Black Gossamer showcases the work of black contemporary artists who use and draw inspiration from clothing, fashion, textiles and fabrications to explore and uncover recent revolutions in black identity. Artists will not only present exciting ways they are working with dress, but also reveal the meanings and hidden codes behind their work – initiating dialogues on the current state of black culture, emerging trajectories within it and their implications.

Artists include: Aisha Bell, Sheila Bridges, Myra Greene, MARLON GRIFFITH, Krisanne Johnson, Kalup Linzy, Wangechi Mutu, and Ebony G. Patterson
Curated by: Camille Morgan

Gallery Hours: Mon-Wed, Fri 9am-5pm, Thurs 9am-7pm, Sat 12-5pm
