subject to the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures) beyond those disclosure or information sharing rules articulated in this section XI, IX, XIV, or elsewhere in this Policy. The Coordinator shall make every effort to respect these requests and should examine such requests in the context of the College’s responsibility to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for the Complainant and all students and employees. Among other factors, the College may weigh these additional confidentiality requests (including a Complainant’s stated preference that the College not investigate or pursue discipline at all) in the context of the following:

- The increased risk that the alleged Respondent will commit additional acts of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence, or other violence, such as:
  - Whether there have been other Sexual Harassment Complaints about the same Respondent
  - Whether the Respondent has a history of arrests or records from a prior school indicating a history of violence
  - Whether the Respondent threatened further Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence, or other violence against the Complainant or others
  - Whether the Sexual Harassment was committed by multiple Respondents
  - Whether the Sexual Harassment was perpetrated with a weapon
  - Whether the Complainant is a minor
  - Whether the College possesses other means to obtain relevant evidence of the Sexual Harassment (e.g. security cameras)
  - Whether the Complainant’s report reveals a pattern of perpetration at a given location or by a particular group

The presence of one or more of these factors could lead the College to investigate and, if appropriate pursue disciplinary action, without extra confidentiality rules. If none of these factors is present, the College may respect the Complainant’s request for additional confidentiality.
Prior to starting an investigation, the College will inform the Complainant if, and to the extent, it cannot honor a request for additional confidentiality. In all cases, the College’s prohibition against retaliation, including steps to prevent retaliation and strong responsive actions if it occurs, shall apply. As articulated elsewhere in this Policy, the College shall tailor its interim remedial measures to the particular circumstances of each Complaint. For example, where the College cannot honor a Complainant’s request for extra confidentiality, it shall assist the Complainant in accessing other support (i.e. academic, counseling, disability, health, or mental services), provide appropriate security (i.e. issuing a non-contact order, helping arrange a change of living, academic, or working conditions), ensure that the Complainant is aware of the Complainant’s right to file with local law enforcement, and provide assistance in such reporting if necessary.

The College’s ability to fully respond to an incident, may be limited if a Complainant insists that the Complainant’s name or other identifying information not be disclosed to the Respondent or that the College not initiate a formal investigation or pursue disciplinary action against the Respondent. Under such circumstances, while the College may implement some interim remedial measures, it will necessarily be unable to explore those potential resolutions that involve the Respondent (i.e. no-contact orders or a change in the Respondent’s academic or employment arrangement). In the event the College does not accept a Complainant’s request that the College not disclose the Complainant’s name, the College will notify the Complainant before making such disclosure to the Respondent. If the College proceeds with an investigation despite the Complainant’s objection, the College shall – upon the Complainant’s request – inform the Respondent that the College, not the Complainant, decided to move forward.

The College shall never require a Complainant to participate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Complainants should be aware of a Respondent’s rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”) to request to review information about the Sexual Harassment allegation if the information directly relates to the Respondent and the information is maintained by the College as an education record.

For claims subject to the Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures, the College shall keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a report or complaint of sex discrimination, including any individual who has made a report or filed a Formal Complaint of sexual harassment, any Complainant, any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of sex discrimination, any Respondent, and any witness, and all other information related to a report of sex discrimination, except as may be permitted by the FERPA statute (20 U.S.C. 1232g) or FERPA regulations, (34 CFR part 99), or as required by law, or to carry out the purposes of 34 CFR part 106, including the conduct of any investigation, Hearing, or judicial proceeding arising thereunder.

In the event the College discloses such information relating to a report of sexual discrimination to individuals other than the parties involved or those employees with responsibilities under the policy, the College shall provide the affected party or parties with notice and the reason for such disclosure.

Training
All college employees whose duties include resolution of complaints under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures shall receive a minimum of 8–10 hours of annual training on issues related to sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and their responsibilities under this policy in addition to other college training required by Federal, State, or local law. Training requirements are also completed in compliance with Section XV-B-16 of the Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures section.

PROCEDURES THE COLLEGE WILL FOLLOW IN THE CASE OF ALLEGED DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING

Comprehensive procedures provided in the College’s Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy, including Appendix A, Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures and Appendix B, Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures are a component of and are incorporated in their entirety into this Annual Security Report. These policies can be also be found online at Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy.

Provisions include:

- Information about how the college will protect the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties;
- Existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services available for victims, both within the college and in the community;
- Options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation and working situations or protective measures, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to local law enforcement;
- Policy that addresses the procedures for college disciplinary action in cases of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking.

Protective Interim Measures

Upon Notice of a Complaint (subject to the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures), the Coordinator (or Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates or Confidential Resources if the Complainant does not report to the Coordinator or a Responsible Employee) shall take appropriate, reasonably available interim measures – in consultation with the Complainant or at the Complainant’s request – to limit retaliation against the Complainant, to prevent renewed conflict during the course of the investigation, and to otherwise protect the Complainant and the Community. The College shall take such action even where the Complainant does not report the misconduct to local law enforcement or to campus security. These temporary remedial actions may include, but are not limited to:

- On-campus counseling;
- Course-related adjustments (such as extensions of deadlines, changes in course schedules, tutoring, or alternative course completion options) with the consultation of appropriate faculty members;
- Extracurricular accommodations;
- Modifications of work or class schedules;
- Assisting with the party’s transportation to and from classes or work (to the extent practicable on Columbia’s campus);
- Mutual, temporary restrictions on contact between the parties (such as a no-contact order) and honoring an order of protection or no-contact order entered by a state, civil, or criminal court;
- Temporary changes in work, dining, or housing arrangements (if a party is a student and lives in Residence Life); and
- Leaves of absence (consistent with applicable law and College policies and agreements).
The Coordinator shall also offer and make available appropriate interim measures to the Respondent. During the investigation, the Coordinator shall periodically access the efficacy of these steps and provide modifications as needed. The College shall endeavor to take such interim steps in a manner that preserves confidentiality to the extent desired and to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide such remedial measures. Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates and, to a greater extent, Confidential Resources may be limited in the interim measures that they can provide.

In addition to party-specific steps, the College may also consider broad remedial action to protect the community, including but not limited to: increased monitoring, supervision or security at certain locations, increasing education and prevention efforts, conducting climate assessments, and revisiting its policies and practices. the interim measures that they can provide.

For the Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures, the College shall offer Supportive Measures under certain conditions. "Supportive Measures" means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the Complainant or the Respondent before or after the filing of a Formal Complaint or where no Formal Complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the College Education Program or Activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the College's educational environment, or to deter Sexual Harassment. For additional information, please see Section XIII(B).

Retaliation Prohibited

Pursuant to the Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures, neither the College nor any other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by title IX or this Policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Policy (“Hearing”). Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or this Policy, constitutes retaliation. Additional anti-retaliation language is found in Section VII and Appendix B of the Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy.

Definition of Consent From the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures

Any behavior where all parties involved have not provided Consent constitutes Unwelcome Conduct and is Non-Consensual. Consent is a clear, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement between participants to engage in specific sexual activity. Consent is active, not passive, and is given by clear actions or words. Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, or lack of active resistance alone. A current or previous dating or sexual relationship is not sufficient to constitute Consent, and Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply Consent to other forms of sexual activity. An individual’s decision to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply Consent to engage in sexual activity with another. An individual’s manner of dress does not constitute Consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity may be withdrawn by an individual at any time. Being intoxicated or otherwise impaired due to drugs and/or alcohol does not diminish one’s responsibility to obtain Consent.
Incapacity

In some situations, the college may determine an individual to be incapable of giving Consent to sexual activity due to the circumstances, his or her age, or the behavior of another. Such situations may include, but are not limited to: incompetence, impairment from alcohol and/or drugs, fear, unconsciousness, intimidation, coercion, confinement, isolation, or mental or physical impairment. Despite anything to the contrary, where a person is incapable of giving Consent, conduct of a sexual nature or gender is a violation of this policy, provided that the Respondent knew or reasonably should have known of the person’s incapacity.

Sanctions

If the Panel finds a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures, the Coordinator shall forward the aforementioned panel report to the Office of the Dean of Students for a determination of the appropriate sanctions or other remedies. Sanctions include: mandatory apologies, verbal reprimands, written warnings, behavioral contracts, loss of privileges, required College service or participation, restitution, learning activities, change or residence, probation, restricted access, suspension, and expulsion. Additionally, at its discretion, the College may provide permanent remedies or other accommodations for the Complainant or other members of the community, including but not limited to:

- Making permanent those steps that were administered on an interim basis;
- Providing comprehensive, holistic victim services including on-campus health center, oncampus counseling, and academic support services, such as tutoring;
- Arranging for the Complainant to have extra time to complete or re-take a class or withdraw from a class without an academic or financial penalty;
- Reviewing any past disciplinary action against the Complainant to evaluate whether there was causal connection between the Respondent’s Sexual Misconduct and the misconduct that resulted in the College disciplining the Complainant; and
- The Provision of additional education and/or support services for the entire Community.

The College will take such action to prevent the recurrence of the Sexual Misconduct and to address any discriminatory effects on the Complainant and others. When determining sanctions or remedies, the Office of the Dean of Students may consider aggravating and mitigating factors, including but not limited to: (a) whether the Respondent has engaged in Sexual Misconduct in the past, (b) the nature of such past violations, if any, (c) the extent to which the conduct at issue here was premeditated, (d) the impact of the behavior on Complainant and/or the Columbia community, (e) whether the Respondent is apologetic or has otherwise accepted responsibility, (f) deterrence considerations, (g) the probability that Respondent will engage in another violation of a College policy, and (h) Respondent’s involvement in the Columbia community. Additional language regarding sanctions is found on Section VI and Appendix A of the Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy.

Results and Appeal

The college shall simultaneously provide in writing to both the accused and accuser: the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student accused of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Procedures for and information regarding the following are provided within the applicable appendix: the accused and accuser to appeal the result of the disciplinary hearing, if such procedures are available; any changes to the result; and when the results become final.
Protective Orders (CA), Orders of Protection (IL)
Any person who obtains a Protective Order or a Stalking No Contact Order from any jurisdiction is encouraged to provide a copy to Campus Safety and Security for the implementation of protective measures for the safety of the victim as well as the college community.

Advising the Campus Community About Sex Offenders
The college complies with the Illinois Sex Offender Registration Act (730 ILCS 150), which requires all sex offenders employed by or attending an institution of higher education to register directly with Campus Safety and Security. In compliance with this Act, any student, faculty, or staff member who is required to register as a sex offender in any state must register in person at the Campus Safety and Security office within three days of the beginning of classes or employment. An individual committing such offense while enrolled or employed at Columbia must also register in this office within three days of a conviction.

California Penal Code Section 290.46, known as Megan's Law, requires the California Department of Justice to maintain an internet website that posts information about California registered sex offenders.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY AND DAILY CRIME LOG

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

Columbia encourages students to explore the vibrant campus and the cities of Chicago and Los Angeles. At the same time, the college has an obligation to report a residential student who has been missing for 24 hours to proper authorities. If a member of the Columbia community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing has been missing for 24 hours, he or she should notify Campus Safety and Security at 312-369-3220.

In compliance with the federally mandated Missing Student Notification Policy and Procedures in the Higher Education Opportunity Act, an incident report will be generated, and an investigation will be initiated in cooperation with Student Health and Support Services. Unless circumstances dictate otherwise, Campus Safety and Security will notify the local police department, the missing student’s designated guardian, if under the emancipated age of 18, or emergency contact person, no later than 24 hours after the report has been generated.

Reports of a missing student may be made to:

- Local Police Department: 911
- Campus Safety and Security: 312-369-3220
- Dean of Students/Student Support Services: 312-369-8595
- Director of Residence Education: 312-369-6802
- Associate Dean Semester in LA: 323-960-8020

Students residing in residential facilities are requested to provide emergency information for an individual to be contacted by college officials. This contact information is considered confidential and will be available only to authorized campus officials and law enforcement agencies as appropriate. Regardless of age, Columbia will abide by the federal mandate and notify a student’s custodial parent or guardian if health and safety are a potential issue.

Questions pertaining to this policy may be referred to the dean of students at 312-369-8595 or the AVP of Campus Safety and Security at 312-369-3220.

DAILY CRIME LOG

Campus Safety and Security maintains a daily crime log that records all criminal incidents and alleged criminal incidents reported to the office. The crime log data consists of the nature, date, time, and general location of the crime and the disposition of the complaint, if known. The daily crime log is available for review upon request at Campus Safety and Security from Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., excluding holidays. Disclosure may be withheld if release of such information is prohibited by law or such disclosure would jeopardize the confidentiality of the victim. Information may also be temporarily withheld if release of such information would: (a) jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation or the safety of an individual, (b) cause a suspect to flee or evade detection, or (c) result in the destruction of evidence.
ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORT—CHICAGO STUDENT HOUSING

The Annual Fire Safety Report discloses information regarding campus fire safety practices, standards, life-safety equipment, and statistics on incidents of fire that occurred in Chicago student residential facilities Columbia owns or with which it has a contractual lease agreement. Park La Brea in Los Angeles is non-campus property and consequently, is not included in the Annual Fire Safety Report.

FIRE SAFETY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Procedures for Student Housing
Evacuation in the Case of a Fire

In The ARC, 37 W. Van Buren Street and 30 E. Balbo Drive, every resident is required to evacuate the building immediately whenever a fire alarm sounds, whether it is a drill or an actual fire. Should an alarm sound in the University Center, 525 S. State Street or the Dwight Lofts, 642 S. Clark Street, students may get instructions to shelter in place or move to another floor from the Chicago Fire Department.

Floor plans indicating the evacuation routes to the internal stairwell(s) and exterior fire escape are posted on each floor. Residents are advised to become familiar with these exits, location area of rescue, and the location of the fire alarm pull stations designed to activate the building alarm system. All student rooms and stairwells are provided with smoke detectors.

Fire alarm pull stations are located throughout the buildings. One threat in a fire is smoke; Therefore, it is important that residents know the following guidelines to respond to a fire in the building:

- Activate the building alarm system by pulling the handle down on the fire alarm pull station. (Activating the system will notify the Chicago Fire Department and residents of the emergency.)
- Check the surface of the door and/or doorknob for heat and the bottom of the door for signs of smoke before opening it and exiting a room.
- Slowly open the door; keep the door between you and the corridor.
- Make a visual observation of the corridor for fire or smoke and proceed to the nearest exit.
- Do not use the elevators.
- Follow exit signs out of the building.
- Stand at least 300 feet away from the building and await direction from Fire Department personnel.

If you are an individual requiring assistance, notify security via the Emergency Call Box in the corridor or call 911 and advise the city dispatcher of your location. If safe to do so, proceed to the area of rescue assistance on the evacuation route map posted on the floor and wait for emergency responders.

In the case of a blocked stairway or exit:

- Using the Emergency Call Box on the floor or a telephone, notify building security that all exits or stairways are blocked and advise them of your location.
- Go to the nearest room and close the door.
- Place a cloth under the door to prevent smoke from entering the room.
- Hang a cloth or other object out of the window to signal that the room is occupied.
- Stay as close to the floor as possible, if smoke enters a room.

After the occurrence, report any fire event to Residence Life and Campus Security personnel to ensure appropriate statistical reporting.
RULES ON SMOKING, PORTABLE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES, AND OPEN FLAMES

All student residential facilities are smoke-free living environments. Students found in violation of smoking in their living space may be charged to sanitize the space. As provided by the City of Chicago Municipal Code Section 7-32-35:

Smoking is prohibited in any portion of the living quarters, including, but not limited to, sleeping rooms, dining areas, restrooms, laundry areas, lobbies, and hallways of a building used in whole or in part as a student dormitory that is owned and operated or otherwise utilized by a public or private institution of higher education.

Electrical appliances with self-contained heating units (irons, corn poppers, coffee makers, microwaves) are permitted.

The following items are PROHIBITED in campus student housing:

- Open flame items including incense, incense burners, candles, and fireworks
- Electrical appliances with open-heating elements
- Metal tip darts
- Fog machines
- Flammable liquids and gases

Residents are advised to avoid the following to prevent accidental fires:

- Plugging too many cords into one outlet
- Using an extension cord that is smaller than the primary cord
- Leaving irons on, or items cooking on a stove, or in the oven unattended
- Unsafe handling and/or improper use, storage, and disposal of solvent rags, and rubbish

Decorations must be nonflammable and must not impede egress to an exit in case of fire or other emergency. Alterations to the premises are prohibited including, but not limited to: installing locks, ceiling fans, or electrical fixtures, voice or data outlets, erecting partitions or attaching anything to ceilings, walls, windows, floors, or exteriors.

Items must not block, mask, or obscure a sprinkler head or smoke/heat detector. Do not hang any items from the sprinklers. Tampering with fire safety equipment is a crime. Any resident found guilty of tampering with fire equipment, including activating a false alarm, will be subject to severe disciplinary and criminal action.

Rooms will be inspected at the beginning of each break and periodically during the year. These inspections are conducted to ensure that maintenance, safety, sanitation, and property control requirements are being followed. Items prohibited by law or Residence Life policy may be confiscated, and the residents of the apartment will be subject to disciplinary action. A notice will be posted for all inspections 24 hours in advance, except for those made during breaks or vacations.

Building maintenance problems or repairs should be reported immediately to the resident assistant or to the security officer located in the lobby of the building to avoid any potential safety, security issue, or property damage. Students can also submit maintenance requests to the property manager.
Policies Regarding Fire Safety Education and Training Programs

Residence Halls drills are conducted annually. All residents and guests occupying the building at the time of the drill are required to participate in the evacuation.

Information on fire safety and emergency preparedness is presented during a mandatory attendance floor meeting held in each student housing facility at the beginning of each semester. Students are advised to review the video “Dorm Safety” produced by the Chicago Fire Department on the Campus Safety and Security website at students.colum.edu/safety. Other resources can be found on the ready.gov website, the Illinois Homeland Security website at ready.illinois.gov, and the U.S. Fire Administration’s website at usfa.fema.gov.

Reviews of the evacuation drills are conducted in all buildings for assessment and training purposes. Disciplinary action will be taken and fines will be implemented for students who fail to cooperate with staff or emergency responders assisting in the course of an alarm and/or evacuating the building.

Plans for Fire Safety Improvements

The college continues to review practices and procedures. We continue to recruit and train personnel to serve on the Emergency Evacuation Teams and are investigating new insignia and safety vests for fire marshalls.
APPENDIX I:

U.S. Department of Education Crime Definitions

CRIMINAL OFFENSES:

Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter
The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Negligent Manslaughter
The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Sexual Assault (Sex Offenses)
Any act directed against another person, without consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

- Rape is the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
- Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- Incest is sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape is sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Robbery
The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated Assault
An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Burglary
The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or theft.

Motor Vehicle Theft
The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Arson
Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

HATE CRIMES:

if that person commits an act of sexual conduct with a victim who is at least 13 years of age but under 18 years of age and the person is at least 17 years of age or over and holds a position of trust, authority, or supervision in relation to the victim.

(720 ILCS 5/12-3.2) (from Ch. 38, par. 12-3.2)
Sec. 12-3.2. Domestic battery.

(a) A person commits domestic battery if he or she knowingly without legal justification by any means:
(1) causes bodily harm to any family or household member;
(2) makes physical contact of an insulting or provoking nature with any family or household member.

(720 ILCS 5/12-3.3)
Sec. 12-3.3. Aggravated domestic battery.

(a) A person who, in committing a domestic battery, knowingly causes great bodily harm, or permanent disability or disfigurement commits aggravated domestic battery.

(a-5) A person who, in committing a domestic battery, strangles another individual commits aggravated domestic battery. For the purposes of this subsection (a-5), “strangle” means intentionally impeding the normal breathing or circulation of the blood of an individual by applying pressure on the throat or neck of that individual or by blocking the nose or mouth of that individual.

(720 ILCS 5/12-7.3) (from Ch. 38, par. 12-7.3)
Sec. 12-7.3. Stalking.

(a) A person commits stalking when he or she knowingly engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person, and he or she knows or should know that this course of conduct would cause a reasonable person to:
(1) fear for his or her safety or the safety of a third person; or
(2) suffer other emotional distress.

(a-3) A person commits stalking when he or she, knowingly and without lawful justification, on at least 2 separate occasions follows another person or places the person under surveillance or any combination thereof and:
(1) at any time transmits a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
(2) places that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint to or of that person or a family member of that person.

(a-5) A person commits stalking when he or she has previously been convicted of stalking another person and knowingly and without lawful justification on one occasion:
(1) follows that same person or places that same person under surveillance; and
(2) transmits a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint to that person or a family member of that person.
(b) Sentence. Stalking is a Class 4 felony; a second or subsequent conviction is a Class 3 felony.

(c) Definitions. For purposes of this Section:

(1) “Course of conduct” means 2 or more acts, including but not limited to acts in which a defendant directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, engages in other non-consensual contact, or interferes with or damages a person’s property or pet. A course of conduct may include contact via electronic communications.

(2) “Electronic communication” means any transfer of signs, signals, writings, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectric, or photo-optical system. “Electronic communication” includes transmissions by a computer through the Internet to another computer.

(3) “Emotional distress” means significant mental suffering, anxiety or alarm.

(4) “Family member” means a parent, grandparent, brother, sister, or child, whether by whole blood, half-blood, or adoption and includes a step-grandparent, step-parent, step-brother, step-sister or step-child. “Family member” also means any other person who regularly resides in the household, or who, within the prior 6 months, regularly resided in the household.

(5) “Follows another person” means (i) to move in relative proximity to a person as that person moves from place to place or (ii) to remain in relative proximity to a person who is stationary or whose movements are confined to a small area. “Follows another person” does not include a following within the residence of the defendant.

(6) “Non-consensual contact” means any contact with the victim that is initiated or continued without the victim’s consent, including but not limited to being in the physical presence of the victim; appearing within the sight of the victim; approaching or confronting the victim in a public place or on private property; appearing at the workplace or residence of the victim; entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by the victim; or placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased, or occupied by the victim.

(7) “Places a person under surveillance” means: (1) remaining present outside the person’s school, place of employment, vehicle, other place occupied by the person, or residence other than the residence of the defendant; or (2) placing an electronic tracking device on the person or the person’s property.

(8) “Reasonable person” means a person in the victim’s situation.

