hokin honors exhibition

November 10, 2011 – December 16, 2011

C33 Gallery, 33 E. Congress, first floor

Reception: Thursday, November 10, 5-7pm

Awards Announcement: 5:30pm

The Department of Exhibitions and Performance Spaces is proud to present the 19th Annual Hokin Honors Exhibition. This annual exhibition showcases the work of undergraduate students who have been nominated by faculty at Columbia College for their outstanding artistic achievement and future potential. The exhibit features work by students in the departments of Art + Design, Photography, Fashion, Film & Video, Interactive Arts & Media, and Audio Arts & Acoustics.

A panel of arts professionals - curators/critics/artists active in the Chicago art scene - will select a number of works to receive awards.

The cover image shows the silver gelatin photograph Untitled #20 by Marné Provost which was selected for a top prize by the jurors of the 18th Annual Hokin Honors Exhibition.

Gallery Hours: Mon-Wed, 9am–5pm, Thurs 9am-7pm, Fri 9am-5pm, Sat by appt.