(9) “Transmits a threat” means a verbal or written threat or a threat implied by a pattern of conduct or a combination of verbal or written statements or conduct.

(720 ILCS 5/12-7.4) (from Ch. 38, par. 12-7.4)

Sec. 12-7.4. Aggravated stalking.

(a) A person commits aggravated stalking when he or she commits stalking and:

(1) causes bodily harm to the victim;

(2) confines or restrains the victim; or

(3) violates a temporary restraining order, an order of protection, a stalking no contact order, a civil no contact order, or an injunction prohibiting the behavior described in subsection (b)(1) of Section 214 of the Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986.

(a-1) A person commits aggravated stalking when he or she is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration Act or has been previously required to register under that Act and commits the offense of stalking when the victim of the stalking is also the victim of the offense for which the sex offender is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration Act or a family member of the victim.
(720 ILCS 5/12-7.5)

Sec. 12-7.5. Cyberstalking.

(a) A person commits cyberstalking when he or she engages in a course of conduct using electronic communication directed at a specific person, and he or she knows or should know that would cause a reasonable person to:

1. fear for his or her safety or the safety of a third person; or
2. suffer other emotional distress.

(a-3) A person commits cyberstalking when he or she, knowingly and without lawful justification, on at least 2 separate occasions, harasses another person through the use of electronic communication and:

1. at any time transmits a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
2. places that person or a family member of that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint; or
3. at any time knowingly solicits the commission of an act by any person which would be a violation of this Code directed towards that person or a family member of that person.

For purposes of this Section, an installation or placement is not surreptitious if:

1. with respect to electronic software, hardware, or computer applications, clear notice regarding the use of the specific type of tracking software or spyware is provided by the installer in advance to the owners and primary users of the electronic software, hardware, or computer application; or
2. written or electronic consent of all owners and primary users of the electronic software, hardware, or computer application on which the tracking software or spyware will be installed has been sought and obtained through a mechanism that does not seek to obtain any other approvals or acknowledgment from the owners and primary users.

(a-4) A person commits cyberstalking when he or she knowingly, surreptitiously, and without lawful justification, installs or otherwise places electronic monitoring software or spyware on an electronic communication device as a means to harass another person and:

1. at any time transmits a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
2. places that person or a family member of that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint; or
3. at any time knowingly solicits the commission of an act by any person which would be a violation of this Code directed towards that person or a family member of that person.

(a-5) A person commits cyberstalking when he or she, knowingly and without lawful justification, creates and maintains an Internet website or webpage which is accessible to one or more third parties for a period of at least 24 hours, and which contains statements harassing another person and:

1. which communicates a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint, where the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person, or
2. which places that person or a family member of that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint, or
3. which knowingly solicits the commission of an act by any person which would be a violation of this Code directed towards that person or a family member of that person.

(b) Sentence. Cyberstalking is a Class 4 felony; a second or subsequent conviction is a Class 3 felony.
(c) For purposes of this Section:

(1) “Course of conduct” means 2 or more acts, including but not limited to acts in which a defendant directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, engages in other non-consensual contact, or interferes with or damages a person’s property or pet. The incarceration in a penal institution of a person who commits the course of conduct is not a bar to prosecution under this Section.

(2) “Electronic communication” means any transfer of signs, signals, writings, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectric, or photo-optical system. “Electronic communication” includes transmissions through an electronic device including, but not limited to, a telephone, cellular phone, computer, or pager, which communication includes, but is not limited to, e-mail, instant message, text message, or voice mail.

(2.1) “Electronic communication device” means an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a wireless telephone, personal digital assistant, or a portable or mobile computer.

(2.2) “Electronic monitoring software or spyware” means software or an application that surreptitiously tracks computer activity on a device and records and transmits the information to third parties with the intent to cause injury or harm. For the purposes of this paragraph (2.2), “intent to cause injury or harm” does not include activities carried out in furtherance of the prevention of fraud or crime or of protecting the security of networks, online services, applications, software, other computer programs, users, or electronic communication devices or similar devices.

(3) “Emotional distress” means significant mental suffering, anxiety or alarm.

(4) “Harass” means to engage in a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person that alarms, torments, or terrorizes that person.

(5) “Non-consensual contact” means any contact with the victim that is initiated or continued without the victim’s consent, including but not limited to being in the physical presence of the victim; appearing within the sight of the victim; approaching or confronting the victim in a public place or on private property; appearing at the workplace or residence of the victim; entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by the victim; or placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased, or occupied by the victim.

(6) “Reasonable person” means a person in the victim’s circumstances, with the victim’s knowledge of the defendant and the defendant’s prior acts.

(7) “Third party” means any person other than the person violating these provisions and the person or persons towards whom the violator’s actions are directed.

(d) Telecommunications carriers, commercial mobile service providers, and providers of information services, including, but not limited to, Internet service providers and hosting service providers, are not liable under this Section, except for willful and wanton misconduct, by virtue of the transmission, storage, or caching of electronic communications or messages of others or by virtue of the provision of other related telecommunications, commercial mobile services, or information services used by others in violation of this Section.

(e) A defendant who directed the actions of a third party to violate this Section, under the principles of accountability set forth in Article 5 of this Code, is guilty of violating this Section as if the same had been personally done by the defendant, without regard to the mental state of the third party acting at the direction of the defendant.
(f) It is not a violation of this Section to:

(1) provide, protect, maintain, update, or upgrade networks, online services, applications, software, other computer programs, electronic communication devices, or similar devices under the terms of use applicable to those networks, services, applications, software, programs, or devices;

(2) interfere with or prohibit terms or conditions in a contract or license related to networks, online services, applications, software, other computer programs, electronic communication devices, or similar devices; or

(3) create any liability by reason of terms or conditions adopted, or technical measures implemented, to prevent the transmission of unsolicited electronic mail or communications.

CHAPTER 1. Rape, Abduction, Carnal Abuse of Children, and Seduction [261 - 269] (Chapter 1 enacted 1872.)

261. (a) Rape is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person not the spouse of the perpetrator, under any of the following circumstances:

(1) Where a person is incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving consent.

(2) Where it is accomplished against a person's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another.

(3) Where a person is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known by the accused.

(4) Where a person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the accused. As used in this paragraph, "unconscious of the nature of the act" means incapable of resisting because the victim meets any one of the following conditions:

(A) Was unconscious or asleep.

(B) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant that the act occurred.

(C) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator's fraud in fact.

(D) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator's fraudulent representation that the sexual penetration served a professional purpose when it served no professional purpose.

(5) Where a person submits under the belief that the person committing the act is someone known to the victim other than the accused, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce the belief.

(6) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat. As used in this paragraph, "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or to inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury, or death.

(7) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official. As used in this paragraph, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.
(b) As used in this section, “duress” means a direct or implied threat of force, violence, danger, or retribution sufficient to coerce a reasonable person of ordinary susceptibilities to perform an act which otherwise would not have been performed, or acquiesce in an act to which one otherwise would not have submitted. The total circumstances, including the age of the victim, and his or her relationship to the defendant, are factors to consider in appraising the existence of duress.

(c) As used in this section, “menace” means any threat, declaration, or act which shows an intention to inflict an injury upon another.

261.5. (a) Unlawful sexual intercourse is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person who is not the spouse of the perpetrator, if the person is a minor. For the purposes of this section, a “minor” is a person under the age of 18 years and an “adult” is a person who is at least 18 years of age.

(b) Any person who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor who is not more than three years older or three years younger than the perpetrator, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor who is more than three years younger than the perpetrator is guilty of either a misdemeanor or a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170.

(d) Any person 21 years of age or older who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor who is under 16 years of age is guilty of either a misdemeanor or a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170 for two, three, or four years.

(e) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an adult who engages in an act of sexual intercourse with a minor in violation of this section may be liable for civil penalties in the following amounts:

(A) An adult who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor less than two years younger than the adult is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(B) An adult who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor at least two years younger than the adult is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(C) An adult who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor at least three years younger than the adult is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(D) An adult over the age of 21 years who engages in an act of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor under 16 years of age is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(2) The district attorney may bring actions to recover civil penalties pursuant to this subdivision. From the amounts collected for each case, an amount equal to the costs of pursuing the action shall be deposited with the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered, and the remainder shall be deposited in the Underage Pregnancy Prevention Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Amounts deposited in the Underage Pregnancy Prevention Fund may be used only for the purpose of preventing underage pregnancy upon appropriation by the Legislature.
(3) In addition to any punishment imposed under this section, the judge may assess a fine not to exceed seventy dollars ($70) against any person who violates this section with the proceeds of this fine to be used in accordance with Section 1463.23. The court shall, however, take into consideration the defendant’s ability to pay, and no defendant shall be denied probation because of his or her inability to pay the fine permitted under this subdivision.

261.6. In prosecutions under Section 261, 262, 286, 287, or 289, or former Section 288a, in which consent is at issue, “consent” shall be defined to mean positive cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will. The person must act freely and voluntarily and have knowledge of the nature of the act or transaction involved.

A current or previous dating or marital relationship shall not be sufficient to constitute consent where consent is at issue in a prosecution under Section 261, 262, 286, 287, or 289, or former Section 288a.

Nothing in this section shall affect the admissibility of evidence or the burden of proof on the issue of consent.

261.7. In prosecutions under Section 261, 262, 286, 287, or 289, or former Section 288a, in which consent is at issue, evidence that the victim suggested, requested, or otherwise communicated to the defendant that the defendant use a condom or other birth control device, without additional evidence of consent, is not sufficient to constitute consent.

273.5 (a) Any person who willfully inflicts corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition upon a victim described in subdivision (b) is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply if the victim is or was one or more of the following:

(1) The offender’s spouse or former spouse.

(2) The offender’s cohabitant or former cohabitant.

(3) The offender’s fiancé or fiancée, or someone with whom the offender has, or previously had, an engagement or dating relationship, as defined in paragraph (10) of subdivision (f) of Section 243.

(4) The mother or father of the offender’s child.

(c) Holding oneself out to be the spouse of the person with whom one is cohabiting is not necessary to constitute cohabitation as the term is used in this section.

(d) As used in this section, “traumatic condition” means a condition of the body, such as a wound, or external or internal injury, including, but not limited to, injury as a result of strangulation or suffocation, whether of a minor or serious nature, caused by a physical force. For purposes of this section, “strangulation” and “suffocation” include impeding the normal breathing or circulation of the blood of a person by applying pressure on the throat or neck.

(e) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be considered the father or mother of another person’s child if the alleged male parent is presumed the natural father under Sections 7611 and 7612 of the Family Code.

(f) (1) Any person convicted of violating this section for acts occurring within seven years of a previous conviction under subdivision (a), or subdivision (d) of Section 243, or Section 243.4, 244, 244.5, or 245, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or five years, or by both imprisonment and a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(2) Any person convicted of a violation of this section for acts occurring within seven years of a previous conviction under subdivision (e) of Section 243 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(g) If probation is granted to any person convicted under subdivision (a), the court shall impose probation consistent with the provisions of Section 1203.097.

(h) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any defendant convicted under subdivision (a) who has been convicted of any prior offense specified in subdivision (f), the court shall impose one of the following conditions of probation:

(1) If the defendant has suffered one prior conviction within the previous seven years for a violation of any offense specified in subdivision (f), it shall be a condition of probation, in addition to the provisions contained in Section 1203.097, that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 15 days.

(2) If the defendant has suffered two or more prior convictions within the previous seven years for a violation of any offense specified in subdivision (f), it shall be a condition of probation, in addition to the provisions contained in Section 1203.097, that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 60 days.

(3) The court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory imprisonment required by this subdivision shall not be imposed and shall state on the record its reasons for finding good cause.

(i) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), the conditions of probation may include, consistent with the terms of probation imposed pursuant to Section 1203.097, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women’s shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) (A) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant’s offense.

(B) For any order to a fine, make payments to a battered women’s shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant’s ability to pay. An order to make payments to a battered women’s shelter shall not be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. If the injury to a person who is married or in a registered domestic partnership caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse or domestic partner in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse or domestic partner for restitution to the injured spouse or domestic partner, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse or domestic partner and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse or domestic partner is exhausted.

(j) Upon conviction under subdivision (a), the sentencing court shall also consider issuing an order restraining the defendant from any contact with the victim, which may be valid for up to 10 years, as determined by the court. It is the intent of the Legislature that the length of any restraining order be based upon the seriousness of the facts before the court, the probability of future violations, and the safety of the victim and his or her immediate family. This protective order may be issued by the court whether the defendant is sentenced to state prison or county jail, or if imposition of sentence is suspended and the defendant is placed on probation.

(k) If a peace officer makes an arrest for a violation of this section, the peace officer is not required to inform the victim of his or her right to make a citizen’s arrest pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 836.

646.9. (a) Any person who willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follows or willfully and maliciously harasses another person and who makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear for his or her safety, or the safety of his or her immediate family is guilty of the crime of stalking, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(b) Any person who violates subdivision (a) when there is a temporary restraining order, injunction, or any other court order in effect prohibiting the behavior described in subdivision (a) against the same party, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(c) (1) Every person who, after having been convicted of a felony under Section 273.5, 273.6, or 422, commits a violation of subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years.

(2) Every person who, after having been convicted of a felony under subdivision (a), commits a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years.

(d) In addition to the penalties provided in this section, the sentencing court may order a person convicted of a felony under this section to register as a sex offender pursuant to Section 290.006.

(e) For the purposes of this section, “harasses” means engages in a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person that seriously alarms, annoys, torments, or terrorizes the person, and that serves no legitimate purpose.

(f) For the purposes of this section, “course of conduct” means two or more acts occurring over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of “course of conduct.”

(g) For the purposes of this section, “credible threat” means a verbal or written threat, including that performed through the use of an electronic communication device, or a threat implied by a pattern of conduct or a combination of verbal, written, or electronically communicated statements and conduct, made with the intent to place the person that is the target of the threat in reasonable fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her family, and made with the apparent ability to carry out the threat so as to cause the person who is the target of the threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her family. It is not necessary to prove that the defendant had the intent to actually carry out the threat. The present incarceration of a person making the threat shall not be a bar to prosecution under this section. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of “credible threat.”

(h) For purposes of this section, the term “electronic communication device” includes, but is not limited to, telephones, cellular phones, computers, video recorders, fax machines, or pagers. “Electronic communication” has the same meaning as the term defined in Subsection 12 of Section 2510 of Title 18 of the United States Code.
APPENDIX IV: COLUMBIA COLLEGE CHICAGO ANTI-DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT POLICY

SECTION I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

Columbia is committed to maintaining an environment that respects the dignity of all individuals. Accordingly, Columbia will not tolerate harassment or discrimination based on religion, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, ethnicity, or any other category protected by law by or of its students, faculty, or staff. This conduct may also be illegal under state, local, and federal law. To the extent practicable, Columbia will attempt to protect the Columbia community from harassment and/or discrimination by vendors, consultants, and other third parties who interact with the Columbia community. Columbia is promulgating this policy to reaffirm its opposition to harassment and discrimination and to emphasize that learning opportunities and employment opportunities must not be interfered with by such behavior.

No member of the Columbia community shall engage in discrimination or harassment in any program, activity, or place over which Columbia exercises control. It is expected that every member of our community will take responsibility for refraining from any form of discrimination or harassment, reporting any incident that is made known, cooperating in preventing such behavior, and assisting with corrective measures when, despite Columbia’s serious commitment, these acts occur.

Recipients of discrimination or harassment often fear reprisals for reporting such conduct. To address this concern, Columbia will investigate any allegation of retaliation for reporting or assisting in the investigation of a complaint of any form of discrimination or harassment. Columbia will discipline those found to have engaged in retaliation.

The purpose of this policy is to:

• prevent harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault
• prohibit harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault
• encourage good faith complaints if such conduct has occurred
• provide multiple options for addressing and resolving complaints of harassment, discrimination, and sexual assault

Columbia will attempt to take prompt corrective action against any harassment or discrimination by or of its students, faculty, or staff. This policy is designed to encourage persons who believe that they have been harmed by discrimination or harassment to bring the conduct to the attention of appropriate individuals within Columbia so that the College can take prompt corrective action. All managers/supervisors are directed to implement the procedures outlined in this policy.

All complaints will be taken seriously, and no one reporting harassment or discrimination will suffer retaliation or reprisal by the College. Complaints of harassment and/or discrimination will be treated in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and to take corrective action. If it is determined through an appropriate and prompt investigation that harassment or discrimination has occurred, effective corrective action will be taken to stop the conduct and to attempt to ensure that it does not reoccur. Depending on the circumstances and the severity of the conduct, corrective action could range from an oral/ written warning to dismissal or expulsion.

As used in this Policy, the “Complainant” means an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute discrimination or harassment. The “Respondent” refers to an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute discrimination or harassment.

Coordination of Sexual Harassment Policies

Pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, the College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities (including, without limitation, in admissions and employment). The Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures (“Title IX Policy”) is attached as Appendix A and incorporated into this Policy.

Sexual harassment that is connected to the College’s operations but is outside the scope of the Title IX Policy (such as inappropriate behavior occurring during a Study Abroad Program or in a private residence, or offensive acts that are unwelcome but are not so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that they... constitute Sexual Harassment as defined by Title IX), will be governed by Section VIII of this Policy or the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures (the “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy”), attached as Appendix B.

The Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, attached as Appendix B, addresses unwelcome sexual behavior perpetrated by students that is inconsistent with the College’s educational mission but outside the scope of the Title IX Policy. Specifically, the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy contains Grievance Procedures (defined and explained in Section XIV of Appendix B) that provide for prompt and equitable resolution of any allegation of “Sexual Misconduct” (a type of Sexual Harassment as defined in the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy) not covered by the Title IX Policy that is (A) made against a student by another student, College employee, or third party and (B) related to or made in the context of the College’s academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic or other programs and activities. The College designed these procedures to end the Sexual Misconduct, eliminate any resulting hostile environment, remedy any other effects, and prevent the Sexual Misconduct from reoccurring. The Student Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all Columbia faculty, staff, students, as well as to third parties, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

Section V(B)(iii) of this Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy addresses unwelcome sexual behavior perpetrated by employees that is inconsistent with the College’s educational mission but outside the scope of the Title IX Policy. Specifically, this Policy contains investigation procedures for allegations of sexual harassment, defined in Section V(B)(iii) below, not covered by the Title IX Policy that are (A) made against a College employee or third party by a student, College employee, or third party and (B) related to or made in the context of the College’s academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic or other programs and activities. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for determining the applicability of the foregoing policies. Any inconsistencies among the policies will be resolved by giving precedence in the following order: 1) Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy and Procedures; 2) Student Sexual Misconduct Policy; and 3) this Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy.

SECTION II. RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMUNITY Membership
It is the responsibility of each Columbia community member to be knowledgeable about discrimination and harassment, its negative impact, and the means by which it can be effectively addressed. Every member has a role in the implementation of this policy. All members of the Community who serve in a supervisory capacity, such as deans, managers, directors, chairs, and administrators are responsible for reporting all complaints of harassment or discrimination to the appropriate office as outlined below. A person who engages in discrimination or harassment must reform his or her behavior or be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion from Columbia. A person who witnesses or learns of any form of discrimination or harassment is expected to cooperate in Columbia’s efforts to address this conduct.

SECTION III. ACADEMIC/ARTISTIC FREEDOM
Academic/artistic freedom protects the presentation and discussion of ideas and artistic works. It does not include demeaning or intimidating individuals because of a personal characteristic. In considering what are appropriate statements or conduct, a faculty member should consider 1) whether the statements or conduct advance a valid educational objective related to the subject matter of the academic experience, and 2) whether they are made or occur in an academically appropriate manner as part of a valid educational objective. Similarly, while in the normal course of student-faculty exchange it may sometimes be of value to discuss or present a controversial matter or experience that has no direct relation to the immediate academic subject; nevertheless, the faculty member must also be cognizant that under Columbia’s Academic Freedom Policy he or she may not have a right to discuss such a matter.

SECTION IV. CONSENSUAL RELATIONS
A faculty member is expected to adhere to his or her proper role as an intellectual or artistic guide and avoid any exploitation of his or her students. Additionally, a faculty member has the responsibility to ensure that his or her evaluation of students reflects the true merit of each student. Because it may easily involve or appear to involve a conflict of interest, an amorous or sexual relationship between a faculty member and a student entails serious ethical concerns when the faculty member has professional responsibility for the student, such as when the student is in the faculty member's class.

Therefore, faculty members or other instructional staff shall not initiate, pursue, or be involved in any amorous or sexual relationship with any student whom they are in a position to evaluate or supervise by virtue of their teaching, research, or administrative responsibilities. Such a relationship is a violation of this policy, and consent by a student to such a relationship will not be a defense against a later sexual harassment charge by the student.

Likewise, a supervisor shall not initiate, pursue, or be involved in any amorous or sexual relationship with any subordinate employee. A supervisor will be prohibited from assessing, determining, or influencing another person's employment, performance progress or potential, entitlement to or eligibility for institutionally conferred rights, benefits, or opportunities with an individual with whom the supervisor has or has had an intimate relationship. Such a relationship is a violation of this policy, and consent by the subordinate employee to such a relationship will not be a defense against a later sexual harassment charge by the subordinate employee.

SECTION V. DEFINITION OF DISCRIMINATION

Discrimination is unequal favorable or unfavorable treatment of an individual based on race, national origin, ethnicity, sex, age, disability, religion or sexual orientation and gender identity or expression. It can include the failure to recognize the contributions of work in class; the failure to provide appropriate academic support; or inequities in salary, benefits, accommodations, office space, hiring, promotion; or appointment to college-wide committees and to administrative roles on the basis of the above outlined protected characteristics.

SECTION V(A). DEFINITION OF DISCRIMINATORY HARASSMENT

Discriminatory harassment is physical conduct or other expressive behavior that has the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual’s work or academic performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or abusive environment and that is based upon the individual’s characteristics of race, national origin, ethnicity, sex, age, disability, religion, or sexual orientation and gender identity or expression.

Discriminatory harassment includes but is not limited to invectives; threats; slurs; epithets; pranks; teasing; taunting; and other conduct or expressive behavior that tends to belittle, degrade, demean, deride, disparage, ridicule, or threaten a person on the basis of the foregoing characteristics. It is in the nature of a personal attack that injures a specific individual, as distinguished from the civil expression or discussion of an offensive idea.

Not all situations in which an individual is offended or uncomfortable will be violations of this policy.

For further details regarding the definition of Sexual Harassment pursuant to Title IX, please see Appendix A, Section X.

For options for immediate emergency assistance following an incident of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, or Domestic Violence, please see Appendix A, Section III.
ii. Sexual Harassment (Student Respondent):
For the definition of sexual harassment outside the scope of the of Title IX Policy, when the Respondent is a student, please see Section XIII, of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures attached as Appendix B.

iii. Sexual Harassment (Employee Respondent):
For sexual harassment outside the scope of the Title IX Policy, when the Respondent is an employee, sexual harassment is defined as follows:

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or sexually oriented conduct when:

(a) Submission to such conduct is made either implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic experience; or

(b) An employment or academic decision affecting an employee or student is made based on that individual's acceptance or rejection of such conduct; or

(c) A pattern of unwelcome verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature is directed toward another that unreasonably interferes with that individual(s)' work or class performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or abusive working or learning environment.

Examples of behavior that may constitute sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following: unwelcome verbal or physical advances of a sexual nature; requests or subtle pressure, overt or implied, for sexual favors; abusive or threatening behavior directed at a person; remarks, jokes, comments, or observations of a sexual nature that demean or offend individuals on the basis of their sex, provided, however, that such expressions will not be considered sexual harassment if uttered for a valid academic purpose; gestures or other nonverbal behavior of a sexual harassment if based upon a valid academic purpose; and display or distribution of offensive materials of a sexual nature, provided, however, that such expressions will not be considered sexual harassment if used for a valid academic purpose.

SECTION VI. SANCTIONS

A single violation of this policy may result in a disciplinary action, including termination or expulsion from Columbia. Sanctions may also include suspension (with or without pay in the case of faculty or staff), reprimand, reassignment, and/or mandatory education or counseling.

SECTION VII. RETALIATION; FALSE STATEMENTS

It is a violation of this policy to retaliate in any way against someone who has complained about discrimination or discriminatory harassment, participated in any manner in proceedings under this policy, or opposed the alleged discrimination or discriminatory harassment. Retaliation subjects the retaliator to disciplinary sanctions. Allegations of retaliation shall be investigated under section VIII of this Policy.

Knowingly making false allegations of discrimination or discriminatory harassment or providing evidence with the knowledge that it is false is also a violation of Columbia's policy and will subject a person to disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion.

SECTION VIII: PROCEDURES ADDRESSING DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

The following procedures are designed to provide flexibility in reporting for the person complaining of the discrimination or discriminatory harassment while balancing the interests of the accused party and Columbia's need to obtain the information necessary to resolve these issues in its community.

A. Reporting and Investigations of Sexual Harassment

i. Reporting Sexual Harassment

Individuals, whether students, employees, or third parties, may report all types of sex discrimination (including sexual harassment) and related retaliation to the College by following the On Campus Option for Reporting Sexual Harassment in Section XI of the Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy (Appendix A), regardless of which policy is applicable. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for determining which policy applies to any complaint of sexual harassment.

ii. Investigations of Sexual Harassment:

a. Allegations of Title IX Sexual Harassment.

Allegations of Sexual Harassment as defined by Title IX are investigated pursuant to the Title IX Policy, Appendix A.

b. Allegations of Sexual Harassment (Student Respondent).

Allegations of sexual harassment outside the scope of the Title IX Policy where the Respondent is a student are investigated pursuant to the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy in Appendix B.

c. Allegations of Sexual Harassment (Employee Respondent).

Allegations of sexual harassment outside the scope of the Title IX Policy where the Respondent is an employee are investigated pursuant to Section VIII(B)(ii) of this Policy.

B. Reporting and Investigating Other Discrimination & Harassment

Any Columbia student, staff, faculty member, guest, or any other nonstudent or nonemployee who believes that he or she is being or has been subjected to discrimination or discriminatory harassment has informal and formal options, which are not exclusive of one another or mandatory. However, a person’s selection of an option will affect Columbia’s ability to respond to the discrimination or discriminatory harassment. In addition, the timeliness of reporting an incident is often critical to appropriate action and resolution.

Columbia is committed to a prompt and thorough investigation and resolution when its procedures are used. The parties shall have equal opportunity to submit evidence and suggest witnesses to be interviewed as part of the investigation. Those persons responsible for consulting about, investigating, and resolving complaints of discrimination or discriminatory harassment will make reasonable efforts to protect the privacy of both the Complainant and the Respondent. As required by Title IX, this Anti-Discrimination & Harassment provides for a prompt and equitable resolution to any complaints by employees or students alleging sex discrimination against a person in the United States.

i. Procedures for Student Complainants

(a) Informal Remedy
Columbia encourages student subjected to discrimination or discriminatory harassment to talk directly with the alleged discriminator or harasser if the person subjected to discrimination or discriminatory harassment feels comfortable doing so. If direct communication is selected, the person should tell the alleged discriminator or harasser to stop his or her behavior as soon as the behavior occurs and make it clear that the behavior is unwelcome. The person then should share this information with the Office of Human Resources, Dean of Students’ Office, a faculty member, the Residence Life staff, a counselor, an advisor, or any Columbia supervisor so the situation can be monitored.

(b) Formal Remedy
A complaint of discrimination or discriminatory harassment can be made either orally or in writing to the Office of Human Resources, Dean of Students' Office, a faculty member, the Residence Life staff, a counselor, an advisor, or any Columbia supervisor.

ii. Procedures for Faculty and Staff Complainants

(a) Informal Remedy
Columbia encourages any employee or third party subjected to discrimination or discriminatory harassment to talk directly with the alleged discriminator or harasser if the person subjected to discrimination or discriminatory harassment feels comfortable doing so. If direct communication is selected, the person should tell the alleged discriminator or harasser to stop his or her behavior as soon as the behavior occurs and make it clear that the behavior is unwelcome. The person then should share this information with the Office of Human Resources, anything to the Office of Human Resources or with anyone who serves in a supervisory... capacity, such as a dean, manager, director, chair, or administrator, so that the situation can be monitored.

(b) Formal Remedy
A complaint of discrimination or discriminatory harassment can be made either orally or in writing to any Columbia supervisor. All members of the community who serve in a supervisory capacity, such as deans, managers, directors, chairs, and administrators, are responsible for reporting all complaints of discrimination or discriminatory harassment involving an employee complainant or a third-party complainant to the Office of Human Resources. A complaint of discrimination or discriminatory harassment can be made either orally or in writing. A complainant is encouraged to make a written complaint as it may increase the College’s ability to take appropriate action to stop the alleged discrimination or discriminatory harassment. A complaint should be as specific as possible providing the name of the injured party; the name of the alleged discriminator or harasser; a chronology of the events that constitute the behavior, detailing dates, places, and times; a description of the behavior; and the names of any witnesses to the behavior or persons with knowledge of the behavior.

Whether the complainant wishes to proceed with the investigation or not, a formal investigation of the complaint will be undertaken. The process is confidential to the extent possible and applies to the accused wrongdoer, the complainant, and witnesses. In the course of the investigation, however, absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. Except as provided otherwise herein, if the alleged conduct appears to violate both this Anti-discrimination and Harassment policy and another Columbia policy, such as the Statement of Policy on Academic Freedom, Faculty Status, Tenure, and Due Process, this policy will take precedence over the competing policy. However, any sanction to be imposed against a tenured faculty member shall be subject to the procedures of the Statement of Policy on Academic Freedom, Faculty Status, Tenure, and Due Process.

The College reserves the right to modify or amend the Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy at any time.

APPENDIX A

TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY & PROCEDURES

Section I. Purpose & Applicability.
Columbia College Chicago (the “College” or “Columbia”) is committed to maintaining an environment that respects the dignity of its students, faculty, and staff and is free from discrimination of any kind. As required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations ("Title IX"), the College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities (including, without limitation, in admissions and employment). Sexual Harassment (which includes quid pro quo sexual harassment, sexual assault, and other prohibited acts based on sex, as defined in section X) is a form of sex discrimination. In compliance with Title IX, this Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures (the "Policy") requires a consistent institutional response to any allegation of Sexual Harassment regarding which the College has Actual Knowledge [as defined in section XIII(A)(1)] that is: (a) in a College Education Program Or Activity [as defined in section XIII(A)(2)], and (b) involves conduct that occurred in the United States of America. This Policy applies to all Columbia faculty, staff, students, as well as to third parties (the “Community”), regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

As used in this Policy, the “Complainant” means “an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute Sexual Harassment.” The “Respondent” refers to “an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute Sexual Harassment.” The Complainant or Respondent may but need not be a person enrolled or employed by the College or who has another affiliation or connection with the College. Any person (i.e., the Complainant, a bystander, a witness, a friend, or any other individual) may report Sexual Harassment, but only Complainants who are students, employees, or other individuals participating or attempting to participate in a College Education Program Or Activity may file a Formal Complaint [as detailed in Section XV(A)].

The Policy contains Grievance Procedures that provide for the investigation and adjudication of the Sexual Harassment allegations described in the first paragraph where, in addition, an eligible Complainant has submitted a Formal Complaint requesting that the College conduct an investigation. The Complainant’s status is determined at the time of the filing of the Formal Complaint.
Section II. Scope of Policy.

This Policy is part of the College’s Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy (the “Discrimination Policy”), which bars all forms of harassment and discrimination based on religion, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, ethnicity, or any other category protect by law, by or of Columbia students faculty, or staff. Sections V-VIII of the Discrimination Policy addresses student and employee complaints alleging nonsexual harassment sex discrimination (e.g., complaints of sex-based different treatment in extracurricular activities, or with respect to enrollment in an academic course). Sections V-VIII and Appendix B of the Discrimination Policy cover sexual harassment that is connected to the College’s operations but is outside the scope of this Policy (such as inappropriate behavior occurring during a Study Abroad Program or in a private residence, or offensive acts that are unwelcome but are not so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that they constitute Sexual Harassment). Individuals may report all types of sex discrimination (including sexual harassment) to the College by notifying a “Responsible Employee” identified in Section XI(A)(1) below regardless of whether this Policy or a different section of the Discrimination Policy prohibits the behavior.

This Policy applies regardless of the identities of the Complainant and Respondent. Employees, however, may have additional procedural rights and/or responsibilities due to their status or union affiliation. The Statement of Policy on Academic Freedom, Faculty Status, Tenure, and Due Process (the “Tenure Statement”) governs the employment of all full-time faculty members. The Columbia Faculty Union (“CFAC”) and the United Staff of Columbia College (“USofCC”) represent certain part-time faculty and staff, respectively.

Inquiries about the application of Title IX to the College may be referred to the College’s Title IX Coordinator (as identified in section IV), to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights in the U.S. Department of Education, or to both individuals.

Section III. Options For Immediate Emergency Assistance Following An Incident Of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, or Domestic Violence (as defined in Section X). As explained in Section XI, individuals have multiple options for reporting Sexual Harassment to the College. Regardless of the manner in which an individual may elect to report – or not to report – to the College, individuals who have experienced Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or any other unwanted physical sexual acts (“Sexual Violence”), and need emergency assistance, shall first and foremost:

A.) Get to a place of safety. Dial 911 for local Police or 312.369.1111 for Campus Safety & Security immediately if at continued risk, and;

B.) Seek any necessary medical attention as soon as possible.

Downtown Chicago Hospitals include:

• Northwestern Memorial Hospital (Emergency Department), 250 E. Erie St, Chicago, IL 60611 (312.926.5188) (about 2.1 miles from Columbia’s 600 S. Michigan building)

• Rush University Medical Center (Department of Emergency Medicine), 1653 W. Congress Parkway, Chicago, IL 60612 (312.942.5000) (about 3 miles from Columbia’s 600 S. Michigan Building)

Going to an Illinois hospital for medical care after an incident of Sexual Violence does not obligate an individual to file a report with the College or the police.

C.) To maximize evidence collection:

• Do not shower or change clothes. Try not to urinate if possible.

• If oral contact took place, do not smoke, eat, drink, or brush teeth.

• If leaving from home, take extra clothes/shoes.

If an individual is uncertain regarding how to respond, that person should consider calling one of the resources listed in section XI of this Policy.

What to Expect at the Hospital

Seeking medical care is important, regardless of whether an individual chooses to report to the police or to the College. Hospitals and other medical centers may provide a physical exam, treatment, and collection of any relevant evidence. The below section includes a summary of and general notes regarding the intake procedure at many Chicagoland hospitals. Please note that the precise procedures at each medical center may vary.

2 Adopted from “After Sexual Assault,” a resource page created by the Illinois Coalition Against Sexual Assault and Loyola University Chicago. The information provided within the “What to Expect at the Hospital” section is for general education purposes only; it is not, and shall not be construed as, legal or medical advice. The College encourages individuals to seek assistance from qualified attorneys and medical professionals as appropriate. Complainant and Respondent are sometimes referred to in this Policy individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”
The Emergency Room Exam
A local hospital emergency room can provide immediate medical attention. The emergency room responds to both the physical trauma of the Sexual Violence and the process of collecting evidence in case an individual wishes to report to law enforcement. Rape victim advocacy services are also available at many Chicago hospitals to provide support and referrals.

Hospitals in Illinois are required to notify the local police department that treatment has been given to an individual alleging sexual assault. However, an individual is not required to file a police report.

An individual may sign consent forms to allow the medical personnel to examine, treat, and administer medication, and to release information to the police. An advocate can be present throughout the exam.

After an incident of Sexual Violence, the primary medical concerns are physical injuries, sexually transmitted infections, and pregnancy. At the time of the examination, evidence can also be collected that can be used to prosecute the person(s) who is alleged participated in Sexual Violence. If an individual wishes to have evidence collected, the individual should not bathe, douche or change clothes before the exam. This may destroy evidence. However, typically, evidence may still be collected up to a week after an incident of Sexual Violence. An individual may wish to bring a change of clothes when going to the emergency room, since clothing may be kept as evidence. A sweatsuit or scrubs may also be provided.

Evidence Collection
If an individual chooses, the hospital will conduct thorough and complete evidence collection using the Illinois State Police Evidence Collection Kit (the "rape kit"). The entire evidence collection process will be done only with the individual's consent. The individual may decline any portion of the exam. There is no fee for having a rape kit done and the individual does not need to use personal insurance. The Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA") conditions a state's receipt of certain federal funding on the provision of medical forensic examinations at no cost for individuals alleging sexual assault. The rape kit does not contain any medication.

Evidence may be collected even if the individual does not plan to report the incident to the police. If the individual decides at a later date that it is best to file a police report, this evidence will be available. Any evidence found during the exam may strengthen any resulting criminal court case should the individual decide to file a police report.

Evidence collection includes taking samples of substances from the vagina, rectum, and mouth; combings of head and pubic hair; collecting material from beneath fingernails; and collection of any other physical evidence (e.g., saliva from bite marks). These samples will be used to detect the DNA and any other debris from other persons involved or the scene of the incident.

The clothes the individual is wearing also may be sent to a crime lab and may be kept as evidence until the case is closed. Photographs may be taken of bruises, cuts and other injuries that occurred. The photographs may be kept as evidence until the case is closed.

The Cost of Treatment Outside the Student Health Center or the CareATC Clinic
The Sexual Assault Survivors Emergency Treatment Act ("SASETA") may cover emergency room costs, including any medications received. In such case, the hospital should not bill for any treatment. If an advocate is present, the advocate may be able to answer any questions related to SASETA and help to ensure that an individual is not charged for treatment.

Under the Illinois Crime Victims Compensation Act ("CVCA"), victims of violent crimes who qualify can be reimbursed for out-of-pocket medical expenses, loss of earnings, psychological counseling and loss of support income due to the crime.

Sexual Transmitted Infections
Sexually transmitted infections ("STIs") such as chlamydia, gonorrhea, syphilis, herpes, and HIV can be transmitted during an act of Sexual Violence. An individual may not learn of an STI until several weeks or months after it has been transmitted.

If an individual is concerned about having an STI, that person should discuss this concern with the treating doctor or nurse. Certain medical professionals can give preventive medicine (e.g., antibiotics, and HIV post-exposure prophylaxis) at the time of the exam. The individual should receive information on any medication given. An individual should make sure to obtain the name, dosage, purpose, and possible side effects of the drug. The individual should get the actual medicine, not just a prescription.

Even if an individual receives preventive treatment, it is important to be tested for STIs two (2) weeks after Sexual Violence, and again in six (6) weeks. The individual should repeat HIV testing in three (3) to six (6) months.

The College Student Health Center (for students) and the CareATC Clinic (for eligible employees) can test for most STIs and provide referrals for free and low-cost STI and HIV testing.

Pregnancy Testing

For individuals able to give birth, there is a chance that pregnancy could result from Sexual Violence. A test for pregnancy is recommended for all such individuals of childbearing age who are involved in Sexual Violence involving penetration.

- An individual may request a pregnancy test at the time of the exam. However, a test immediately after Sexual Violence will not show if a person is pregnant from the incident. Follow-up testing is the most reliable way to determine whether an individual is pregnant.

- Having a late period does not necessarily mean someone is pregnant. Stress, tension and worry can cause a late period; this happens to many individuals who endure Sexual Violence. Pregnancy testing is available at the Student Health Center (for students) and the CareATC Clinic (for eligible employees).

SECTION IV. THE COLLEGE’S TITLE IX COORDINATOR.

Columbia’s Title IX Coordinator (the “Coordinator”) is Janely Torres. The Coordinator coordinates the College’s efforts to comply with: (a) this Policy, and (b) the Discrimination Policy, to the extent required to provide a prompt and equitable response to address Sex Discrimination (including non-sexual harassment sex discrimination, sexual harassment not covered by this Policy, and retaliation as prohibited in section V). The Coordinator is tasked with identifying and addressing any patterns or systematic problems revealed by Sexual Harassment reports. The Coordinator is responsible for ensuring, through regular review, that the College’s general response to Sexual Harassment (as required in section XIII) and the Sexual Harassment grievance procedures established in Section XV (the “Grievance Procedures”) remain effective. The Coordinator also leads related training, and prevention and education efforts. The Coordinator is available to meet with students, faculty, and staff as needed to discuss particular issues and/or concerns.

Individuals may contact Ms. Torres through in-person appointment, phone, mail, or email, as provided below:

Janely Torres
Director of Equity Issues & Title IX Coordinator
623 S. Wabash, Room 315
Chicago, IL 60605
Phone: 312. 369.6344
jrivera@colum.edu

Verron Fisher
Title IX Investigator
623 S Wabash Suite 315
Chicago, IL 60605
Phone: 312.369.6343
vfisher@colum.edu

The College’s Policy Advisor for Employee Matters is Maxine Garcia. The Coordinator shall consult with the Policy Advisor for Employee Matters on all Sexual Harassment reports involving Columbia employees to ensure compliance with any other College policies or federal, state, or local laws governing employees. Ms. Garcia’s contact information is as follows:

Maxine Garcia
Policy Advisor for Employee Matters
Director, Employee Relations

SECTION V. RETALIATION PROHIBITED.

Neither the College nor any other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by title IX or this Policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Policy (“Hearing”). Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or this Policy, constitutes retaliation. The College shall keep confidential the identities of the Complainant, Respondent, and other individuals connected to a report of sex discrimination as required by section XIII(C). Complaints alleging retaliation may be reported to a Responsible Employee according to the prompt and equitable grievance procedures for sex discrimination established in section VII and VIII of the Discrimination Policy. The College retains discretion to consolidate a retaliation complaint with a Formal Complaint of Sexual Harassment for investigation and/or adjudication purposes where the two complaints arise out of the same facts or circumstances.
The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment does not constitute retaliation prohibited under this section. Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of the Grievance Procedures (as provided in more detail in section VI below) does not constitute retaliation, provided, however, that a determination regarding responsibility, alone, is not sufficient to conclude that any party made a materially false statement in bad faith.

SECTION VI. FALSE REPORTS.

Knowingly making false allegations of Sexual Harassment or providing evidence with the knowledge that it is false is a violation of the Discrimination Policy and may subject a person to disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion.

SECTION VII. AMNESTY FOR STUDENTS UNDER COLLEGE POLICY RESTRICTING THE USE OF DRUGS OR ALCOHOL.

To encourage reporting, the College shall consider any use of alcohol or drugs by any student Complainant, student Respondent, or student witnesses at or near the time of the alleged Sexual Harassment to determine consent or memory only under this Policy and this behavior will not serve as the foundation for discipline or independent proceedings under another College policy. However, the College may, at its discretion, require individuals who engaged in such behavior to participate in education programs or recommend a meeting with a College counselor or other support persons.

SECTION VIII. INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES; REQUESTS FOR ALTERNATIVE SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTS AND OTHER ACCOMMODATIONS.

Columbia shall endeavor to provide the appropriate accommodations to ensure that individuals with disabilities may participate fully in the steps outlined in this Policy. Individuals with disabilities who need assistance in reporting Sexual Harassment, participating in the Grievance Procedures, or otherwise with respect to this Policy may contact the below offices:

- Services for Students with Disabilities (For Students) 312.369.8296
- Office of Human Resources (For Employees) 312.369.7468

As addressed in more detail below, the evidence subject to inspection and review in section XV(C)(5) and the Investigative Report addressed in section XV(C)(6) shall be sent through electronic submission. Parties requiring the evidence in a different format due to a disability-related reason may inform the offices designated above, as well as the Investigator, or the Coordinator.

SECTION IX. INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS.

This Policy protects all Columbia students regardless of national origin, immigration status, or citizenship status. Individuals for whom English is not their first language may contact Clare R. Lake for translation assistance. Mr. Lake is also available to advise concerning non-immigrant status and possible visa issues relating to Sexual Harassment (e.g., the requirement to maintain a full-time course load).

SECTION X. WHAT CONSTITUTES SEXUAL HARASSMENT

A. Sexual Harassment. “Sexual Harassment” means conduct on the basis of sex (including, without limitation, conduct based on gender identity – perceived or actual – or gender stereotypes) that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. A College employee conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the College on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (“quid pro quo harassment”);

2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the College’s Education Program or Activity; or

B. Sexual Assault. “Sexual Assault” means any sexual act directed against another person, without Consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving Consent. Sexual Assault includes “Rape,” “Fondling,” “Incest,” and “Statutory Rape.”
(1) Rape. “Rape” is the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the Consent of the victim. This offense includes the rape of both males and females.

(2) Fondling. “Fondling” is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the Consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving Consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

(3) Incest. “Incest” is sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law [in the applicable jurisdiction].

(4) Statutory Rape. “Statutory Rape” is sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent [in the applicable jurisdiction].

(5) Consent.8 “Consent” is clear, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement between participants to engage in specific sexual activity. Consent is active, not passive, and is given by clear actions or words. Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, or lack of active resistance alone. A current or previous dating or sexual relationship is not sufficient to constitute Consent, and Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply Consent to other forms of sexual activity. An individual’s decision to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. An individual’s manner of dress does not constitute Consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity may be withdrawn by an individual at any time. Being intoxicated or otherwise impaired due to drugs and/or alcohol does not diminish one’s responsibility to obtain Consent.

Incapacity: In some situations, the College may determine an individual to be incapable of giving Consent to sexual activity due to the circumstances, the individual’s age or the behavior of another. Such situations may include, but are not limited to: incompetence, impairment from alcohol and/or drugs, fear, unconsciousness, Coercion (as defined below), confinement, isolation, or mental or physical impairment. Despite anything to the contrary, where a person is incapable of giving Consent, conduct of a sexual nature is a violation of this Policy (or another section of the Discrimination Policy), provided that the Respondent knew or reasonably should have known of the person’s incapacity.10

Coercion: “Coercion” is direct or implied threat of force, violence, danger, hardship, or retribution sufficient to persuade a reasonable person of ordinary susceptibility to perform an act which otherwise would not have been.

8 Definition adopted with modification from Emory University’s “Policy 8.2: Sexual Misconduct, Updated May 27, 2014.”

9 The Policy’s definition of Consent is consistent with that in the Illinois Criminal Code for Major Sexual Offenses. Under 720 ILCS 5/11-1.70, “Consent” means, “a freely given agreement to the act of sexual penetration or sexual conduct in question. Lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission by the victim resulting from the use of force or threat of force by the accused shall not constitute consent. The manner of dress of the victim at the time of the offense shall not constitute consent.”

10 An exception exists where an individual did not know of another’s impairment and could not have been expected to have known about such impairment, but the behavior nonetheless violates Illinois Criminal Law (i.e. strict liability crimes). Such violations when of a sexual nature constitute a violation of this Policy or another section of the Discrimination Policy, as appropriate.
performed or submit to an act which one would otherwise not have submitted. Coercion can include unreasonable and sustained pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get Consent from another. A person’s words or conduct cannot amount to Coercion for purposes of this Policy unless they wrongfully impair the other’s freedom of will and ability to choose whether or not to engage in sexual activity.

C. Dating Violence. “Dating Violence” means violence committed by a person:

1. who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

2. where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
   a. The length of the relationship.
   b. The type of relationship.
   c. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

D. Domestic Violence. “Domestic Violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction.

E. Stalking. “Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

1. fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or

2. suffer substantial emotional distress.

F. Examples of Unwelcome Conduct Potentially Prohibited By Section X(A)(2). Depending on the circumstances, unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and may, but not necessarily, include (without limitation):

1. Unwelcome sexual advances;

2. Requests for sexual favors (overt or implied);

3. Abusive or threatening behavior of a sexual nature directed at a person;

4. Remarks, jokes, comments, or observations of a sexual nature that demean or offend individuals;

5. Gestures or other nonverbal behavior of a sexual nature that demean or offend individuals; and

6. Display or distribution of offensive materials of a sexual nature.

SECTION XI. ON-CAMPUS OPTIONS FOR REPORTING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

A. Overview. The College encourages Complainants to report Sexual Harassment to individuals who can provide the desired level of support and assistance. Different Columbia employees have different rights and obligations regarding information sharing. An individual may elect to disclose Sexual Harassment to an employee in one or more of the below groups. Please note that, of the below on-campus resources, only the Office of Safety & Security can provide around-the-clock assistance.

1. Responsible Employees: A Responsible Employee is a College employee who has the duty to report incidents of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator. Responsible Employees are required to report all the details of alleged Sexual Harassment (including the identities of the Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses, if known, and pertinent facts such as date, time, and location) to the Coordinator. Responsible Employees include:
   - The Coordinator;
   - The Investigator;

11 Employees in the Multicultural Affairs Office are not Responsible Employees under this Policy when assisting international students, undocumented students, or students for whom English is not their first language, with language interpretation, travel-related, or visa issues. Similarly, employees in the Office of Human Resources or the Services for Students with Disabilities Office (“SSD”) (including the Dean of Students to whom SSD staff report) are not Responsible Employees when providing guidance or other support concerning disability issues. Sections IX and VIII detail the services these offices provide.

12 Any person may report Sexual Harassment or any another type of sex discrimination prohibited by the Discrimination Policy (whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute such behavior), in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail, using the contact information listed for the Coordinator, or by any other means that results in the Coordinator receiving the person’s verbal or written report. Such a report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number or electronic mail address, or by mail to the office address, listed for the Coordinator.

13 As addressed in Section XIII(A)(1), the officials listed in this bullet point and the Coordinator have authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the College. Notice to these individuals conveys “Acknowledge Knowledge” to the College.
• Employees with “Dean”, “Associate Dean,” “Assistant Dean,” “Chair,” “Associate Chair,” “Director,” “Coordinator,” “Provost,” “Associate Provost,” “Assistant Provost,” “Chief of Staff,” “Vice President,” “Assistant Vice President,” “Associate Vice President,” or “President” in their titles;13
• All part-time and full-time faculty members;
• Resident Advisors (“RAs”);
• All employees in the Office of Human Resources and the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs (including the Dean of Students’ Office and the Residence Life staff), excluding those employees who are Confidential Resources.
• All employees in the Office of Safety & Security (including its independent contractor security personnel). The Associate Vice President for the Office of Safety & Security is Ronald Sodini center at (312) 369-1111. The non-emergency command center phone number is (312) 369-3220.

Except as provided otherwise in this Policy or legally required, the College shall not share information reported to a Responsible Employee with individuals other than College officials with relevant responsibilities under this Policy. For example, when permissible under the law, a Responsible Employee shall not share information with law enforcement without the Complainant’s consent or unless the Complainant has also reported the incident to such body.

To the extent feasible, before a Complainant reveals any information to a Responsible Employee, the Responsible Employee shall endeavor to ensure that the Complainant understands the Responsible Employee’s reporting obligations, and that – after receiving a report from the Responsible Employee – the Coordinator will contact the Complainant to offer Supportive Measures and to take other steps as required by Section XIII. A Responsible Employee shall neither encourage the Complainant to continue disclosing an alleged incident, if the Complainant is not ready to do so, nor pressure the Complainant to request assistance from a different resource. If the Complainant communicates before disclosing the details of an incident that the Complainant does not want the Responsible Employee to notify the Coordinator, the Responsible Employee shall then direct the Complainant to a Confidential Resource.

2. Confidential Resources: Complainants who desire strictly confidential support and assistance, to the extent permitted by law, may contact a Confidential Resource. Under some circumstances, these employees are required to maintain near complete confidentiality. Confidential Resources are not required to disclose alleged incidents to the Coordinator. Under certain circumstances, the law and applicable professional codes require the below-listed individuals and resources to keep the details of Sexual Harassment in a confidential manner and to refrain from disclosing such information to any third parties without the Complainant’s consent. Complainants should be aware, however, that local, state, and/or federal law may require these employees to disclose an incident where there is an imminent risk of self-harm or the Complainant poses a danger to another party.

Confidential Resources can assist the Complainant in receiving additional support (on or off-campus), such as advocacy services, academic assistance, disability, physical health or mental health services, and changes to living, working, or courses schedules. A Complainant who first speaks with a Confidential Resource may later decide to disclose to a Responsible Employee, file a Formal Complaint, or to report the incident to local law enforcement. If requested, a Confidential Resource shall provide the Complainant with assistance in speaking with the Coordinator or another Responsible Employee.

B. Anonymous Reporting. Individuals may make anonymous reports of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator by completing and submitting the online form available at www.colum.ethicspoint.com or by calling (844) 406-8158. However, depending on the extent of information available about the incident, the College’s ability to respond to such reports may be limited.

C. When To Report. Individuals may report Sexual Harassment to the College at any time. However, the College encourages Complainants (who elect to report) to disclose Sexual Harassment to the College as expeditiously as possible. The College’s options to address a report may be limited when it receives Actual Notice of an alleged incident a significant period of time after the occurrence of the alleged Sexual Harassment. To illustrate, as further explained in section XV(A), a Complainant may not file a Formal Complaint unless the Complainant is presently participating in or attempting to participate in a College Education Program Or Activity.

D. The Role of Witnesses & Other Third Parties.
Witnesses to Sexual Harassment, including bystanders and other third parties intending to report Sexual Harassment to the College, shall promptly report the details of the offending behavior to a Responsible Employee so that the College may address the circumstances as required in Section XIII. The College understands that witnesses to Sexual Harassment may need support resources as well. Accordingly, witnesses may seek confidential support from a Confidential Resource regarding how to address any effects from observing or otherwise becoming aware of Sexual Harassment. As explained previously, any retaliation against an individual who has reported Sexual Harassment is a violation of the Discrimination Policy.

E. What To Expect When Reporting. The College realizes that it may be difficult for a Complainant or witness to disclose alleged Sexual Harassment. Accordingly, to the extent practicable, the College’s Responsible Employees and Confidential Resources shall endeavor to provide a supportive environment where Complainants and witnesses are comfortable reporting an incident.

F. Encouragement of Dual Reporting With Local Law Enforcement. The College encourages, but does not require, witnesses and Complainants who report to the College to also notify local law enforcement. Under some circumstances, Sexual Harassment may violate both college policy and criminal law. The College may proceed with an internal investigation under this Policy simultaneously with a criminal investigation. While criminal investigations may facilitate fact-finding, the outcome of a criminal proceeding may not be indicative of whether alleged Sexual Harassment violates Title IX and this Policy. The Coordinator and Confidential Resources, including Confidential Advisors, are available to assist individuals with reporting to local law enforcement. The Chicago Police Department’s 1st District central station is located at 1718 South State Street, Chicago, IL 60616. The 1st District is available by email at CAPS001District@chicagopolice.org and by phone at (312) 745-4290.
SECTION XII. ON-CAMPUS RESOURCES FOR RESPONDENTS.

Respondents may also seek confidential support and assistance from the Confidential Resources listed in section XI(A)(2) above. The Title IX Coordinator or a Respondent’s Advisor [as defined in section XV(B)(7)] shall help the Respondent in obtaining other appropriate support and assistance on or off-campus as requested.

SECTION XIII. THE COLLEGE’S GENERAL RESPONSE TO SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

A. Overall Obligations & Geographic Jurisdiction.

The College shall respond promptly as required in this section XIII to any allegation of Sexual Harassment, regarding which the College has Actual Knowledge, that is: (i) in a College Education Program Or Activity, and (ii) made against a person in the United States.

1. Actual Knowledge. “Actual Knowledge” means Notice (as hereinafter defined) of Sexual Harassment or allegations of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator or any official of the College who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the College. Such individuals may receive Actual Knowledge through an oral report of Sexual Harassment by a Complainant or anyone else, a written report, through personal observation, through a newspaper article, through an anonymous report, or through various other means. Imputation of knowledge based solely on vicarious liability or constructive notice is insufficient to constitute Actual Knowledge. This standard is not met when the only official of the College with Actual Knowledge is the Respondent. The mere ability or obligation to report Sexual Harassment or to inform a student about how to report Sexual Harassment, or having been trained to do so, does not qualify an individual as one who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the College. “Notice” as used in this paragraph includes, but is not limited to, a report of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail using the contact information listed for the Coordinator in section IV, or by any other means that results in the Coordinator receiving the person’s verbal or written report.

In addition to the Coordinator, the following College employees have authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the College:

- Employees with “Dean,” “Associate Dean,” “Assistant Dean,” “Chair,” “Associate Chair,” “Director,” “Coordinator,” “Provost,” “Associate Provost,” “Assistant Provost,” “Chief of Staff,” “Vice President,” “Assistant Vice President,” “Associate Vice President,” or “President” in their titles.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, public awareness events such as, “Take Back The Night,” the “Clothesline Project,” candlelight vigils, protests or speak-out events are not considered Notice of Sexual Harassment to the College. Such events may, however, inform the need for campus-wide education and prevention efforts, and the College may provide information about students’ Title IX rights at these events.

2. College Education Program Or Activity. The phrase “College Education Program Or Activity” includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the College exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the Sexual Harassment occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the College. College Education Program Or Activity encompasses all the operations of the College, including – without limitation - the College’s computer and Internet networks, digital platforms, and computer hardware and software. Sexual Harassment occurring “off-campus” is not automatically outside of a College Education Program Or Activity. When evaluating whether alleged Sexual Harassment occurred in a College Education Program Or Activity, the College shall consider relevant factors, such as whether the College funded, promoted, or sponsored the event or circumstances where the alleged Sexual Harassment occurred.

B. Offer of Supportive Measures & Right To File a Formal Complaint. As soon as practicable but no later than three (3) days after the College obtains Actual Knowledge of Sexual Harassment or allegations of Sexual Harassment, the Coordinator shall contact the Complainant to: (1) discuss the availability of Supportive Measures (as defined in this section), (2) consider the

15 Student Complainants also have additional notification rights pursuant to Illinois’ Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act; upon being notified of an alleged violation of this Policy by a Student Complainant (or a party representing a Student Complainant), the Coordinator shall provide such student Complainant (if known) with a concise synopsis written in plain language of the student Complainant’s rights and options under this Policy. The Coordinator shall provide this notice within twelve (12) hours after receiving an electronic report of Sexual Harassment.
Complainant’s wishes with respect to such measures, (3) inform the Complainant of the availability of Supportive Measures with or without the filing of a Formal Complaint, and (4) explain to the Complainant the process for filing a Formal Complaint. The Coordinator shall offer Supportive Measures to the Complainant after engaging in an interactive, meaningful dialogue with the Complainant. The Coordinator shall also offer Supportive Measures to the Respondent through an interactive, meaningful dialogue prior to the Respondent’s receipt of notice of a Formal Complaint, if the Respondent requests such measures.

“Supportive Measures” means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the Complainant or the Respondent before or after the filing of a Formal Complaint or where no Formal Complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the College Education Program or Activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the College’s educational environment, or to deter Sexual Harassment.

Supportive Measures may include, but are not limited to:

- On-campus counseling;
- Course-related adjustments (such as extensions of deadlines, changes in course schedules, tutoring, or alternative course completion options) with the consultation of appropriate faculty members;
- Extracurricular accommodations;
- Modifications of work or class schedules;
- Assisting with the party’s transportation to and from classes or work (to the extent practicable on Columbia’s campus);
- Mutual, temporary restrictions on contact between the parties (such as a no-contact order) and honoring an order of protection or no-contact order entered by a state, civil, or criminal court;
- Temporary changes in work, dining, or housing arrangements (if a party is a student and lives in Residence Life); and
- Leaves of absence (consistent with applicable law and College policies and agreements).

A carefully crafted no-contact order restricting the actions of only one party could qualify as a Supportive Measure under certain circumstances. For example, if the College issues a one-way no-contact order to help enforce a restraining order, preliminary injunction, or other order of protection issued by a court, or if a one-way no-contact order does not unreasonably burden the other party, then a one-way no-contact order may be appropriate.

The College must maintain as confidential any Supportive Measures provided to the Complainant or Respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the College to provide the Supportive Measures (e.g., where a Complainant requires a mutual no-contact order). The Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of Supportive Measures. The Coordinator shall periodically assess the efficacy of administered Supportive Measures and provide modifications as needed. The Coordinator may, in the Coordinator’s discretion, maintain or terminate implemented Supportive Measures after a determination in the Grievance Procedures that the Respondent is not responsible for the alleged Sexual Harassment or after the dismissal of a Formal Complaint filed by the Complainant or signed by the Coordinator.

In addition to party-specific Supportive Measures, the College may consider broad remedial action to protect the community, including but not limited to: increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus, increasing education and prevention efforts, conducting climate assessments, and revising its policies and practices.

C. Confidentiality. The College shall keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a report or complaint of sex discrimination, including any individual who has made a report or filed a Formal Complaint of sexual Harassment, any Complainant, any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of sex discrimination, any Respondent, and any witness, and all other information related to a report of sex discrimination, except as may be permitted by the FERPA statute (20 U.S.C. 1232g) or FERPA regulations, (34 CFR part 99), or as required by law, or to carry out the purposes of 34 CFR part 106, including the conduct of any investigation, Hearing, or judicial proceeding arising thereunder. In the event the College discloses such information relating to a report of sexual discrimination to individuals other than the parties involved or those employees with responsibilities under the Policy, the College shall provide the affected party or parties with notice and the reason for such disclosure.

SECTION XIV. EMERGENCY REMOVAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE.

A. Emergency Removal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, the College may remove a Respondent from a College Education Program or Activity on an emergency basis, provided that it: (a) undertakes an individualized safety and risk analysis, (b) determines that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual (e.g., a witness) arising from the allegations of Sexual Harassment justifies removal, and (c) provides the Respondent with notice (identifying the immediate threat justifying removal) and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal as described below. The Coordinator shall forward any cases that the Coordinator has determined potentially involve such threat to the College’s Behavioral Threat Assessment Team (“BTAT”) for review and a determination. When making an immediate threat determination, the BTAT shall consider the appropriateness of Supportive Measures in lieu of an Emergency Removal and the anticipated timing needed to conclude the Grievance Procedures. The BTAT may consider a threat of physical self-harm and the Respondent’s postincident actions or behavior related to the alleged Sexual Harassment, among other factors, when engaging in such a determination.

The Respondent shall have up to seven (7) days after receipt of notice of an Emergency Removal to challenge the BTAT’s decision by submitting a written protest to the Associate Vice President of Campus Safety & Security. Such protest shall identify in sufficient detail why the Respondent does not pose the immediate threat (or threats, as appropriate) identified by the BTAT to the physical health or safety of any student or another individual. The Associate Vice President of Campus & Safety shall have seven (7) days from receipt of a written protest to consider the protest and issue a final determination.

B. Administrative Leave. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Policy, the Coordinator may place a non-student employee Respondent on administrative leave during the pendency of the applicable Grievance Procedures (i.e., after the filing of a Formal Complaint). The Coordinator shall determine within the Coordinator’s discretion whether such administrative leave is with or without pay or continuation of benefits.

C. Statutory Rights. This section shall not be construed to modify any rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or the Americans with Disabilities Act.

D. No Impact on Presumption of Responsibility. Any emergency removal or administrative leave imposed pursuant to this section shall have no bearing on the presumption of non-responsibility established in section XV(B)(8) for the Grievance Procedures.

SECTION XV. SEXUAL HARASSMENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

A. Filing a Formal Complaint. The Complainant may initiate these Grievance Procedures by filing a Formal Complaint. A “Formal Complaint” means a document filed by a Complainant or signed by the Coordinator alleging Sexual Harassment against a Respondent and requesting that the College investigate the allegation of Sexual Harassment. Where possible, the Formal Complaint should include the following: the name of the Respondent (if known); a chronology of the relevant events, detailing dates, places, and times; a description of the alleged Sexual Harassment; and the names of any witnesses to the alleged Sexual Harassment or persons with knowledge of the Sexual Harassment; however, such information is not required.

At the time of filing a Formal Complaint, a Complainant

16 This section XIV(B) does not apply to student employees. Placing a student-employee Respondent on administrative leave could be appropriate under some circumstances. For example, the placement of a student employee on an administrative leave with pay in a nonemergency situation may be appropriate as a Supportive Measure for a Complainant, provided such leave is not punitive, disciplinary, or unreasonably burdensome to the Respondent.

17 A Complainant who has graduated may still be “attempting to participate” in a College Education Program or Activity; for example, where the Complainant has graduated from one program but intends to apply to a different program, or where the graduated Complainant intends to remain involved with Columbia’s alumni programs and activities. Similarly, a Complainant who is on a leave of absence may be “participating or attempting to participate” in College Education Program or Activity; for example, such a Complainant may still be enrolled as a student even while on leave of absence, or may intend to re-apply after a leave of absence and thus is still “attempting to participate” even while on a leave of absence. By way of further example, a Complainant who has left school because of Sexual Harassment, but expresses a desire to re-enroll if the College appropriately responds to the Sexual Harassment, is “attempting to participate” in the College Education Program or Activity.
must be participating in or attempting to participate in the College Education Program or Activity with which the Formal Complaint is filed. A Formal Complaint may be filed with the Coordinator in person, by mail, or by electronic mail, by using the contact information listed for the Coordinator in section IV. As used in this paragraph, the phrase “document filed by a Complainant” means a document or electronic submission (such as by electronic mail or through the College’s Whistleblower website) that contains the Complainant’s physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicates that the Complainant is the person filing the Formal Complaint.

Where the Coordinator signs a Forma Complaint, the Coordinator is not a Complainant or otherwise a party under this Policy and any ensuing Grievance Procedures shall still comply with section XV; this means the Respondent and the Complainant, if known, shall be afforded the same rights and opportunities as if a Complainant signed the Formal Complaint. When assessing whether to sign a Formal Complaint in the absence of a filing by the Complainant, the Coordinator shall consider the unique circumstances of each allegation of Sexual Harassment; relevant facts include – without limitation – a pattern of alleged misconduct by a particular Respondent (e.g., an individual in a position of authority), and whether the Complainant’s allegations involved violence, use of weapons, or similar factors. The Coordinator must first contact the Complainant to discuss the availability of Supportive Measures and take other action as required by section XIII before filing a Formal Complaint.

B. Generally Applicable Information

1. Equitable Treatment of Complainants and Respondents. These Grievance Procedures treat Complainants and Respondents equitably by providing remedies to a Complainant where a determination of responsibility for Sexual Harassment has been made against the Respondent, and by following a process that complies with Title IX before the imposition of any disciplinary sanctions (or other actions that are not Supportive Measures) against a Respondent.

2. Grievance Timeline & Extensions. The College designed its Grievance Procedures to investigate a matter, hold a Hearing and to render a determination within seventy-five (75) calendar days upon receipt of a Formal Complaint, and then to provide an opportunity for appeal. However, due to reasons outside of the College’s control (e.g., a Formal Complaint submitted when the College is closed for Winter Break) some investigations may take longer than others. The Coordinator may implement a limited deadline extension or temporary delay for good cause upon written notice to the parties. Such notice shall include the reason for the timeline or procedural modification. Additionally, either party may request a limited deadline extension or temporary delay of the Grievance Procedures for good cause, and the Coordinator will grant or reject such requests in its discretion. Good cause may include considerations such as: the absence of a party, a party’s advisor, or a witness; concurrent law enforcement activity [as addressed in Section XV(B)(5)]; or the need for language assistance or accommodation of disabilities.

3. Conflicts. The Coordinator shall select the Investigator, the Hearing Panel, Appeals Officer, and Informal Resolution Facilitator, for each investigation from a pool of College employees or third parties specifically trained to serve in those roles. The College will appoint a replacement if: (a) any individual, including the Coordinator, tasked with a responsibility under this Policy is the Respondent or Complainant, or (b) the College determines in its sole discretion that any such person has a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual Complainant or Respondent (due to a preexisting relationship or otherwise). Whether bias exists requires examination of the particular facts of a situation. In the event the Complainant or Respondent believes that the Coordinator or Policy Advisor for Employee Matters is conflicted, the party should inform the Associate Vice President of Human Resources as soon as reasonably feasible – no later than five (5) days after the parties’ receipt of written notice from the Coordinator regarding the filing of a Formal Complaint [as required by section XV(C)(1)] if a Formal Complaint is filed by the Complainant or signed by the Coordinator. The Respondent or Complainant shall inform the Coordinator of any perceived conflicts with the Investigator, Hearing Panel, Appeals Officer, or Informal Resolution Facilitator within three (3) days after receiving notice of such assignments. The Coordinator, or Associate Vice President of Human Resources, as applicable, shall apply an objective (whether a reasonable person would believe bias exists), common sense approach to evaluating conflict objections, exercising caution not to apply generalizations that might lead to unreasonable conclusions that bias exists.

4. Notices. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all notices or communications due under this Policy shall be in writing and mailed or emailed to the respective addresses set forth in this Policy, or provided in person to the required individual, or given over the phone directly to the required individual. Neither leaving a message with an individual other than the required administrator nor recording a voicemail shall constitute notice. Written notice shall be deemed given on the date of its receipt by the College. The default method of transmission by the College for all notices, reports, responses, and other forms of communication detailed in this Policy shall be email using Columbia email addresses (for students and employees).

5. Investigation Delays Due To Law Enforcement Requests. Upon request by law enforcement, the College may elect to delay its investigation until after the police or other governmental investigatory body has completed the first stages of its fact-gathering. During such a delay, the College shall continue to implement Supportive Measures and to communicate with the Complainant and Respondent regarding their rights under this Policy. When law enforcement has completed this initial step, the College shall promptly resume its own investigation. While the College may temporarily delay its processes pursuant to this section to avoid interfering with law enforcement efforts, the College shall otherwise apply this Policy without regard to the status or outcome of any criminal process.

6. Consolidation of Formal Complaints. The Coordinator may consolidate Formal Complaints as to allegations of Sexual Harassment against more than one Respondent, or by more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents, or by one party against the other party (i.e., a cross-complaint), where the allegations of Sexual Harassment arise out of the same facts or circumstances. Where the Grievance Procedures involve more than one Complainant or more than one Respondent, references in in the Policy to the singular “party,” “Complainant,” or “Respondent” include the plural, as applicable.

7. Advisor. Each party may bring one advisor of the party’s choice (an “Advisor”) to any meeting or hearing conducted pursuant to these Grievance Procedures. The Advisor may be, but is not required, to be an attorney. Except for engaging in cross-examination during a Hearing as detailed in section XV(E)(5), sitting next to and quietly conferring with the party, and requesting a recess, the Advisor shall not participate in any meeting or Hearing; this means that each party must personally respond to any questions posed by the Coordinator, Investigator, Informal Resolution Facilitator, or the Hearing Panel. The Coordinator, in the Coordinator’s sole discretion, may remove an Advisor who is not abiding by these rules or is creating a disruption.

8. Presumption of Non-responsibility & Burden of Proof. There is a presumption that the Respondent is not responsible for the alleged Sexual Harassment until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of these Grievance Procedures. Throughout the Grievance Proceedings, the burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility rest on the College and not on the parties.

9. Medical and Psychological Treatment Records. The College shall not access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a party’s records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in the professional’s or paraprofessional’s capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless the College obtains that party’s voluntary, written consent to do so for the Grievance Proceedings.

10. Equal Opportunities to Present Evidence. Throughout the Grievance process, each party shall have an equal opportunity to present witnesses, including fact and expert witnesses, and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.

11. Court Orders. The College shall abide by any and all orders of protection, no-contact orders, restraining orders, or similarly lawful orders issued by a court of appropriate jurisdiction and authority.

12. Legally Recognized Privileges. These Grievance procedures do not require, allow, rely upon, or otherwise use questions or evidence that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally recognized privilege (e.g., attorney-client privilege), unless the person holding such privilege has waived the privilege.

13. Rape Shield. Questions and evidence about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant, unless such questions and evidence about the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct alleged by the Complainant, or if the questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior with respect to the Respondent and are offered to prove Consent.

14. No Restrictions on Discussion of the Allegations. Nothing in this Policy restricts the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence.

15. Advance Written Notice of Meetings. The College shall provide a party with advance written notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of any Hearing, investigation interview, or other meeting where the party’s participation is invited or expected. The notice shall provide sufficient time for the party to prepare for the meeting.

16. Training. The College provides training to all students and employees and confirms that individuals with responsibilities under this Policy are qualified to perform their duties as required by Illinois’ Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act, Title IX, and all other applicable laws. All College employees whose duties include resolution of complaints under this Policy shall receive a minimum of eight (8) to ten (10) hours of annual training on issues related to sexual violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Stalking and their responsibilities under this Policy in compliance with 110 ILCS 155/25(b)(3). As required by 110 ILCS 155/30(c), the College shall provide trauma-informed response training to any employee involved in (a) the receipt of an alleged incident of sexual violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking, (ii) the referral or provision of services to an individual who has endured such behavior while enrolled, or (iii) any campus complaint resolution procedure that results from an alleged incident of sexual violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking.

As required by 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(1)(iii), the College shall ensure that the Coordinator, Investigators, Hearing Panel members, Appeals Officers, and Informal Resolution Facilitators, receive training on the definition of Sexual Harassment, the scope of the “College Education Program Or Activity” phrase, how to conduct the investigation and Grievance Procedures in this Policy (including Hearings, appeals, and informal resolution processes) as applicable, and how to serve impartially, including by avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias. The College must also ensure that decision-makers receive training on any technology to be used at a live Hearing and on issues of relevance of questions and evidence, including when questions and evidence about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant, as set forth in section XV(B)(13). In addition, the College must verify that Investigators receive training on issues of relevance to create an Investigative Report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence, as required by section XV(C)(6). The aforementioned is in addition to any other training required by Title IX or other federal, state, or local laws with respect to the College employees listed above, College-provided advisors, or other College employees or agents with responsibilities under this Policy.

17. Admission. At any time after the filing of a Formal Complaint and before the issuance of the Hearing determination to the parties [as described in section XV(H)], the Respondent may notify the Coordinator that the Respondent accepts responsibility for the alleged Sexual Harassment. If the Respondent accepts responsibility, the College shall implement appropriate remedies and disciplinary sanctions and provide notice as required under Section XV(H). Either party may appeal the sanctions as provided under section XV(I)(2).

C. Investigating Sexual Misconduct

1. Notice of Formal Complaint. As soon as practicable, but no later than three (3) days after signing a Formal Complaint or receipt of a Formal Complaint filed by the Complainant, the Coordinator shall provide the following written notice to the parties who are known: (a) notice of these Grievance Procedures and the Informal Resolution Process, and (b) notice of the allegations potentially constituting Sexual Harassment as defined in this Policy, including sufficient details known at the time and with sufficient time to prepare a response before any initial interview. Sufficient details include the identities of the parties involved in the incident, if known, the conduct allegedly constituting Sexual Harassment under this Policy, and the date and location of the alleged incident, if known. The written notice shall include a statement that the Respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the Grievance Procedures. The written notice must inform the parties that they may have an advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, under section XV(B)
APPENDIX IV

(7), and may inspect and review evidence under section XV(C)(5). The written notice shall also inform the parties that knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information during the Grievance Procedures is a violation of this Policy. If the College later decides to investigate allegations about the Complainant or Respondent that are not included in the aforementioned notice, the Coordinator shall provide notice of the additional allegations to the parties whose identities are known.

2. Informal Resolution Option. At any time after the filing of a Formal Complaint but prior to the Hearing Panel's determination, the Coordinator may (in the Coordinator's discretion or upon the request of a party) propose that the parties resolve the Formal Complaint through the Informal Resolution Process without a full investigation and adjudication. The Informal Resolution Process may, without limitation, include mediation and restorative justice. The College shall never offer an Informal Resolution Process to resolve allegations that an employee sexually harassed a student. Prior to commencing the Informal Resolution Process, the Title IX Coordinator shall transmit a written notice to the parties that provides:

• the allegations;

• an identification of the individual responsible for facilitating the information resolution, who may be the Title IX Coordinator, another College official, or a suitable third-party ("Informal Resolution Facilitator");

• the requirements of the Informal Resolution Process, including the circumstances where the parties are precluded – during the Informal Resolution Process or due to a final resolution – from resuming the investigation and adjudication of the allegations at issue in the Formal Complaint;

• that the specific manner of any Informal Resolution Process shall be determined by the parties and the Title IX Coordinator, in consultation together;

• that, at any time prior to agreeing to a final resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the Informal Resolution Process and resume the grievance process with respect to the Formal Complaint;

• an explanation of any other consequence resulting from participation in the Informal Resolution Process, including a description of records that will be generated, maintained, and/or shared [the College shall maintain all records relating to the Informal Resolution Process in the confidential manner described in Section XIII(C)];

• that information disclosed by the parties as part of the Informal Resolution Process shall not be considered by the Investigator or the Hearing Panel; and

• the College shall close the Informal Resolution Process period and reinitiate the formal grievance process if a resolution is not reached within twenty one (21) days of the parties’ written consent to begin this process.

After receiving the written notice specified in this paragraph, each party must voluntarily provide written consent to the Title IX Coordinator, before the informal resolution may commence. The Informal Resolution Process is completely voluntary. Either party may decline to participate in the party's sole discretion. Nothing in this Policy requires, as a condition of an enrollment or continuing enrollment, or employment or continuing employment, or enjoyment of any other right, waiver of the right to an investigation and adjudication of Formal Complaints of Sexual Harassment.

During the pendency of the Informal Resolution Process, the investigation and adjudication processes that would otherwise occur are stayed and all related deadlines are suspended. If the parties reach a resolution through the Informal Resolution Process, and the Title IX Coordinator agrees that the resolution is not clearly unreasonable, the Title IX Coordinator shall reduce the terms of the agreed resolution to writing and present the resolution to the parties for their written signature. Agreed-upon resolutions reached through the Informal Resolution Process may include – without limitation – disciplinary sanctions, such as suspension and expulsion. Once both parties and the Title IX Coordinator sign the resolution, the resolution is final, and the allegations addressed by the resolution are considered resolved and will not be subject to further investigation, adjudication, remediation, or discipline by the College, except as otherwise provided in the resolution itself, absent a showing that a party induced the resolution by fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct or where required to avoid a manifest injustice to either party or to the College.
3. Initial Review of Formal Complaint; Mandatory & Discretionary Dismissal.

a.) Requirement to Investigate: within seven (7) days after signing a Formal Complaint or receipt of a Formal Complaint filed by the Complainant, the Coordinator shall review the allegations in the Formal Complaint, and – by written notice to each party – either: (a) determine that the Formal Complaint is subject to resolution through these Grievance Procedures, and assign the matter to an Investigator, providing the Investigator’s name and title, or (b) dismiss the Formal Complaint as provided below.

b.) Mandatory Dismissal: if the conduct alleged in the Formal Complaint: (i) would not constitute Sexual Harassment even if proved, (ii) did not occur in a College Education Program Or Activity, or (iii) did not occur against a person in the United States, then the College must dismiss the Formal Complaint with regard to that conduct for purposes of Sexual Harassment under this Policy (which was drafted to comply with Title IX); such a dismissal does not preclude action under other sections of the Discrimination Policy, the Student Code of Conduct, the Statement of Policy on Academic Freedom, Faculty Status, Tenure, and Due Process, an applicable collective bargaining agreement, or any other Columbia policy or agreement.

c.) Discretionary Dismissal: The Coordinator may – in the Coordinator’s discretion – dismiss the Formal Complaint or any allegations therein, if at any time during the investigation or Hearing: (i) a Complainant notifies the Coordinator in writing that the Complainant would like to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegations therein; (ii) the Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the College; or (iii) specific circumstances prevent the College from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the Formal Complaint or allegations therein. This Policy provides the College with discretion to proceed with an investigation against a Respondent in circumstances where a Complainant requests that the Formal Complaint or allegations be withdrawn. The College may determine that it is prudent to proceed with an investigation against a Respondent where, for example, the College has gathered evidence apart from the Complainant’s statements and desires to reach a determination regarding the Respondent’s responsibility, the Respondent poses an ongoing risk to the Community, or for other reasons.

Specific circumstances preventing the College from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination may include (without limitation): (i) where no Complainant is identified during the investigation (applicable in cases where, for example, a third party reports that a Complainant suffered Sexual Harassment but does not disclose the Complainant’s name, or a Complainant reports anonymously, and the Coordinator signs a Formal Complaint), (ii) where a Formal Complaint contains allegations that are precisely the same as allegations the College has already investigated and adjudicated, (iii) the length of time elapsed between an incident of alleged Sexual Harassment and the filing of a Formal Complaint prevent the College from collecting enough evidence to reach a determination, and (iv) where the Complainant has stopped participating in the investigation but has not sent a written withdrawal request and the only inculpatory evidence available is the Complainant’s statement in the Formal Complaint or as documented in an interview by the Investigator.

d.) Notice of Dismissal: Upon a dismissal required or permitted pursuant to this section, the Coordinator shall promptly send written notice of the dismissal and reason(s) therefor simultaneously to the parties.

e.) Appeal of Dismissal: Either party may appeal a dismissal upon the conditions established in section XV(I).

4. Preliminary Meeting With Coordinator. In any written notice informing the parties that the Coordinator has assigned the Formal Complaint to an Investigator, the Coordinator shall also offer to meet separately with the Complainant and the Respondent to apprise both parties of their rights under this Policy and to address questions related to these Grievance Procedures. During such meeting, the Coordinator shall also provide both parties with notice of the types of information that likely will be disclosed during the investigation, the recipients of this information, and the reasons for any disclosures. If the Coordinator has not previously offered Supportive Measures to the Respondent through an interactive process upon the Respondent’s request [as detailed in section XIII(B)], the Coordinator shall do so in the meeting with the Respondent.

5. Fact Gathering and Procedural Equality. The Investigator shall undertake a thorough search for relevant facts and evidence pertaining to the Formal Complaint while operating under the constraints of conducting and concluding the investigation under the designated time frames established in these Grievance Procedures. The Investigator shall meet with the parties, identify and interview witnesses, and visit relevant locations. As soon as practicable after beginning an investigation, the Investigator shall meet with each party individually to schedule a timeframe for submitting relevant evidence and identifying witnesses. Submission deadlines and other restrictions on the presentation of evidence shall apply equally to both parties. During the fact gathering stage, the Investigator shall provide the Complainant and Respondent with periodic updates of the status of the investigation. Both parties shall have an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the Formal Complaint, including the evidence upon which the College does not intend to rely in reaching a determination regarding responsibility and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence whether obtained from a party or other source, so that each party can meaningfully respond to the evidence prior to conclusion of the investigation.

The Investigator shall send to each party and the party's Advisor, if any, the evidence subject to inspection and review in an electronic format18, within twenty (20) days of the Investigator’s assignment to this matter by the Coordinator, provided such timeframe may be extended for seven (7) day intervals with written notice explaining the reason for the extension to the parties. The means of electronic submission to the parties shall prohibit copying, saving, or further dissemination of the evidence. Neither party shall disseminate, copy, photograph or otherwise use the Investigative Report for any purpose unrelated to these Grievance Procedures. Evidence is relevant if it is pertinent to proving whether facts material to the allegations under investigation are more or less likely to be true. Where necessary, the Investigator shall redact non-relevant information from the Investigative Report. The Investigator shall neither make any credibility assessments nor assign responsibility.

D. Pre-Hearing Conference and Hearing Notices, Party Responses to the Investigative Report, and Pre-Hearing Conference Parameters

1. Notice of Pre-hearing Conference and Hearing. The Coordinator shall arrange for a live Hearing to determine whether the Respondent is responsible for the alleged Sexual Harassment. Within five (5) days after submission of the Investigative Report to the parties, the Coordinator shall submit written notice to the parties providing: the composition of the assigned Hearing Panel; the location, date, and time for a Prehearing Conference; a statement that the parties must submit any written response to the Investigative Report no later than twentyfour (24) hours before the Pre-hearing Conference; and a copy of the College's Hearing procedures. Unless the parties agree to an expedited schedule, neither the Pre-hearing Conference, nor the Hearing itself, may be held any earlier than ten (10) days from the date of transmittal of this written notice. A party shall promptly inform the Coordinator if the party has a conflict on the scheduled dates; the Coordinator may propose an alternative Hearing date but is not obligated to do so.

2. Investigative Report Responses. A party’s written response to the Investigative Report (which shall be shared with the other party) must include:

- To the extent the party disagrees with the Investigative Report, any argument or commentary regarding such disagreement;
• Any argument that evidence should be categorically excluded from consideration at the Hearing based on privilege, relevancy, the prohibition on the use of sexual history, or for any other reason;

• A list of any Columbia student or employee witnesses that the party contends should be requested to attend the hearing pursuant to an attendance notice issued by the Hearing Panel;

• A list of any third-party witnesses that the party intends to bring to the hearing without an attendance notice issued by the Hearing Panel;

• Any objection that the party has to the Hearing procedures;

• Any request that the parties be separated physically during the Pre-hearing Conference and/or Hearing;

• Any other modifications that the party seeks with respect to the Pre-hearing Conference and/or Hearing;

• The name and contact information of the Advisor who will accompany the party at the Pre-Hearing Conference and Hearing;

• If the party does not have an Advisor who will accompany the party at the Hearing, a request that the College provide an advisor for purposes of conducting cross-examination as detailed in section XV(E)(5).

A party’s written response to the Investigative Report may also include:

• Argument regarding whether any of the allegations in the Formal Complaint are supported by a preponderance of the evidence; and

• Argument regarding whether any of the allegations in the Formal Complaint constitute Sexual Harassment.

3. Pre-Hearing Conference. Prior to the Hearing, the Hearing Panel shall conduct a Pre-hearing Conference with the parties and their Advisors. The Pre-hearing Conference shall be conducted live, with simultaneous and contemporaneous participation by the parties and their Advisors. By default, the Prehearing Conference shall be conducted with the Hearing Panel, the parties, the advisors, and other necessary College personnel together in the same physical location. However, upon request of either party, the parties shall be separated into different rooms with technology enabling the parties to participate simultaneously and contemporaneously by video and audio. In the Hearing Panel’s discretion, the Pre-hearing Conference may be conducted virtually, by use of video and audio technology, where all participants participate simultaneously and contemporaneously by use of such technology.

During the Pre-hearing Conference, the Hearing Panel shall discuss the Hearing procedures with the parties; address matters raised in the parties’ written responses to the Investigative Report as the Hearing Panel deems appropriate; discuss whether any stipulations may be made to expedite the Hearing; discuss the witnesses the parties have requested be served with notices of attendance and/or witnesses the parties plan to bring to the hearing without a notice of attendance; and resolve any other matters that the Hearing Panel determines, in the Hearing Panel’s discretion, should be resolved before the Hearing.

4. Issuance of Notices of Attendance. After the Prehearing Conference, the Hearing Panel shall transmit notices of attendance to any College employee or student whose attendance is requested at the hearing as a witness. The notice shall advise the witness of the specified date and time of the hearing and advise the witness to contact the Hearing Panel immediately if there is a material and unavoidable conflict. Witnesses should notify any manager, faculty member, coach, or other supervisor, as necessary, if attendance at the Hearing will conflict with job duties, classes, or other obligations. All managers, faculty members, and other supervisors are required to excuse the witness of conflicting obligations, or provide some other accommodation, so that the witness may attend the Hearing as specified in the notice. The College will not issue a notice of attendance to any witness who is not an employee or a student.

E. The Hearing

1. The Location & Who May Attend. Hearings may be conducted with all parties physically present in the same geographic location or, at the College’s discretion, any or all parties, witnesses, and other participants may appear at the Hearing virtually, with technology enabling participants simultaneously to see and hear each other. If the College requires in-person attendance, the College shall provide (upon the request of either party) for the Hearing to occur with the parties located in separate rooms with technology enabling the Hearing Panel and parties to simultaneously see and hear the party or the witness answering questions.
Hearings are not open to the public; only the parties, the Coordinator, each party’s Advisor, the Hearing Panel, witnesses, and certain College employees as designated by the Coordinator may attend. Except during recesses or periods where the Hearing Panel breaks to convene or deliberate in private, the parties and their Advisors are entitled to attend the entire Hearing. Witness may only participate in a Hearing to the extent required to provide testimony and participate in cross-examination.

2. Hearing Panel Composition. The Hearing Panel consists of a Lead Hearing Officer (the “Lead”) and two Hearing Officers. The Lead and each of the Hearing Officers shall be College employees or other individuals trained to perform these roles as required by Title IX.

3. Time limits. No Hearing shall exceed more than six (6) hours per day, or eighteen (18) hours per week. The Coordinator shall schedule extra days, as necessary, for Hearings that require more than one (1) day. Where practicable, such Hearing sessions should occur on consecutive days. The parties shall endeavor in good faith to be available for additional days in the event of an emergency (or other event) requiring a continuance or to accommodate other delays.

4. General Overview & Hearing Panel’s Role. The Lead shall preside over the Hearing in an orderly, nonadversarial manner. As further explained in section XV(E)(6), the Hearing Panel shall make all relevancy determinations. Each Hearing shall consist of: an explanation of the Sexual Harassment allegations and the Hearing rules by the Lead; an opportunity for each party to give short, opening statements; questions from the Hearing Panel to each party and witness; cross-examination by each party’s advisor of the other party and the witnesses; follow-up questions as necessary by the Hearing Panel; and an opportunity for any brief, closing remarks by the parties. The Lead shall determine when to take a recess or to adjourn.

Parties and witnesses should answer questions to the best of their knowledge. As addressed previously in section VI, knowingly providing false information is a violation of the Discrimination Policy, and may result in discipline.

5. Cross-Examination by a Party’s Advisor. Each party’s Advisor may ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility. Such cross-examination at the Hearing must be conducted directly, orally, and in real time by the party’s Advisor and never by a party personally. A party’s Advisor may appear and conduct cross-examination even when the party whom they are advising does not appear. Advisors shall conduct cross-examination in a respectful, nonabusive manner. No individual shall be “yelled at” or asked questions in an intimidating manner. An Advisor’s failure to follow this or any other rule established pursuant to this Policy may result in the Advisor’s suspension from the proceedings; in such event, the Hearing Panel shall assign – at the College’s cost - an advisor of the College’s choice to replace the suspended Advisor.

6. Only Relevant Questions Permitted. Only relevant cross-examination and other questions may be asked of a party or witness. Before a Complainant, Respondent, or witness answers a cross-examination or other question, the Hearing Panel must first determine whether the question is relevant and explain any decision to exclude a question as not relevant. When assessing relevancy, the Panel shall consider whether the question asks about a detail that is probative of any material fact concerning the allegations. As provided above in section XV(C)(6), evidence is relevant if it is pertinent to proving whether facts material to the allegations under investigation are more or less likely to be true. Questions that are duplicative or repetitive are not relevant and may be excluded by the Hearing Panel. Federal or state rules of evidence do not apply.

In summary, the following types of evidence and information are irrelevant or otherwise prohibited from use during the Grievance Procedures (including any Hearing): (a) information protected by a legally recognized privilege (as explained in section XV(B)(12); (b) evidence about a Complainant’s prior sexual history (except as provided otherwise in this Policy in Section XV(B)(13); and (c) any party’s medical, psychological, and similar records unless the party has given voluntary, written consent (as explained in section XV(B)(9).

7. Optional Participation. The College encourages, but does not require, the Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses’ full participation in a Hearing. Columbia acknowledges that Hearings (which, as explained above, include cross-examination) concerning Sexual Harassment may be emotionally challenging and uncomfortable, and that an individual may decide reasonably not to attend at all, to attend the Hearing but to decline to participate in cross-examination, to answer some but not all of a party’s Advisor’s questions during cross-examination, or a different arrangement.
The Hearing Panel shall not draw an inference about the determination regarding responsibility based solely on a party's or witness's absence from the live Hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination or other questions.

To the extent permitted by law, the Hearing Panel may consider statements from Parties and witnesses who did not attend the Hearing or attended the Hearing but did not submit to cross-examination if the statements are relevant and not otherwise prohibited from use during the Grievance Procedures. Such statements may include (without limitation): those made by Parties and witnesses during the investigation; emails or text exchanges between the Parties leading up to the alleged Sexual Harassment; and statements within police reports, Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner documents, medical reports, or other documents.

8. College Appointment of Advisor. If a party does not have an Advisor present at the Hearing, the College must provide without fee or charge to that party, an advisor of the College’s choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, to conduct cross-examination on behalf of that party. Where a party does not appear and that party’s Advisor does not appear, a College-provided advisor must still cross-examine the other, appearing party “on behalf of” the non-appearing party.

9. Witnesses. The Hearing Panel shall determine which witnesses to invite to the Hearing. In a party’s response to the Investigative Report [as detailed previously in section XV(D)(2)], a party may request certain witnesses for the Hearing Panel’s consideration.

10. Required Recording or transcript. The College shall create an audio or audiovisual recording, or transcript, of any Hearing and make it available to the parties for inspection and review within three (3) days of completion of the Hearing.

F. Evidentiary Standard & Determination. Within ten (10) days of the Hearing, the Hearing Panel shall objectively examine all relevant evidence received through the course of the investigation and Hearing (including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence), determine whether it is more likely than not that the Respondent engaged in the Sexual Harassment alleged (a “preponderance of the evidence” standard), and support a written report of its determination to the Coordinator. The preponderance of the evidence standard shall apply to all Formal Complaints of Sexual Harassment, regardless of whether the Respondent is a student, faculty member, or staff member. Credibility determinations shall not be based on a person’s status as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness. Evidence of a prior consensual dating or sexual relationship between the parties by itself does not imply consent or preclude a finding of Sexual Harassment.

G. Disciplinary Sanctions & Remedies. If the Hearing Panel finds a violation of this Policy, the Coordinator shall forward the aforementioned Hearing Panel report to the Dean of Students, the Associate Vice President for Human Resources, and/or the Provost for a determination of the appropriate remedies for the Complainant and disciplinary sanctions for the Respondent. Such decisions shall be made as follows: by the Dean of Students for student parties, by the Associate Vice President for Human Resources for staff parties, and by the Provost (in consultation with the Associate Vice President for Human Resources) for faculty parties. The remedies shall be designed to restore or preserve equal access to the affected College Education Program Or Activity. Remedies need not be non-disciplinary or non-punitive and need not avoid burdening the Respondent.

Remedies include (without limitation):

- Making permanent relevant individualized services that were administered previously as Supportive Measures;
- Providing comprehensive, holistic victim services including on-campus health center, on-campus counseling, and academic support services, such as tutoring;
- Arranging for the Complainant to have extra time to complete or re-take a class or withdraw from a class without an academic or financial penalty;
- Reviewing any past disciplinary action against the Complainant to evaluate whether there was a causal connection between the Respondent’s Sexual Harassment and the misconduct that resulted in the College disciplining the Complainant; and
- The Provision of additional education and/or support services for the entire Community.

Disciplinary sanctions for the Respondent include: mandatory apologies, verbal reprimands, written warnings, behavioral contracts, loss of privileges, required College service or participation, restitution, learning activities, permanent change of residence, probation, termination, restricted access, suspension, and expulsion.
When determining disciplinary sanctions and remedies, the Dean of Students, the Associate Vice President for Human Resources, or the Provost, as applicable, may consider aggravating and mitigating factors, including but not limited to: (1) whether the Respondent has engaged in sexual discrimination in the past, (2) the nature of such past violations, if any, (3) the extent to which the Sexual Harassment at issue here was premeditated, (4) the impact of the behavior on the Complainant and/or the Columbia community, (5) whether the Respondent is apologetic or has otherwise accepted responsibility, (6) deterrence considerations, (7) the probability that the Respondent will violate the Policy again, and (8) the Respondent’s involvement in the Columbia community.

H. Simultaneous Written Notice of the Outcome & Sanctions. The Coordinator shall provide both parties with simultaneous written notice of the Hearing Panel's determination no later than seven (7) days after the Coordinator’s receipt of the Hearing Panel's determination report. This written notice shall include: (1) Identification of the allegations potentially constituting Sexual Harassment; (2) A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the Formal Complaint through the determination, including the date the College received notice of the allegations, the name of the Investigator, any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses (with dates and locations), site visits, methods used to gather other evidence, the process undertaken by the parties to inspect and review the evidence and the Investigative Report, hearings held, any delays or Policy modifications, and any inability to obtain evidence (such as the unavailability of a witness). (3) Findings of fact supporting the determination; (4) Conclusions regarding the application of this Policy to the facts; (5) A statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions the College imposes on the Respondent, and whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the College Education Program Or Activity will be provided by the College to the Complainant; and (6) The procedures and permissible bases in this Policy for the Complainant and Respondent to appeal. The Hearing Panel’s determination regarding responsibility becomes final either on the date that the College provides the parties with the written determination of the result of the appeal, if an appeal is filed, or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely. The Coordinator is responsible for effective implementation of any remedies.

I. THE APPEAL.

1. Post Dismissal or Hearing Appeal Rights. Either party may send a written appeal to the Coordinator within ten (10) days of receiving formal notice of: a dismissal of a Formal Complaint (or any allegations therein) under section XV(C)(3) or, the Hearing Panel’s decision. To constitute a valid appeal, the appeal must assert at least one of the four following grounds: (a) there was a procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter; (b) there is new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter; (c) the Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or Hearing Panel had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter; and (d) the disciplinary sanctions are disproportionate to the Sexual Harassment. A party shall submit a clear and detailed explanation of the basis for the appeal with any available documentation. The appeal must be limited to the scope of the Formal Complaint.

If the Coordinator determines that the appeal is valid, the Coordinator shall serve the non-appealing party with a copy and – with notice to both parties – assign the appeal to an Appeals Officer. The opposing party may issue a formal response within ten (10) days of receiving a copy of the appeal. Upon the expiration of this ten (10) day window or receipt of the non-appealing party’s response, the Appeals Officer shall have ten (10) days to conclude review of the findings or sanctions, as appropriate. The Appeals Officer shall then issue a final decision to the parties – either upholding the dismissal, the Hearing Panel’s determination, and/or the disciplinary sanctions, as appropriate, or imposing a revision to such orders – within seven (7) days of the conclusion of that review process. The Appeals Officer may implement a procedural remedy, including but not limited to remanding for a new hearing. The Appeals Officer, in the Appeals Officer’s sole discretion, may provide both parties with an opportunity to speak to the merits of the appeal in person, through videoconference, or over the phone. The Appeals Officer shall issue a written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale, with simultaneous, written notice to both parties. This decision binds both parties and is not subject to subsequent appeal under this Policy by either party.

2. Appeals Under Section XV(B)(17). After accepting responsibility for alleged Sexual Harassment, as articulated in section XV(B)(17), a party shall have ten (10) days to submit a written appeal after receiving notice of any imposed disciplinary sanctions. These appeals are limited to the grounds that the disciplinary sanctions are disproportionate to the Sexual Harassment. All other timelines and procedures are identical to those in the above section.

SECTION XVI. OFF-CAMPUS RESOURCES FOR ASSISTANCE & SUPPORT.

The below Chicago area organizations may offer support, assistance, and information to Complainants, Respondents, witnesses, or others affected by Sexual Harassment. Individuals should contact these organizations for additional information regarding offered services, intended recipients, and applicable confidentiality policies.

SECTION XVII. PRECEDENCE OVER OTHER COLLEGE POLICIES.

In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Policy and other sections of the College’s Discrimination Policy, or any other College policy or agreement, the terms of this Policy shall control.

SECTION XVIII. POLICY REVIEW & MODIFICATION.

The College reserves the right to modify or amend this Policy at any time. Any modifications shall not be retroactively applied to any prior or pending investigations.

APPENDIX B

STUDENT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY & PROCEDURES

Section I. Purpose & Applicability. Columbia College Chicago (the “College” or “Columbia”) is committed to maintaining an environment that respects the dignity of its students, faculty, and staff and is free from discrimination of any kind. The College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities (including, without limitation, in admissions and employment). Sexual Harassment [as defined in Section XIII(A)], which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination. This Student Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures (the “Policy”) supplements the College’s Title IX Sexual Harassment Policy & Procedures (the “Title IX Policy”), which prohibits sexual harassment to the extent required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations (“Title IX”).

This Policy addresses unwelcome sexual behavior perpetrated by students that is inconsistent with the College’s educational mission but outside the scope of Title IX. Specifically, the Policy contains Grievance Procedures (defined and explained in Section XIV) that provide for prompt and equitable resolution of any allegation of Sexual Misconduct (a type of Sexual Harassment as defined below) not covered by the Title IX Policy that is (A) made against a student by another student, College employee, or third party and (B) related to or made in the context of the College’s academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic or other programs and activities. The College designed these procedures to end the Sexual Misconduct, eliminate any resulting hostile environment, remedy any other effects, and prevent the Sexual Misconduct from reoccurring. This Policy applies to all Columbia faculty, staff, students, as well as to third parties (the “Community”), regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

SECTION II. SCOPE OF POLICY.
The College has jurisdiction over complaints made pursuant to this Policy. The Grievance Procedures in this Policy cover Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is quid pro quo Sexual Harassment or Sexual Harassment that creates a Hostile Environment (as explained in Section XIII). Sexual Misconduct may include, but is not limited to: Sexual Violence, Sexual Exploitation, and Stalking. This Policy’s Grievance Procedures cover Sexual Misconduct that occurs in connection with oncampus and/or off-campus Columbia programs or activities. The College may initiate an investigation under this Policy regardless of where the alleged misconduct took place. To illustrate, this Policy’s Grievance Procedures would apply to Sexual Misconduct that took place inside the College’s 600 S. Michigan building or during an off-campus Columbia-sponsored course, training program, domestic field trip, or study abroad experience. The Grievance Procedures would also cover Sexual Misconduct that allegedly occurred during an event neither sponsored by nor related to a College program or activity if a Community member experienced the continuing effects of such misconduct while at the College or during a Columbia sponsored event.
The Policy’s Grievance Procedures govern Sexual Misconduct where the party accused of such behavior (the “Respondent”) is a Student or group of Students. This Policy applies regardless of the identity of a Complainant or witness. As used in this Policy, the “Complainant” means “an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute Sexual Misconduct.” Although the Grievance Procedures apply strictly to Sexual Misconduct, the College prohibits all forms of Sexual Harassment, including offensive and/or inappropriate behavior that does not rise to the level of Sexual Misconduct under this Policy (i.e. Sexual Harassment that neither creates a Hostile Environment nor constitutes Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment). The College encourages the Community to report any such behavior to a College official so that it may promptly investigate and respond.
The College shall treat all allegations under this Policy in a responsible manner. As explained in more detail in sections IX, XI, and XIV, the College will endeavor to respect all reasonable requests for confidentiality beyond those procedures provided in this Policy.

SECTION III. APPLICABILITY OF OTHER COLUMBIA POLICIES.
A. Statement of Non-Discrimination. The Policy’s focus on Sexual Misconduct is consistent with the College’s broad Statement of Non-Discrimination. As articulated in this Statement of Non-Discrimination, the College does not discriminate in its admissions, employment, housing, services, or in the education courses, programs, or activities that it operates based on age, gender, sex, race, color, ethnicity, religion, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation.
B. Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy. This Policy is part of the College’s Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy, which bars all forms of harassment and inappropriate discrimination and encourages the Columbia community to notify appropriate College personnel in the event of any prohibited behavior.
C. Relationship to Other College Policies. In the event of a conflict between this Policy and the Title IX Policy, the Title IX Policy shall control. However, this Policy has priority in the event of a conflict with any other section of the College’s Anti-Discrimination & Harassment Policy, or any other College policy or procedure.

SECTION IV. OPTIONS FOR IMMEDIATE EMERGENCY

1 For purposes of this Policy, a Student is: (A) an individual currently enrolled in any part-time or full-time academic program at the College, (B) an individual who was enrolled previously, is not enrolled currently, but is reasonably anticipated, in the College’s sole determination, to seek enrollment again, (C) an individual who withdrew from the College after the initiation of an investigation under this Policy, or (D) an individual who has applied for admission in the upcoming semester or academic year, received an offer to attend, and either accepted the offer or is reasonably likely, as determined by the College, to attend.
ASSISTANCE FOLLOWING AN INCIDENT OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE (AS DEFINED IN SECTION XIII).

As explained in Section IX, individuals have multiple options for reporting Sexual Misconduct to the College depending on their preferences, comfort level, and confidentiality needs. Regardless of the manner in which an individual may elect to report – or not to report – to the College, individuals who have experienced any act of Sexual Violence – i.e. unwanted physical sexual acts such as rape, as defined in Section XIII – and/or need emergency assistance after an incident, shall first and foremost:

A.) Get to a place of safety. Dial 911 for local Police or 312.369.1111 for Campus Safety & Security immediately if at continued risk, and;

B.) Seek any necessary medical attention as soon as possible.

Downtown Chicago Hospitals include:

- Northwestern Memorial Hospital (Emergency Department), 250 E. Erie St, Chicago, IL 60611 (312.926.5188) (about 2.1 miles from Columbia's 600 S. Michigan building)
- Rush University Medical Center (Department of Emergency Medicine), 1653 W. Congress Parkway, Chicago, IL 60612 (312.942.5000) (about 3 miles from Columbia's 600 S. Michigan Building)

Going to an Illinois hospital for medical care after an incident of Sexual Violence does not obligate an individual to file a report with the College or the police.

C.) To maximize evidence collection:

- Do not shower or change clothes. Try not to urinate if possible
- If oral contact took place, do not smoke, eat, drink, or brush teeth.
- If leaving from home, take extra clothes/shoes.

If an individual is uncertain regarding how to respond, he or she should consider calling one of the advocates or resources listed in section X of this Policy.

What to Expect at the Hospital

Seeking medical care is important, regardless of whether an individual chooses to report to the police or to the College. Hospitals and other medical centers may provide a physical exam, treatment, and collection of any relevant evidence. The below section includes a summary of and general notes regarding the intake procedure at many Chicagoland hospitals. Please note that the precise procedures at each medical center may vary.

The Emergency Room Exam

A local hospital emergency room can provide immediate medical attention. The emergency room responds to both the physical trauma of the Sexual Violence and the process of collecting evidence in case an individual wishes to report to law enforcement. Rape victim advocacy services are also available at many Chicago hospitals to provide support and referrals.

Hospitals in Illinois are required to notify the local police department that treatment has been given to an individual alleging sexual assault. However, an individual is not required to file a police report.

An individual may sign consent forms to allow the medical personnel to examine, treat, and administer medication, and to release information to the police. The nurse or advocate will explain the exam procedures and can be present throughout the exam.

After an incident of Sexual Violence, the primary medical concerns are physical injuries, sexually transmitted infections, and pregnancy. At the time of the examination, evidence can also be collected that can be used to prosecute the person(s) who it is alleged participated in Sexual Violence. If an individual wishes to have evidence collected, the individual should not bathe, douche or change clothes before the exam. This may destroy evidence. However, typically, evidence may still be collected up to a week after an incident of Sexual Violence. An individual may wish to bring a change of clothes when the individual goes to the emergency room, since clothing may be kept as evidence. A sweat suit or scrubs may also be provided.

Evidence Collection

If an individual chooses, the hospital will conduct thorough and complete evidence collection using the Illinois State Police Evidence Collection Kit (the "rape kit"). The entire evidence collection process will be

Adopted from “After Sexual Assault,” a resource page created by the Illinois Coalition Against Sexual Assault and Loyola University Chicago. The information provided within the “What to Expect at the Hospital” section is for general education purposes only; it is not, and shall not be construed as, legal or medical advice. The College encourages individuals to seek assistance from qualified attorneys and medical professionals as appropriate.
done only with the individual’s consent. The individual may decline any portion of the exam. There is no fee for having a rape kit done and the individual does not need to use personal insurance. The Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA") conditions a state’s receipt of certain federal funding on the provision of medical forensic examinations at no cost for individuals alleging sexual assault. The rape kit does not contain any medication.

Evidence may be collected even if the individual does not plan to report the incident to the police. If the individual decides at a later date that it is best to file a police report, this evidence will be available. Any evidence found during the exam may strengthen any resulting criminal court case should the individual decide to file a police report.

Evidence collection includes taking samples of substances from the vagina, rectum, and mouth; combings of head and pubic hair; collecting material from beneath fingernails; and collection of any other physical evidence (e.g., saliva from bite marks). These samples will be used to detect the DNA and any other debris from other persons involved or the scene of the incident.

The clothes the individual is wearing also may be sent to a crime lab and may be kept as evidence until the case is closed. Photographs may be taken of bruises, cuts and other injuries that occurred. The photographs may be kept as evidence until the case is closed.

The Cost of Treatment Outside the Student Health Center or the CareATC Clinic
The Sexual Assault Survivors Emergency Treatment Act ("SASETA") may cover emergency room costs, including any medications received. In such case, the hospital should not bill for any treatment. If an advocate is present, the advocate may be able to assist with any questions related to SASETA and help to ensure that an individual is not charged for treatment.

Under the Illinois Crime Victims Compensation Act ("CVCA"), victims of violent crimes who qualify can be reimbursed for out-of-pocket medical expenses, loss of earnings, psychological counseling and loss of support income due to the crime.

Sexually transmitted infections ("STIs") such as chlamydia, gonorrhea, syphilis, herpes, and HIV can be transmitted during an act of Sexual Violence. An individual may not learn of an STI until several weeks or months after it has been transmitted.

If an individual is concerned about having an STI, the individual should discuss this concern with the treating doctor or nurse. Certain medical professionals can give preventive medicine (e.g., antibiotics, and HIV post-exposure prophylaxis) at the time of the exam. The individual should receive information on any medication given. An individual should make sure to obtain the name, dosage, purpose, and possible side effects of the drug. The individual should get the actual medicine, not just a prescription.

Even if an individual receives preventive treatment, it is important to be tested for STIs two (2) weeks after Sexual Violence, and again in six (6) weeks. The individual should repeat HIV testing in three (3) to six (6) months. The College Student Health Center (for students) and the CareATC Clinic (for eligible employees) can test for most STIs and provide referrals for free and low-cost STI and HIV testing.

Pregnancy Testing
For individuals able to give birth, there is a chance that pregnancy could result from Sexual Violence. A test for pregnancy is recommended for all such individuals of childbearing age who are involved in Sexual Violence involving penetration.

An individual may request a pregnancy test at the time of the exam. However, a test immediately after Sexual Violence will not show if a person is pregnant from the incident. Follow-up testing is the most reliable way to determine whether an individual is pregnant.

Having a late period does not necessarily mean someone is pregnant. Stress, tension and worry can cause a late period; this happens to many individuals who endure Sexual Violence. Pregnancy testing is available at the Student Health Center (for students) and the CareATC Clinic (for eligible employees).

SECTION V. THE COLLEGE’S TITLE IX COORDINATOR.
Columbia’s Title IX Coordinator (the “Coordinator”) is Janely Torres. Mrs. Torres oversees this Policy and is tasked with identifying and addressing any patterns or systematic problems revealed by Sexual Misconduct reports. She is responsible for ensuring, through regular review, that the College’s Grievance Procedures remain prompt, equitable, and effective. Mrs. Torres also leads related training, and prevention and education efforts. Mrs. Torres is available to meet with students, faculty, and staff as needed to discuss particular issues and/or concerns.

Individuals with inquiries regarding this Policy should

SECTION VI. RETALIATION PROHIBITED.
It is a violation of this Policy to retaliate in any way against an individual who has reported Sexual Harassment or otherwise assisted in the Grievance Procedures. Columbia will promptly investigate any allegation of retaliation and pursue disciplinary action as needed.

SECTION VII. FALSE REPORTS.
Knowingly making false allegations of Sexual Harassment or providing evidence with the knowledge that it is false is a violation of this Policy and may subject a person to disciplinary action up to and including termination or expulsion.

SECTION VIII. AMNESTY UNDER COLLEGE POLICY
Restricting the Use of Drugs or Alcohol. To encourage reporting, the College will consider any use of alcohol or drugs by the Complainant or witnesses at or near the time of the alleged Sexual Harassment to determine consent or memory only under this Policy and this behavior will not serve as the foundation for discipline or independent proceedings under another College policy. However, the College may, at its discretion, require students who engaged in such behavior to participate in education programs or recommend a meeting with a college counselor or other support persons.

SECTION IX. MULTIPLE OPTIONS FOR REPORTING AND CONFIDENTIALLY DISCLOSING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

A. Overview. The College encourages Complainants to report the offending behavior to individuals who can provide the desired level of support and assistance. Different Columbia employees have different rights and obligations regarding information sharing. The College asks Complainants to talk to an individual identified in one more of the below groups. Please note that, of the below on campus resources, only the Office of Safety & Security can provide around-the-clock assistance.

1. Responsible Employees: Complainants who would like to initiate an investigation under the Grievance Procedures should report to a Responsible Employee. A Responsible Employee is a College employee who has the duty to report incidents of Sexual Harassment to the Coordinator. Responsible Employees are required to report all the details of an alleged incident (including the identities of the Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses, if known, and pertinent facts such as date, time, and location) to the Coordinator. A report to a Responsible Employee serves as a formal complaint to the College of alleged Sexual Harassment (“Complaint”) and obligates the College to investigate the incident and to take appropriate steps to address the situation.

   Responsible Employees include, but are not limited to:
   - The Coordinator;
   - Employees with “Dean,” “Associate Dean,” “Assistant Dean,” “Chairperson,” “Associate Chairperson,” “Director,” “Coordinator,” “Provost,” “Associate Provost,” “Assistant Provost,” “Chief of Staff,” “Vice President,” “Assistant Vice President,” “Associate Vice President,” or “President” in their titles;
   - All part-time and full-time faculty members;

2Employees in the Global Education Office are not Responsible Employees under this Policy when assisting international students, undocumented students, or students for whom English is not their first language, with language interpretation, travel-related, or visa issues. Similarly, employees in the Office of Human Resources or the Services for Students with Disabilities Office (SSD) (including the Dean of Students to whom SSD staff report) are not Responsible Employees when providing guidance or other support concerning disability issues. See sections XIV(A)(4) and XIV(A)(5) for the services these offices provide.
• Resident Advisors (“RAs”);
• All employees in the Office of Human Resources and the Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs (including the Dean of Students’ Office and the Residence Life staff), excluding those employees who are Confidential Resources or non-professional Counselors & Advocates.
• All employees in the Office of Safety & Security (including its independent contractor security personnel). The Associate Vice President for the Office of Safety & Security is Ronald Sodini (rsodini@uic.edu). For emergencies, please call the 24-hour emergency command center at (312) 369-1111. The non-emergency command center phone number is (312) 369-3220.

When a Complainant or witness tells a Responsible Employee about an incident of Sexual Harassment, the College will promptly take steps to investigate what has happened and to resolve the matter efficiently and equitably. Notice to Responsible Employees constitutes notice to the College. To the extent possible, the College will not share information reported to a Responsible Employee with individuals other than those handling the applicable report pursuant to this Policy. For example, when permissible under the law, a Responsible Employee will not share information with law enforcement without the Complainant’s consent or unless the Complainant has also reported the incident to such body.

To the extent feasible, before a Complainant reveals any information to a Responsible Employee, the Responsible Employee shall endeavor to ensure that the Complainant understands the Responsible Employee’s reporting obligations. A Responsible Employee shall neither encourage the Complainant to report formally, if the Complainant is not ready to do so, nor pressure the Complainant to request assistance from a different resource. If the Complainant communicates that the Complainant does not want to initiate a formal investigation, the Responsible Employee shall then direct the individual to a Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate or Confidential Employee. If the Complainant communicates that the Complainant wants to issue a Complaint with the Responsible Employee but has specific concerns regarding the information sharing rules of a formal investigation (explained in Section XI), the Responsible Employee shall document any concerns and explain that, while the College will consider all confidentiality requests, it may not be able to avoid certain disclosures during an investigation. The Responsible Employee shall forward any confidentiality requests to the Coordinator along with formal notice of the Complaint.

2. Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates
Complainants who may not be ready to report formally, but would still like information and support, may contact a Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate at the College. Generally, these employees are only required to report to the Coordinator that an incident occurred and do not have to reveal any personally identifying information. Disclosures to these employees, standing alone, will not initiate a College investigation into an incident against the Complainant’s wishes.

Kari Sommers, the Assistant Dean of Student Life, is a Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate at the College. Individuals who work or volunteer in Ms. Sommers’ office, including front desk staff and students, can generally also talk to a Complainant without having to reveal any personally identifying information about an incident to the Coordinator. Ms. Sommers and her respective staff should report only the nature, date, time, and general location of an incident to the Coordinator. This limited report – which should not include any information that would directly or indirectly identify the Complainant – helps keep the Coordinator informed of the general extent and nature of Sexual Harassment on and off campus. Ms. Sommers will consult with the Complainant before reporting to the Coordinator to ensure that the report omits any personally-revealing details.

3. Confidential Resources: Complainants who desire strictly confidential support and assistance, to the extent permitted by law, may contact a Confidential Resource. Under some circumstances, these employees are required to maintain near complete confidentiality. Speaking with a Confidential Resource does not constitute reporting to the College and, without more, will not trigger a formal investigation. Under certain circumstances, the law and applicable professional codes require the below-listed individuals and resources to keep the details of Sexual Harassment in a confidential manner and to refrain from disclosing such information to third parties without the reporting party’s consent. In particular, professional, licensed counselors and pastoral counselors who provide mental-health counseling to members of the school community (and including those who act in that role under the supervision of a licensed counselor) are not required to report any information about an incident to the Coordinator without a Complainant’s permission. The following are Confidential Resources on-campus. Please check the below websites or contact these Confidential Resources directly for more information, including updated hours and the best ways to receive assistance.

B. Reminders For Reporting To Confidential Employees Or Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates. A Complainant who speaks to a Confidential Resource or a Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate should understand that, if the Complainant elects not to file a formal report with a Responsible Employee, the College may be limited in its efforts to investigate or to pursue disciplinary action against the alleged Respondent. Notwithstanding the above, these individuals can assist the Complainant in receiving other necessary protection and support, such as advocacy, academic support or accommodations, disability, health or mental health services, and changes to living, working or courses schedules. A Complainant who at first speaks with a Confidential Resource or a Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate may later decide to file a Complaint with the College or to report the incident to local law enforcement. A Confidential Resource or Non-Professional Counselor & Advocate shall provide the Complainant with assistance in formally reporting if the Complainant selects this route. It’s important to remember that while Confidential Resources and Non-Professional Counselors and Advocates will not share personally-identifying information with the Coordinator under this Policy, these employees may have reporting or other disclosure obligations in some circumstances under local, state, and/or federal law.

C. The Role of Witnesses. Witnesses to Sexual Harassment, including bystanders, shall report the details of the offending behavior to a Responsible Employee so that the College may properly intervene, investigate, and – where necessary – impose interim and/or permanent measures to protect the Complainant. The College understands that witnesses to Sexual Harassment may need support resources as well. Accordingly, such witnesses may seek confidential support from a Confidential Resource or a Nonprofessional Counselor & Advocate regarding how to address any effects from observing or otherwise becoming aware of such behavior. As explained previously, any retaliation against an individual who has reported Sexual Harassment is a violation of this Policy.

D. On-Campus Resources For Respondents.
Respondents may also seek confidential support and assistance from the Confidential Resources listed in section IX(A)(3) above. The Coordinator and Confidential Resources shall help the Respondent in obtaining other on-campus support and assistance as requested.

SECTION X. OFF-CAMPUS RESOURCES FOR ASSISTANCE & SUPPORT.
The College encourages all Complainants to report the offending behavior to an employee or employee within one of three categories articulated in Section VII. Informing a College employee of such misconduct provides the College with an opportunity to promptly take remedial action and to investigate – if desired – so that the Complainant may have an academic experience free of any discrimination. The College can only address a specific situation if it is aware of it. That said, the College understands that some individuals may feel more comfortable speaking with an off-campus resource in lieu of or in addition to a College employee. The below Chicagoland organizations may offer support, assistance, and information to Complainants, witnesses, and others affected by Sexual Harassment. Some of these organizations may maintain confidentiality and not share information with the College or others unless the Complainant requests the disclosure and signs a consent or waiver form. Some of these groups may have reporting or other obligations under local, state, and/or federal law. One can contact the below directly for more information regarding offered services and applicable confidentiality policies.

These individuals are also available to consult with Respondents to assist with arranging off-campus support.

SECTION XI. THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF THE COLLEGE’S INVESTIGATION & GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES.
Complaints of Sexual Harassment to Responsible Employees at the College will be treated responsibly and in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and to take corrective action. Subject to federal and state privacy and/or disclosure laws, the College shall not share information related to a Complaint with individuals other than the parties involved or those with responsibilities under this Policy. In the event the College must disclose information to individuals other than those above, it shall provide the parties with proper notice and reasons for such disclosure.

The Coordinator reviews all requests for confidentiality beyond those disclosure or information-sharing rules articulated in this section XI, IX, XIV, or elsewhere in this Policy. The Coordinator shall make every effort to respect these requests and should examine such requests in the context of the College’s responsibility to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for the Complainant and all students and employees. Among other factors, the College may weigh these additional confidentiality requests (including a Complainant’s stated preference that the College not investigate or pursue discipline at all) in the context of the following:

- The increased risk that the alleged Respondent will commit additional acts of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence, or other violence, such as:
  - Whether there have been other Sexual Harassment Complaints about the same Respondent
  - Whether the Respondent has a history of arrests or records from a prior school indicating a history of violence
  - Whether the Respondent threatened further Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence, or other violence against the Complainant or others
  - Whether the Sexual Harassment was committed by multiple Respondents
  - Whether the Sexual Harassment was perpetrated with a weapon
  - Whether the Complainant is a minor
  - Whether the College possesses other means to obtain relevant evidence of the Sexual Harassment (e.g. security cameras)
  - Whether the Complainant’s report reveals a pattern of perpetration at a given location or by a particular group

The presence of one or more of these factors could lead the College to investigate and, if appropriate, pursue disciplinary action, without extra confidentiality rules. If none of these factors is present, the College may respect the Complainant’s request for additional confidentiality.

Prior to starting an investigation, the College will inform the Complainant if, and to the extent, it cannot honor a request for additional confidentiality. In all cases, the College’s prohibition against retaliation, including steps to prevent retaliation and strong responsive actions if it occurs, shall apply. As articulated elsewhere in this Policy, the College shall tailor its interim remedial measures to the particular circumstances of each Complaint. For example, where the College cannot honor a Complainant’s request for extra confidentiality, it shall assist the Complainant in accessing other support (i.e. academic, counseling, disability, health, or mental services), provide appropriate security (i.e. issuing a non-contact order, helping arrange a change of living, academic, or working conditions), ensure that the Complainant is aware of the Complainant’s right to file with local law enforcement, and provide assistance in such reporting if necessary.

The College’s ability to fully respond to an incident, may be limited if a Complainant insists that the Complainant’s name or other identifying information not be disclosed to the Respondent or that the College not initiate a formal investigation or pursue disciplinary action against the Respondent. Under such circumstances, while the College may implement some interim remedial measures, it will necessarily be unable to explore those potential resolutions that involve the Respondent (i.e. no-contact orders or a change in the Respondent’s academic or employment arrangement). In the event the College does not accept a Complainant’s request that the College not disclose the Complainant’s name, the College will notify the Complainant before making such disclosure to the Respondent. If the College proceeds with an investigation despite the Complainant’s objection, the College shall – upon the Complainant’s request – inform the Respondent that the College, not the Complainant, decided to move forward. The College shall never require a Complainant to participate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Complainants should be aware of a Respondent’s rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”) to request to review information about the Sexual Harassment allegation if the information directly relates to the Respondent and the information is maintained by the College as an education record.

SECTION XII. NOTICE & THE COLLEGE’S OBLIGATION TO INVESTIGATE.

Although Columbia encourages Complainants to promptly disclose inappropriate behavior to the College, the College may investigate and initiate informal or formal proceedings under this Policy in the absence of a Complaint from the Complainant. Notwithstanding the above, public awareness events such as, “Take Back The Night,” the Clothesline Project, candlelight vigils, protests, or survivor speak-out events are not considered notice to the College of Sexual Harassment for purposes of triggering its obligation to investigate any particular incident(s). Such events may, however, inform the need for campus-wide education and prevention efforts, and the College will provide information about students’ rights at these events.
SECTION XIII. WHAT CONSTITUTES SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

A. Sexual Harassment. Sexual harassment is any Unwelcome Conduct [defined in XIII(C)] of a sexual nature or that based on gender identity – perceived or actual – or gender stereotypes (“Gender”). It can occur by or between individuals of any – including the same – sex or gender. Sexual Harassment can also take place between individuals who have been or are currently in an intimate relationship, marriage, or other relationship of a romantic, social, or familial nature with each other.

Examples of behavior that may constitute Sexual Harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Sexual Violence (defined below);
- Dating Violence [as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291 (a)(10)];
- Domestic Violence [as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291 (a)(8)];
- Stalking [as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)];
- Sexual Exploitation (defined below);
- Requests or subtle pressure, overt or implied, for sexual favors;
- Abusive or threatening behavior of a sexual nature or based on Gender directed at a person;
- Remarks, jokes, comments, or observations of a sexual nature or based on Gender that demean or offend individuals;
- Gestures or other nonverbal behavior of a sexual nature or based on Gender that demean or offend individuals; and
- Display or distribution of offensive materials of a sexual nature or based on Gender.

Sexual Violence. Sexual Violence means physical sexual acts attempted or perpetrated against a person’s will or when a person is incapable of giving Consent (e.g. due to a person’s age or use of drugs or alcohol, or because an intellectual or other disability prevents the individual from having the capacity to give Consent) [as defined in XIII(F)]. A number of different acts fall into the category of Sexual Violence, including – without limitation – Sexual Abuse as defined in the Illinois Criminal Code, and Rape and Fondling as defined in the Uniform Crime Reporting Program.

- “Sexual Abuse” means, “any contact, however slight, between the sex organ or anus of the victim or the accused and an object or body part, including but not limited to, the sex organ, mouth, or anus of the victim or the accused, or any intrusion, however slight, of any part of the body of the victim or the accused or of any animal or object into the sex organ or anus of the victim or the accused, including, but not limited to, cunnilingus, fellatio, or anal penetration. Evidence of emission of semen is not required to prove sexual abuse.”
- “Rape” means, “the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.”
- “Fondling” means “the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.”

Dating Violence. Dating Violence means violence committed by a person:

1. who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
2. where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
   a. The length of the relationship.
   b. The type of relationship.
   c. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence. Domestic Violence includes felony

4 This section is based, in part, on 29 CFR 1604.11.
5 Such behavior may not constitute Sexual Harassment when engaged in for a valid academic purpose.
6 This Policy prohibits Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, and Stalking as such behavior is defined according to the abovereferenced statutory provisions. The definitions provided below in this section for these terms are for convenience only and are subject to changes to the applicable laws.
7 This definition is adopted from the Illinois Criminal Code (720 ILCS 5/11-9.1B).
8 This definition is adopted from the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Program.
9 This definition is adopted from the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Program.
or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction.

Stalking. Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

1. fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
2. suffer substantial emotional distress.

Sexual Exploitation. Sexual Exploitation occurs when an individual takes non-physical, nonconsensual, sexual advantage of another for sexual gratification, financial gain, or other benefit for himself or a third party or parties. Examples of sexual exploitation include but are not limited to the following: nonconsensual recording or observation of individuals engaging in sexual acts or undressing, knowingly sharing these recordings without the consent of the parties, streaming of pornography to or in the presence of others without consent, prostitution, nonconsensual exposure of one’s genitals to another, bullying when based on sex, inducing incapacitation in another for the purpose of engaging in any behavior prohibited by the Policy, and knowingly transmitting STIs.

B. Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is Sexual Harassment [defined in section XIII(A)] where:

1. Submission to such harassment is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education, or participation in other College activities; or
2. Submission to or rejection of such harassment by an individual is used as the basis for a decision affecting that person’s employment, education, or participation in other College activities; or
3. Such harassment creates a hostile environment [defined in XIII(D)].

C. Consent and Unwelcome Conduct. Any behavior where all parties involved have not provided Consent constitutes Unwelcome Conduct and is Non-Consensual. Consent is clear, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement between participants to engage in specific sexual activity. Consent is active, not passive, and is given by clear actions or words. Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, or lack of active resistance alone. A current or previous dating or sexual relationship is not sufficient to constitute Consent, and Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply Consent to other forms of sexual activity. An individual’s decision to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. An individual’s manner of dress does not constitute consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity may be withdrawn by an individual at any time. Being intoxicated or otherwise impaired due to drugs and/or alcohol does not diminish one’s responsibility to obtain Consent.

Incacity: In some situations, the College may determine an individual to be incapable of giving Consent to sexual activity due to the circumstances, his or her age, or the behavior of another. Such situations may include, but are not limited to: incompetence, impairment from alcohol and/or drugs, fear, unconsciousness, intimidation, coercion, confinement, isolation, or mental or physical impairment. Despite anything to the contrary, where a person is incapable of giving Consent, conduct of a sexual nature or gender is a violation of this Policy, provided that the Respondent knew or reasonably should have known of the person’s incapacity.

D. Sexual Harassment That Creates A Hostile Environment. Sexual Harassment creates a hostile environment if, considering the totality of the circumstances, the conduct is sufficiently serious that it interferes with or limits an individual’s ability to... participate in or benefit from the school's programs, employment, or other activities. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to prove a hostile environment, particularly if the harassment is physical. Indeed, a single or isolated incident of Sexual Harassment may create a hostile environment if the incident is sufficiently severe. For instance, a single incident of rape is sufficiently severe to create a hostile environment. The College evaluates the conduct from both a subjective and objective perspective. Among other factors, the College considers the following when determining whether alleged Sexual Harassment creates a hostile environment:

- The degree to which the conduct affected one or more students' education or individuals' employment;
- The type, frequency, and duration of the conduct;
- The identity of and relationship between the alleged harasser and the subject or subjects of the harassment;
- The number of individuals involved;
- The age and sex of the alleged harasser and the subject or subjects of the harassment;
- The location of the incidents and context in which they occurred;
- Other incidents at the College; and
- Incidents of gender-based, but nonsexual harassment.

E. Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment. Making the submission or rejection to harassment a term or condition of an individual's employment, education, or activity participation, or the basis of a decision affecting such activities, as articulated in XIII(B)(1) and XIII(B)(2) above, constitutes Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment and is prohibited Sexual Misconduct under this Policy. Examples of Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Asking for or requiring sexual favors in exchange for a passing grade in a class, a promotion, or pay raise; and
- Modifying one's employment or academic arrangements due to the termination of a consensual relationship or when an individual refuses sexual advances, or invitations for a date.

SECTION XIV. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

A. Generally Applicable Information

1. Timeline For Investigation, Adjudication, and Appeals. The College designed its grievance procedures to investigate a matter, hold a hearing (if need be), and to render a determination within 60 calendar days upon notice of an incident of Sexual Misconduct and then to provide an opportunity for appeal. However, due to the College's academic calendar and other limitations, some investigations may take longer than the aforementioned period. Complaints submitted towards the end of a semester or during a break might take longer to resolve. The timeframes expressed in this policy are guidelines rather than inflexible requirements. Columbia will give notice to both parties when it needs to modify any of its procedures. Such notice shall include the reason for the timeline or procedural modification. Either party may request a deadline extension for good cause, and the College will grant or reject such requests in its sole discretion.

2. Conflicts. The Coordinator shall select the investigator, hearing panelists, and appeals officer for each investigation from a pool of College employees specifically trained to serve in those roles. If any administrator, including the Coordinator, tasked with a responsibility under this Policy is the Respondent or Complainant, or the College determines in its sole discretion that any administrator has a material and actual conflict of interest due to a preexisting relationship with any of the aforementioned individuals or due to material bias, the College will appoint a replacement. In the event the Complainant or Respondent believes that the Coordinator is conflicted, the Complainant or Respondent, as appropriate, should inform the Associate Vice President of Human Resources as soon as reasonably feasible after initiating or receiving notice of the Complaint – no later than before the Coordinator renders a threshold determination regarding whether the Complaint is Actionable, as described below in Section XIV(C)(1). The Respondent or Complainant shall inform the Coordinator of any perceived conflicts with the investigator, hearing panelists, or appeals officer within three (3) days after receiving notice of such assignments.

3. Notices. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all notices or communications due under this Policy shall be in writing and mailed or emailed to the respective addresses set forth in this Policy or provided in person to the required individual or over the phone directly to the required individual. Neither leaving a message with an individual other than the required administrator nor recording a voicemail shall constitute notice. Written notice shall be deemed given on the date of its receipt by the College.

4. Individuals with Disabilities. Columbia will endeavor to provide the appropriate accommodations to ensure that individuals with disabilities may participate fully in the steps outlined in these grievance procedures.

Individuals with disabilities who need assistance in reporting misconduct under this Policy may contact the below offices:

- Services for Students with Disabilities (For Students) 312.369.8296
- Office of Human Resources (For Faculty & Staff) 312.369.7468

5. International Students & Undocumented Students. This Policy protects all Columbia students regardless of national origin, immigration status, or citizenship status. Individuals for whom English is not their first language may contact Clare R. Lake for assistance in reporting. Please contact Mr. Lake for information about the non-immigrant status, and possible visa issues relating to Sexual Misconduct (e.g., the requirement to maintain a fulltime course load).

Clare R. Lake

Director, International Student and Scholar Services Global Education
618 S. Michigan Ave., 4th Floor
312-369-7246

6. Request To Withdraw A Complaint. Under this Policy, the College may be obligated to continue to investigate an allegation of Sexual Misconduct even when the Complainant requests that the College cease its investigation. However, in some cases, there are steps that Columbia can take to limit the effects of the alleged Sexual Misconduct and to prevent its recurrence without initiating formal action against the Respondent or revealing the identity of the Complainant. Examples include, but are not limited to, providing supervision or security at locations or activities where the misconduct occurred; providing training and education materials for students and employees; changing and publicizing the College’s policies on sexual violence; and conducting climate surveys regarding Sexual Misconduct.

7. Interim Measures. Upon Notice of a Complaint, the Coordinator (or Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates or Confidential Resources if the Complainant does not report to the Coordinator or a Responsible Employee) shall take appropriate, reasonably available interim measures –in consultation with the Complainant or at the Complainant’s request – to limit retaliation against the Complainant, to prevent renewed conflict during the course of the investigation, and to otherwise protect the Complainant and the Community. The College shall take such action even where the Complainant does not report the misconduct to local law enforcement or to campus security. These temporary remedial actions may include, but are not limited to:

- On-campus counseling;
- Course-related adjustments (such as extensions of deadlines, changes in course schedules, tutoring, or alternative course completion options) with the consultation of appropriate faculty members;
- Extracurricular accommodations;
- Modifications of work or class schedules;
- Assisting with the party’s transportation to and from classes or work (to the extent practicable on Columbia’s campus);
- Mutual, temporary restrictions on contact between the parties (such as a no-contact order) and honoring an order of protection or no-contact order entered by a state, civil, or criminal court;
- Temporary changes in work, dining, or housing arrangements (if a party is a student and lives in Residence Life); and
- Leaves of absence (consistent with applicable law and College policies and agreements).

The Coordinator shall also offer and make available appropriate interim measures to the Respondent. During the investigation, the Coordinator shall periodically access the efficacy of these steps and provide modifications as needed. The College shall endeavor to take such interim steps in a manner that preserves confidentiality to the extent desired and to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide such remedial measures. Non-Professional Counselors & Advocates and, to a greater extent, Confidential Resources may be limited in the interim measures that they can provide.
In addition to party-specific steps, the College may also consider broad remedial action to protect the community, including but not limited to: increased monitoring, supervision or security at certain locations, increasing education and prevention efforts, conducting climate assessments, and revisiting its policies and practices.

8. Investigation Delays Due To Law Enforcement Requests. Upon request by law enforcement, the College may elect to delay its investigation until after the police or other governmental investigatory body has completed the first stages of its fact-gathering. During such a delay, the College will continue to implement interim remedial measures and to communicate with the Complainant and Respondent regarding their rights under this Policy. When law enforcement has completed this initial step, the College will promptly resume its own investigation.

9. Multiple Respondents and/or Similar Complaints. Where the Complainant alleges misconduct against multiple individuals, and the allegations contain a common set of facts, the Coordinator shall decide, in the Coordinator’s sole discretion, whether to hold separate or combined investigations. Where multiple Complainants make complaints involving a common set of facts against the same Respondent or Respondents, the Coordinator may elect to process the complaints individually or consolidate the complaints into one or multiple investigations.

10. Support Person. Each party may bring one individual for support at any meeting, proceeding, or hearing under this Policy. Such individual may be, but is not required to be, an attorney. Except for sitting next to and quietly conferring with the party, and requesting a recess, this person shall not participate in any meeting or Hearing; this means that each party must personally respond to any questions posed by the Coordinator, Investigator, or the Hearing Panel. The Coordinator, in the Coordinator’s sole discretion, may remove a support person who is not abiding by these rules or is creating a disruption.

11. Court Orders. The College shall abide by any and all orders of protection, no-contact orders, restraining orders, or similarly lawful orders issued by a court of appropriate jurisdiction and authority.

12. Training. All College employees whose duties include resolution of complaints under this Policy shall receive a minimum of eight (8) to ten (10) hours of annual training on issues related to sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking and their responsibilities under this Policy in addition to other College training required by federal, state, or local law.

B. Reporting Sexual Misconduct.

1. Contacting a Responsible Employee. As explained in Section IX, Complainants have three options for assistance and support within the College. However, individuals who would like to initiate these Grievance Procedures shall notify a Responsible Employee. Notice to Responsible Employees constitutes notice to the College and serves as a formal complaint under the Grievance Procedures. Upon receipt of a complaint, a Responsible Employee shall promptly provide all relevant information regarding the alleged misconduct (including, if known, the name of the Respondent, the name of the student alleging the misconduct, the name of other students involved, and pertinent facts such as date, time, and location) to the Coordinator. As explained previously, witnesses to Sexual Misconduct shall formally report to a Responsible Employee and may also seek confidential support. A witness report may initiate these Grievance Procedures.

2. How To Report to a Responsible Employee. An individual may submit a formal complaint to a Responsible Employee in writing, over the phone, or in person. A complaint should be as specific as possible, providing the name of the Complainant; the name of the Respondent; a chronology of the relevant events, detailing dates, places, and times; a description of the offending behavior; and the names of any witnesses to the behavior or persons with knowledge of the behavior. In the absence of a written complaint, the Responsible Employee receiving an individual’s testimony shall thoroughly document all relevant facts and circumstances and pass this document on with notice of the claim to the Coordinator.

Individuals should report as much information as they can initially but know that they may later add to or otherwise modify a complaint.

3. Anonymous Reporting. Individuals may make anonymous complaints by completing and submitting the online form available at www.colum.ethicspoint.com. However, depending on the extent of information available about the incident, the College’s ability to respond to such complaints may be limited.

4. When To Report. Individuals may report Sexual Misconduct to the College at any time. However, the College encourages witnesses and Complainants – who elect to report – to report offending conduct under this Policy to the College as expeditiously as possible in order to provide the College with the best opportunity to properly address the behavior and to provide a remedy. The College’s investigatory and remedial options may be limited when it receives a complaint a significant period of time after the occurrence of the alleged misconduct.

5. What To Expect When Reporting. The College realizes that it may be especially difficult for a Complainant or witness to come forward. Accordingly, to the extent practicable, the College’s Responsible Employees shall endeavor to provide a supportive environment where Complainants and witnesses are comfortable reporting alleged misconduct. Before a Complainant reveals information that the Complainant may wish to keep as confidential, a Responsible Employee should make reasonable efforts to ensure that the Complainant understands: (1) the employee’s obligation to report the names of the Respondent and Complainant involved in the alleged Sexual Misconduct, as well as relevant facts regarding the alleged incident (including the date, time, and location), to the Coordinator, (2) the Complainant’s option to request that the College maintain the Complainant’s confidentiality or not pursue a formal investigation, which the Coordinator will consider, and (3) the Complainant’s ability to share the information confidentially with other resources. For purposes of clarification, Responsible Employees shall also comply with any other applicable confidentiality requirements, as articulated in Section IX and XI.

6. Encouragement of Dual Reporting With Local Law Enforcement. The College encourages, but does not require, those Complainants who elect to formally report to the College to also notify local law enforcement. Under some circumstances, Sexual Misconduct may violate both college policy and criminal law. The College may proceed with an internal investigation under this policy simultaneously with a criminal investigation. While criminal investigations may facilitate fact-finding, the outcome of a criminal proceeding may not be indicative of whether alleged misconduct violates this policy. The Coordinator, Non-professional Counselors & Advocates, and Confidential Resources, including Confidential Advisors, are available to assist Complainants with reporting to local law enforcement. The Chicago Police Department’s 1st District central station is located at 1718 South State Street, Chicago, IL 60616. The 1st District is available by email at CAPS001District@chicagopolice.org and by phone at (312) 745-4290.

C. Investigating Sexual Misconduct

1. Initial Stage. Upon receipt of notice of alleged Sexual Misconduct by a witness or Complainant or upon observing such behavior, a Responsible Employee – excluding a Confidential Resource or Non-professional Counselor & Advocate – shall promptly provide all relevant information concerning the alleged misconduct to the Coordinator. If the reporting party is someone other than the Complainant, the Coordinator shall endeavor to promptly contact the Complainant – if the Complainant’s identity is known – and inform the Complainant of the Complainant’s rights under this Policy, including but not limited to the right to participate in the investigation, to request confidentiality, and to ask the College not to pursue the Complaint. The Coordinator shall provide the Complainant with a concise synopsis written in plain English of the Complainant’s rights and options under this Policy (within 12 hours after receiving an electronic report of Sexual Misconduct). The Complainant may make a request for confidentiality or that the College not pursue the misconduct at any time. The Coordinator shall rule on all such requests in a prompt manner consistent with sections IX and XI.

As soon as practicable after a Complainant makes a Complaint, the Coordinator shall determine whether the Complaint alleges facts that, if true, constitute an actual violation of this policy (is “Actionable”). If the Complaint is Actionable, the Coordinator shall assign this matter to a neutral investigator (“Investigator”) and serve the Complainant and Respondent with written notification that an Actionable claim has been filed, a description of the type of Sexual Misconduct alleged (the “Charge”), and the Investigator’s name. The Coordinator will dismiss factually insufficient complaints with a notice to both parties, including the type of Sexual Misconduct alleged and the reason(s) why the allegation is not Actionable. If an individual other than the Complainant files the report, the Complainant does not issue a Complaint or otherwise does not want the College to pursue this matter, and the College elects to investigate nonetheless, the Coordinator shall assign this matter to an Investigator and serve the Complainant and the Respondent with the Charge and the Investigator’s name. In these scenarios, the College shall serve as the Complainant, the Coordinator shall endeavor to include the Complainant in the process where appropriate, and follow the below steps to the extent practicable.
2. Preliminary Meeting & Informal Resolution Option. After issuing a Charge, the Coordinator shall meet separately with the Complainant and the Respondent to apprise both parties of their rights under this Policy and to address questions related to these Grievance Procedures. The Coordinator shall also provide both parties with notice of the types of information that likely will be disclosed during the investigation, the recipients of this information, and the reasons for any disclosures. During this meeting, either party may request that the College devise a plan to resolve this matter informally without a full investigation and adjudication.

The College will initiate informal measures (which may, without limitation, include mediation and restorative justice) only when: (A) one party requests this approach in writing, (B) the other party consents in writing, and (C) the Coordinator determines, in the Coordinator’s sole discretion, that the College has adequate information regarding the scope of the alleged misconduct and that an informal resolution will enable the College to promptly and equitably address the Complaint. The informal resolution process is completely voluntary.

The Coordinator may postpone deciding the suitability of the informal approach until the below fact gathering is complete. During the pendency of the informal resolution process, the investigation and adjudication processes that would otherwise occur are stayed and all related deadlines are suspended. The Coordinator or any party (upon notice to the Coordinator) may end the informal process at any time, provided the informal resolution process shall not exceed twenty-one (21) days. Termination of this process will reconvene the formal investigation and hearing procedures. Agreed-upon resolutions reached through the informal resolution process may include – without limitation – educational programs or training, making permanent an interim measure or measures listed in section XIV(A) (7), or disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension and expulsion).

3. Fact Gathering and Procedural Equality. Unless the parties are presently proceeding with an informal approach, the assigned Investigator will broadly examine all relevant facts and circumstances of a claim. The Investigator will meet with the parties, identify and interview witnesses, and visit relevant locations. As soon as practicable after beginning an investigation, the Investigator shall meet with each party individually to schedule a timeframe for submitting relevant evidence and identifying witnesses. Submission deadlines and other restrictions on the presentation of evidence shall apply equally to both parties. Each party will be given a copy of the opposing party’s submissions and a standard amount of time to issue a response. The Investigator will endeavor to never hold a meeting with one party without subsequently holding a substantially similar meeting with the other party. During the fact gathering stage, the Coordinator shall provide the Complainant and Respondent with periodic updates of the status of the investigation.

4. The Investigation Report. After inquiry into the alleged misconduct, the Investigator shall submit a report of the Investigator’s findings (the “Investigation Report”) to the Coordinator. The Investigation Report should include a summary of the issues presented and a detailed explanation of factual findings. The Investigator shall neither make any credibility assessments nor assign responsibility.

5. The Investigation Report Review & Merit Determination. The Coordinator will review the Investigation Report and determine whether a reasonable Hearing Panel could conclude that, by a preponderance of the evidence (a “more likely than not” standard), the Respondent committed the alleged Sexual Misconduct. If the evidence is inadequate to sustain such a finding, the Coordinator will dismiss the charge with written notice to both parties. If the Coordinator determines that the Hearing Panel could reasonably find a violation of this Policy under that evidentiary standard, the Coordinator shall provide a “Notice of Hearing” letter to both parties with the determination and a synopsis of the evidentiary support.

6. Admission. Within five (5) days of receiving the Notice of Hearing letter, the Respondent may notify the Coordinator that the Respondent accepts responsibility for the alleged misconduct or rejects the finding. If the Respondent accepts responsibility, the Coordinator will, in consultation with the Dean of Students [as explained in section XIV(D)(7)], impose sanctions and/or remedies and provide notice as required under XIV(D)(8). The Respondent may appeal the sanctions under section XIV(E)(2).
D. The Hearing.

1. When Convened. If the Coordinator issues a Notice of Hearing and the Respondent rejects the Charge, the Coordinator shall arrange for a hearing to conclude whether the Respondent is responsible for the alleged Sexual Misconduct. Within five days after issuance of the Notice of Hearing Letter, the Coordinator will inform the parties of the campus location, date, and time of the Hearing, and the Hearing Panel's composition. Unless the parties agree to an expedited schedule, the Coordinator shall provide at least fifteen (15) days’ notice before the hearing date. A party shall promptly inform the Coordinator of any conflict on the scheduled date; the Coordinator may propose an alternative hearing date but is not obligated to do so.

2. Hearing Panel Composition. The Hearing Panel consists of a lead Hearing officer (the “Lead”) and two Hearing officers. The Lead and each of the Hearing Officers shall be College employees or other individuals trained to perform these roles.

3. Pre-Hearing Review of Documents. Subject to restrictions imposed by federal and state privacy laws, each party shall be able to review all investigation materials at least ten (10) days before the Hearing. The investigation materials may include but are not limited to: the Investigation Report, witness statements, and other documentation. The Coordinator, in the Coordinator’s sole discretion, may redact portions of this material that the Coordinator believes are unduly prejudicial (compared to its probative value), immaterial, irrelevant, or are the Investigator’s opinion.

4. Witnesses. The Hearing Panel will determine which witnesses to examine during the Hearing. A Party may request that the Panel question a particular individual by providing the following information regarding that individual to the Lead at least five (5) days before the Hearing: (a) name, (b) a synopsis of what that individual witnessed or the circumstance to which that person could speak, and (c) the witness’ usefulness at the Hearing.

5. General Hearing Rules.
   - The Panel shall endeavor to conduct the Hearing in a manner that does not inflict trauma on either party.
   - Only the hearing officers may ask questions of either party or a party’s witnesses.
   - To the extent feasible, the Lead will give both parties substantially similar access to all hearing documents and opportunities to present evidence.
   - Federal or state rules of evidence do not apply; the Lead, in the Lead’s sole discretion, shall rule on the admissibility of all evidence and testimony. The Lead shall consider the relevance and possible prejudicial effect of proffered material.
   - A party may not directly question the other party or any witness. However, before the hearing or during a recess, the parties shall be able to submit proposed questions or comments to the Lead. The Panel, in its sole discretion, may ask those submitted questions that it deems appropriate and relevant.
   - The Lead may request that Columbia students, staff, and faculty members give relevant testimony at the Hearing. If a non-party individual cannot attend, the Lead may – in the Lead’s sole discretion allow that individual to submit a written statement.
   - Upon request, the College shall allow either party to testify, otherwise participate, or appear at the Hearing in a different room than the other party. To that end, the College may use Skype, Zoom, or other means.
   - Hearings are not open to the public. Only the parties, the Coordinator, each party’s support person, the Hearing Panel, witnesses, and certain College employees as determined by the Coordinator may attend. Witnesses may only be present in the Hearing Room for their own testimony.
   - Questioning about the Complainant’s sexual history with anyone other than the Respondent is prohibited.
   - Except during recesses or periods when the Panel breaks to convene or deliberate in private, the parties and their support persons are entitled to attend the entire hearing, if they so desire.
   - Parties and witnesses should answer questions to the best of their knowledge. Knowingly providing false information is a violation of this Policy and may result in discipline.
• The College strongly encourages both parties to attend the hearing. If one party elects not to participate, the Hearing will proceed without that party, and the absent party will be unable to submit additional evidence for the Hearing Panel’s review.

6. Evidentiary Standard & Determination. The Hearing Panel shall examine all evidence received through the course of the investigation and hearing, and determine whether it is more likely than not that the Respondent engaged in the misconduct alleged (a “preponderance of the evidence” standard). Evidence of a prior consensual dating or sexual relationship between the parties by itself does not imply consent or preclude a finding of Sexual Misconduct. Within five days of the Hearing’s conclusion, the Hearing Panel shall submit a written report of its determination and rationale to the Coordinator.

7. Sanctions & Remedies. If the Panel finds a violation of this Policy, the Coordinator shall forward the aforementioned panel report to the Office of the Dean of Students for a determination of the appropriate sanctions or other remedies. Sanctions include: mandatory apologies, verbal reprimands, written warnings, behavioral contracts, loss of privileges, required College service or participation, restitution, learning activities, change or residence, probation, restricted access, suspension, and expulsion. Additionally, at its discretion, the College may provide permanent remedies or other accommodations for the Complainant or other members of the community, including but not limited to:
• Making permanent those steps that were administered on an interim basis;
• Providing comprehensive, holistic victim services including on-campus health center, on campus counseling, and academic support services, such as tutoring;
• Arranging for the Complainant to have extra time to complete or re-take a class or withdraw from a class without an academic or financial penalty;
• Reviewing any past disciplinary action against the Complainant to evaluate whether there was a causal connection between the Respondent’s Sexual Misconduct and the misconduct that resulted in the College disciplining the Complainant; and
• The Provision of additional education and/or support services for the entire Community.

The College will take such action to prevent the recurrence of the Sexual Misconduct and to address any discriminatory effects on the Complainant and others. When determining sanctions or remedies, the Office of the Dean of Students may consider aggravating and mitigating factors, including but not limited to:
(a) whether the Respondent has engaged in Sexual Misconduct in the past, (b) the nature of such past violations, if any, (c) the extent to which the conduct at issue here was premeditated, (d) the impact of the behavior on Complainant and/or the Columbia community, (e) whether the Respondent is apologetic or has otherwise accepted responsibility, (f) deterrence considerations, (g) the probability that Respondent will engage in another violation of a College policy, and (h) Respondent’s involvement in the Columbia community.

8. Simultaneous Written Notice of the Outcome & Sanctions. Within seven (7) days of the Hearing’s Conclusion, the Coordinator shall provide both parties with simultaneous written notice of: (1) the Panel’s decision regarding whether or not the alleged misconduct occurred, (2) the rationale for such decision, and (3) the process and applicable deadlines for submitting an appeal, including the name of the Appeals Officer. In this notice to the Respondent, the Coordinator shall also inform the Respondent of any sanctions imposed against the Respondent and the rationale for such sanctions. In the notice to the Complainant, the Coordinator shall additionally disclose any offered remedies or accommodations for the Complainant, and any sanctions imposed on the Respondent that relate directly to the Complainant and the reasons for such sanctions (all sanctions and the rationale for such sanctions, as required by the Clery Act, if the Sexual Misconduct is Sexual Violence), and any other steps that the College has taken or will take to eliminate the hostile environment, if the College finds one to exist, and to prevent its recurrence. The College will not inform the Respondent of the individual remedies or accommodations that it is providing to the Complainant. The College will not require a party to abide by a nondisclosure agreement, in writing or otherwise, that would prevent the redisclosure of information related to the outcome of the proceedings.
E. The Appeal.

1. Post Hearing Appeal Rights. Either party may send a written appeal to the Coordinator within ten (10) days of receiving formal notice of the Hearing Panel’s decision. To constitute a valid appeal, the appeal must assert at least one of the three following grounds: (1) the College’s investigation did not comply with this Policy and this failure resulted in a decision adverse to the appealing party, (2) there is previously unavailable evidence that could have significantly impacted the outcome of this complaint, or (3) the sanctions are disproportionate to the misconduct. A party shall submit a clear and detailed explanation of the basis for the appeal with any available documentation. The appeal must be limited to the scope of the initial charge.

If the Coordinator determines that the appeal is valid, the Coordinator will serve the opposing party with a copy and – with notice to both parties – assign the appeal to an Appeals Officer. The opposing party may issue a formal response within ten (10) days of receiving a copy of the appeal. Upon the expiration of this ten-day window or receipt of the opposing party’s response, the Appeals Officer will then have seven (7) days to consult with the Coordinator and issue a final decision to the parties – either upholding the finding and sanctions or imposing a revision to such orders. The Appeals Officer may implement a procedural remedy, including but not limited to remanding for a new hearing. The Appeals Officer, in the Appeals Officer’s sole discretion, may provide both parties with an opportunity to speak to the merits of the appeal in person, through video-conference, or over the phone. This Appeals Officer shall render a decision on the appeal, with simultaneous, written notice to both parties. This decision binds both parties and is not subject to subsequent appeal by either party.

2. Appeals Under Section XIV(C)(6). After accepting responsibility for a Charge, as articulated in section XIV(C)(6), a party shall have ten (10) days to submit a written appeal after receiving notice of any imposed sanctions. Section XIV(C)(6) appeals are limited to the grounds that the imposed sanctions are grossly disproportionate to the violation. All other timelines and procedures are identical to those in the above section.

SECTION XV. POLICY REVIEW & MODIFICATION.

The College reserves the right to modify or amend this Policy at any time. Any modifications shall not be retroactively applied to any pending investigations.
